Debroy committee charted Railway Reforms in 2015

DHEERAJ MISHRA
New Delhi, November 8

THE LANDMARK REPORT of the 2015 expert committee on Railway Reforms, headed by the late economist Bibek Debroy, did clear the decks for a complete overhaul of the national transporter to achieve economic viability in operational terms and recover its loss of competitiveness in the transportation market. While some of the recommendations have been taken on board, including the phasing out of the separate Rail Budget, the redesignation of the Chairman of Railway Board as CEO and a plan to accord more powers to General Managers (GMs) and Divisional General Managers (DRMs) to take decisions "independently", the overhauling recommendation on "liberalisation" of Indian Railways has not been taken on board yet.

Ashwini Vaishnav, Minister for Railways, Information & Broadcasting, Electronics & Information Technology, told The Indian Express that the government has taken the report seriously and implemented most of the important recommendations, especially the empowering of officers. The government also partially acted upon the recommendation for decentralisation to the division level of the mega organisation, the treatment of divisions as independent business units and DRMs being empowered to handle all types of tenders of the division.

Debroy, the renowned economist and polymath, who passed away late last week, had a special interest in railways, which is reflected in his series

IR more attractive and viable by changing the existing norms," said the committee. In view of the opposition from railway unions and political parties, the government did not accept this yet and said that it is under the purview of the Rail Development Authority (RDA).

An official of the Ministry of Railways said, "Unlike other departments, government support in Railways is required for maintaining better passenger facilities. Privatisation can work for the Goods system, but it will not be appropriate for the passenger system. The government felt that its intervention and support should continue and this is why the liberalisation part was rejected."

The official further said that Railways do have some projects based on the Public Private Partnership (PPP) model, but that is limited.

ways and empowering Railway officers," Vaishnav told IE.

Liberalisation push

The committee dealt with a range of issues related to the Indian Railways from decision-making structure, accounting system, human resource management & employee costs, multiplicity of different channels of entry into the IR, high revenue expenditure and low capital expenditure, financial status to setting up an Independent Regulator etc.

At the top of the recommendation was liberalisation of Indian Railways. While clarifying that by the term "liberalisation", it does not mean "privatization", the committee said that the entry of new operators into railways will be a viable option for encouraging growth and improving services. The committee also said that a regulatory mechanism to promote a healthy competition and to protect the interest of all stakeholders is an essential pre-requisite.

Priyanka has backing of Jamaat for Wayanad seat, says Vijayan

SHAJU PHILIP
Thiruvananthapuram, November 8

The bypoll in Wayanad was necessitated after Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi decided to vacate the seat and retain Rae Bareilly

The bypoll in Wayanad was necessitated after Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi decided to vacate the seat and retain Rae Bareilly, the other seat he had won in the parliamentary elections in April this year.

At the campaign event on Wednesday, Vijayan, who is also a CPI(M) Politburo member, said the Jamaat's political wing Welfare Party of India "is a shield" that the outfit has used in Jammu and Kashmir. "So far, Jamaat-e-Islami has strongly objected to elections in Jammu and Kashmir. They had adopted an extreme communal stand. Now, they have stood for BJP.

This time, they (Jamaat) decided to contest in a few seats and finally they concentrated on the seat where CPI(M) leader Tarigami is contesting. What is the reason? Tarigami should be defeated. BJP and extremists also desired that," Vijayan said.

TARGETING THE CONGRESS ahead of bypolls in the state, Kerala chief minister Pinarayi Vijayan said Priyanka Gandhi Vadra was contesting the Wayanad Lok Sabha seat with the support of Jamaat-e-Islami, which he said has an approach that is "not in favour of a democratic system".

Addressing a campaign event for the CPI(M)-led Left front's Wayanad candidate, Sathyan Mokeri, in Kalpetta, Vijayan said, "Priyanka Gandhi is contesting with the support of Jamaat-e-Islami. What is the stand of the Congress in this regard? Our country is not unfamiliar with Jamaat-e-Islami. Its adopted approach is not in favour of democratic system... They do not see the democratic system as important. For Jamaat-e-Islami, Islamic rule around the world is what is important. They stand for an Islamic regime."

Colaba makes headlines for low voter turnout

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, November 8

THE COLABA ASSEMBLY segment in south Mumbai may be a study in contrasts with houses of the super rich as well as shanties of the poor, but what unites all is a notorious apathy towards voting.

The area has offices of some of the country's top industrial houses, public sector enterprises, state government offices including Mantralaya and the legislature complex as well as the bullion markets. The constituency comprises Colaba, Cuffe Parade, Nariman Point, Churchgate, Marine Drive, Chira Bazar, Masjid Bunder, Navy Nagar etc.

The reason for the low turnout may be because the attitude of the voters, whether rich or poor, is one of not being bothered as

The reason for the low turnout may be because the attitude of the voters, whether rich or poor, is one of not being bothered as they feel there can be no change, former BJP MLA Raj Purohit told PTI.

Underlining the complexity of the constituency, sitting

BJP MLA Rahul Narwekar told PTI "it takes a legislator who can take everyone along".

"The high-rises of Colaba, Cuffe Parade, mohallas of Mohamed Ali Road, chawls of Girgaum are part of the constituency. These have the richest as well as the poorest people. It is a cosmopolitan constituency. I have been instrumental in getting leasehold land converted to freehold. The premium was reduced from 25% to 5%. This I am trying to further reduce to 2 per cent," Narwekar said.

The MLA said he had managed to get five vertical parking lots and eight new gardens in Colaba, while tenders for five new water reservoirs have been issued. He said he had got ₹150 crore allocated for repair of dilapidated buildings, which is a major issue facing voters.

Pressured to cancel seminars by envoys of Iran, 2 others: JNU prof

VIDHESHA KUNTAMALLA
New Delhi, November 8

A Jawaharlal Nehru University professor has filed a complaint with the administration claiming she was "pressured to cancel" three seminars, of which she was the coordinator, on the ongoing conflict in West Asia that were to be addressed separately by the Iranian, Palestinian, and Lebanese Ambassadors to India last month.

University sources told The Indian Express that Professor Sima Baidya, who was the seminar coordinator, was replaced last month by a junior colleague by the Centre's chairperson, Sameena Hameed. Following this, sources said, Baidya filed a complaint last week alleging that she was forced to cancel the confirmed events by Hameed and was wrongfully replaced. "An inquiry committee has been set up to look into the matter after Baidya was replaced as she was blamed for miscommunication by the Centre... and for causing an 'embarrassment' by cancelling the events with the Ambassadors," said a source at the School of International Studies under which the Centre for West Asian Studies operates.

Calls and messages to Hameed did not elicit any response. She had earlier told The Indian Express that the seminar with the Iranian Ambassador had been postponed, while the other two seminars were not "officially scheduled" by the Centre and that there had been a "miscommunication". Baidya did not respond to calls and messages seeking comment.

The Indian Express reported on October 25 that hours before the Iranian Ambassador, Dr Iraj Elahi, was scheduled to address a seminar titled 'How Iran sees the recent developments in West Asia' at 11 am on October 24, Baidya sent an email to students at 8:09 am informing the event's cancellation.

In the same email, Baidya announced the cancellation of the November 7 seminar on the violence in Palestine, to be addressed by Palestinian Ambassador Adnan Abu Al-Haija, and the November 14 seminar by Lebanese Ambassador Dr Rabie Narsh on the situation in Lebanon.
