Shiv Sena Demands Action Against BJP Corporator, MBMC Chairperson in Minor Abuse Case

Shinde faction's Women Wing Seeks Co-Accused Charges Against Anita Patil; Minister Pratap Sarnaik Announces Support for Survivor; Warns of Mass Agitation

Mira-Bhayandar, Najmul Hasan Rizvi:
Political tensions have escalated in Mira-Bhayandar following allegations surrounding a long-running sexual abuse and blackmail case involving a minor girl. The Shiv Sena Women's Wing has demanded that BJP corporator and Chairperson of the Municipal Women and Child Welfare Committee, Anita Patil, be booked as a co-accused and arrested for allegedly shielding the accused and failing to act despite being informed of the abuse. A delegation of the Shiv Sena Women's Wing submitted a memorandum to Police Commissioner Niketh Kaushik, urging immediate legal action and a thorough investigation into the case. According to the allegations, the survivor was allegedly subjected to sexual abuse by a school peon while she was a student in Class V.

The accused allegedly recorded objectionable videos and photographs and used them to blackmail her for several years. Shiv Sena leaders claim that the matter was brought to Anita Patil's attention when the victim was in Class X, but no effective action was taken. The party further alleged that after the death of the primary accused, his brother continued to threaten the survivor with the circulation of the videos. Shiv Sena has demanded stringent action against all those allegedly involved in intimidation and cover-up attempts. In its memorandum, the Women's Wing called for police protection for the survivor and her family, preservation of her identity, and immediate removal of objectionable content from digital platforms through cybercrime authorities. Issuing a strong warning, Shiv Sena leaders said, "If anyone is using political influence to protect the accused or delay justice, Shiv Sena will remain silent. Anita Patil should be treated as a co-accused if evidence establishes that she concealed information or shielded the perpetrators. Justice must not only be done but must also be seen to be done." Meanwhile, Maharashtra Transport Minister Pratap Sarnaik announced that he would extend support to the survivor's rehabilitation and future welfare. According to Shiv Sena representatives, Sarnaik has assured assistance for the victim's higher education, rehabilitation, and social support, describing the move as an effort to stand firmly with the survivor during a difficult period. The party warned that if action is delayed, it will launch a democratic public agitation demanding justice for the survivor.
