49 primary teachers promoted to the post of center head; posting confirmed through counseling process

Thane, Dinesh Singh : The process of filling up the vacant posts of Center Heads through the Primary Education Department under Zilla Parishad Thane was completed in a transparent and quality-based manner. In the presence of Chief Executive Officer Ranjit Yadav, 49 primary teachers were promoted to the post of Center Heads in a counseling program organized on June 19, 2026 at the Zilla Parishad Hall.

disabled category were eligible. To fill the 49 vacant posts of Head of Centre in the general group, candidates from serial numbers 1 to 51 in the merit list (excluding ineligible candidates from serial numbers 17 and 19) were given an opportunity for counselling. During the counselling, Mr. Gopal Rohidas Mhatre from serial number 51 in the merit list refused in writing to accept the post of Head of Centre, and Smt. Dipali Vijay Badgujar from serial number 52 in the merit list was given the opportunity to select the centre. Thus, out of the candidates with serial numbers 1 to 52 in the merit list, excluding two ineligible candidates and one candidate's refusal, a total of 49 candidates selected Group Resource Centers through the counselling process and confirmed their placement. On this occasion, a large number of Group Education Officers, Center Heads, Education Extension Officers, as well as officers and employees of the Primary Education Department from all the talukas of the district were present. On behalf of the newly appointed center heads, the representatives expressed satisfaction that the Zilla Parishad administration completed the promotion process in a fast, transparent and timely manner. They also thanked the officers and employees of the education department for their continuous guidance and follow-up throughout the process. On this occasion, gratitude was also expressed to the Chief Executive Officer Ranjit Yadav for successfully completing this process under his leadership. On behalf of the Zilla Parishad Thane administration, it was highlighted that the role of center heads is important for improving the quality of education, the effectiveness of educational management, and the academic progress of schools.
