'Will exchange views on energy, food security, counter-terrorism'

NEW DELHI: Ahead of his visit to Germany for the G7 summit, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday said he will exchange views with the leaders of the bloc and its partners on issues such as energy, food security, counter-terrorism, environment and democracy.

Modi is visiting Schloss Elmau in southern Germany on June 26-27 for the summit of the G7, a grouping of the world's 7 richest nations. The G7 leaders are expected to focus on the Ukraine crisis that has triggered geopolitical turmoil besides fuelling a global food and energy crisis.

Modi is attending the G7 meet following an invitation by German Chancellor Olaf Scholz. The summit is being hosted by Germany in its capacity as the chair of G7.

"To strengthen international collaboration on important global issues impacting humanity, Germany has also invited other democracies such as Argentina, Indonesia, Senegal and South Africa to the G7 Summit," Modi said in a statement.

"During the sessions, I will be exchanging views with the G7 countries, G7 partner countries and guest International Organisations on topical issues such as environment, energy, climate, food security, health, counter-terrorism, gender equality and democracy," he added.

Modi said he was looking forward to meeting leaders of the participating G7 and guest countries on the sidelines of the summit. "While in Germany, I look forward to meeting members of the Indian diaspora from the Europe, contributing immensely to local economies as also enriching our relations with European nations," he said.

From Germany, Modi will travel to the UAE on June 28. "On my way back to India, I will make a brief stopover in Abu Dhabi, UAE for a meeting with Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the UAE and Ruler of Abu Dhabi, on June 28 to convey my personal condolences on the passing away of Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the former UAE President and Ruler of Abu Dhabi," Modi said.

Hosting G20 summit privilege for J&K: L-G

SRINAGAR: Jammu and Kashmir Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha on Saturday said it was a matter of privilege for the union territory for hosting the G-20 summit in 2023 and asserted that the administration would put in every effort to make it a grand event.

J&K will be hosting the 2023 meetings of G20, an influential grouping that brings together the world's major economies, with the UT administration on Thursday setting up a five-member high-level committee for overall coordination.

This will be the first major international summit to be held in J&K after its special status guaranteed under Article 370 of the Constitution was withdrawn and the erstwhile state was divided into two UTs in August 2019.

"It is a very good beginning. It is a matter of privilege for us that we will get the opportunity to host the G-20 summit. We have framed a committee and we will put in all our efforts to make it grand," Sinha told reporters.

Earlier, the L-G said the development in the UT can happen only in a peaceful environment. "If there is no peace, then rest assured no power on earth can bring in development to the place. There are some people who do not like this. They do not want peace here, they want violence. J&K's welfare is in this, we can progress and come closer to or overcome other nations only when there is peace here," he said.

Sinha said if the UT returns to the phase of strikes and shutdowns and violence, "then those days which were very painful, may have to be seen again". "I appeal to people to be cautious. They are not your friends, they want to create hurdles in the way to peace on the directions from the outside. The administration and security forces are committed to protecting the common man."

Historians, scholars oppose govt proposal to raze century-old Sultan Palace in Patna

PATNA: The Bihar government's proposal to demolish the historic Sultan Palace in the heart of Patna has shocked historians, conservationists and ordinary citizens who have vehemently opposed the decision and appealed for preserving and restoring the "architectural icon" instead of razing it.

The Nitish Kumar government recently announced the state cabinet had given its nod to build 3 five-star hotels in Patna, including one at the site of the 100-year-old Sultan Palace on Beer Chand Patel Road. As the move was made public, protests erupted on social media, with many citizens calling it "absolutely shocking" and "a hare-brained decision" even as some cited the Bihar government's earlier decision, taken a few years ago, to convert the palace into a "heritage hotel" and asked why has it discarded the widely-reported old plan.

Ordinary citizens, scholars and activists from across the country have appealed to the government to not demolish the Sultan Palace, one of the last surviving palaces in Patna, and instead convert it into a heritage five-star hotel, which would only enhance its value and attract more tourists.

The palace, on the historic Gardiner Road (now Beer Chand Patel Road), was built in 1922 by the legendary barrister of Patna, Sir Sultan Ahmad, who also briefly served as a judge in the Patna HC and as the first Indian vice-chancellor of the Patna University from 1923-30. He later became a member of the viceroy's executive council for law and information and broadcasting, and was part of the team of India for the historic 1930s Round Table Conferences in London, along with Mahatma Gandhi.
