The quarter also delivered a clear earnings turnaround, with EPS moving from a loss of ₹1.09 in Q4 FY26 to a positive ₹1.13 in Q1 FY27.

Our performance reflects continued business momentum alongside a significant improvement in operating profitability. The enterprise engagements secured across insurance, financial services, professional services and digital commerce further demonstrate the relevance of our integrated capabilities and our ability to address increasingly complex technology requirements.

During the quarter, we also strengthened our managed services proposition through OHMS™ 2.0, the next evolution of Orient's managed services framework. OHMS™ 2.0 is designed to help enterprises move from fragmented IT management towards a more integrated, proactive and outcome-driven operating model. By bringing together infrastructure management, cloud operations, cybersecurity and service management capabilities, we aim to provide customers with greater visibility, operational resilience and efficiency across increasingly complex IT environments.

Cybersecurity continues to be a strategic growth area for Orient Technologies as enterprises face an expanding threat landscape and increasing regulatory and operational complexity. We are strengthening our capabilities across cybersecurity and digital forensics while integrating security more deeply across infrastructure, cloud and managed services. Our focus is on helping customers move beyond point solutions towards a more comprehensive security posture built around prevention, visibility, resilience and continuous protection.

As we move through FY27, we remain focused on disciplined execution, expanding our services-led portfolio, deepening strategic technology partnerships and building capabilities in areas where enterprise technology spending is evolving. Our objective remains clear: to deliver sustainable, profitable growth while creating long-term value for our customers, partners and shareholders."
