Panache Digilife Launches product “Infinia” catering to sanitization needs

Addition of comprehensive product under 'Lyf-Lyn range'

Mumbai, December 21, 2020: Panache Digilife Limited is very happy to inform our esteemed stakeholders about the launch of “Infinia” – a smart disinfectant dispensing information and visitor management kiosk under its New-age Smart Personal and Community Hygiene Ecosystem product range – “Lyf-Lyn” to address the sanitization process as well as enable creation and maintenance of health records.

Panache Digilife has developed a unique freestanding kiosk which comes with a display screen for visitor management and sensors to measure the body temperature of visitors. In addition to this, it also includes contact-less automatic sanitizer with the battery back-up. “Infinia” is a smart disinfectant dispensing information and visitor management kiosk that conveniently provides for public digital interaction without compromising on the health and safety of the individual. The product has wider applications across all the public places such as, Retails Mall, Cinemas, Educational Institutes, Airport, Railway Station, Hostels, Hotels as well as Commercial Premises.

Key features of Infinia:

- IR temperature check with Alarm
- Contact-less automatic sanitizer
- Spray dispenser
- Auto stabilization for high precision
- Battery back-up
- Accuracy: 0.2 degree Celsius

Commenting on the launch of new product, Mr. Amit Rambhia, Chairman & Managing Director,“We at Panache Digilife Limited are delighted to inform about the launch of 'Infinia' within the Lyf-Lyn range of products which is an outcome of a constant innovation efforts which we have taken since the outbreak of COVID-19. We have come out with various hygiene solutions earlier to fight against ongoing pandemic and this one is the more innovative effort in that direction. This is uniquely designed product with a display screen. With the sole aim of 'Making Human Life Easy', we are developing more products by combining disruptions in technology to simplify the life of people in these extraordinary times.”
