Congress Seeks Third Term, says MNF, BJP in Secret Pact

POLL CARD
Mizoram

With barely four weeks to go for the November 28 assembly election, campaigning has entered the final phase. The ruling Congress has declared its candidates for all 40 seats, as has opposition MNF, while BJP chief Amit Shah recently kick-started his party's campaign. Bikash Singh takes a look at the key issues so far.

Chakma Factor

The coordination committee of non-governmental organisations (NGOs) has urged political parties to refrain from fielding Chakma candidates. There are two constituencies, Tuzung in Lawngtlai district and West Tuzung in Lunglei district, which are largely dominated by the Chakma community. Prominent Chakma leader Buddha Dhan Chakma recently resigned from the Congress and joined the BJP. The Congress has fielded candidates from both these seats. Zoram People's Movement, an electoral alliance of seven parties, has announced that it will not field candidates in the two seats. Some NGOs are branding Chakmas as foreigners in the Chakmas claim that they are sons of the soil. There are nearly 90,000 Chakmas staying in Mizoram.

The Watchdog

The Church-backed watchdog, Mizoram People's Forum (MPF), formed in 2006 has a list of do's and don'ts which has been agreed to by eight political parties. This is aimed at ensuring free and fair polls in Mizoram. Leaders of eight political parties signed a memorandum of understanding with the MPF. The MPF comprises Mizoram Presbyterian church synod, the largest Christian denomination in the state, church elders, women from different organisations and senior citizens. The Election Commission (EC) directed the Mizoram government to remove a principal secretary level officer on charges of interfering with the poll process. An umbrella organisation of several organisations sought removal of Mizoram chief electoral officer Sili Shuhunk, claiming that he had lost the trust of the people. The NGO coordination committee also asked the CEO to leave the state by Monday. The EC stated that the continuance of Lalhmuawia Chhuang as principal secretary (PSE), in state government of Mizoram would have an adverse impact on conduct of smooth free and fair election in Mizoram. The EC also directed that Chhuang be relieved of his present responsibilities with immediate effect. It said the matter followed "a series of incidents" that took place in Mizoram causing concern to the commission regarding the successful completion of summary revision of electoral rolls and also successful conduct of free and fair election in Mizoram.

Manifestos

The Congress has promised to provide free laptops to students who have cleared class 10 and above if it retains power. The party also promised to continue its rural land use policy (RULUP) for farmers and new economic development policy (NEDP) for unemployed youths. Launched in 2011, the NEDP is aimed at checking the practice of 'Jhum' or shifting cultivation. In its manifesto, the Congress claimed that against the target of 1.7 lakh families, the scheme has covered 1.68 lakh families. It said that NEDP would also be continued, with a special thrust on entrepreneurship development for youth, even as opposition parties have alleged that NUP has benefited only Congress workers. MNF has promised to initiate an Assam-like national register of citizens (NRC) in the state. In its manifesto, the party has assured that it will initiate village level citizens' register if it is voted to power. It also said that Mizoram culture and religious practices shall always be upheld and protected as per the provision of the Mizoram Accord.

Poll Campaign

The Congress has claimed that Mizoram is witnessing economic resurgence and is among the most peaceful states, all thanks to the party's rule of 10 years. The BJP, MNF and other opposition parties, on the other hand, are campaigning for change. The BJP is seeking to paint the Congress as dynastic and corrupt while the Congress has alleged that the MNF has struck a secret understanding with the BJP and that the two will try to form a coalition government in case of a hung assembly. The Congress has kept its pact with the BJP a secret and announced that it will contest the polls on its own behalf. The BJP is not accepted in Christianity dominated Mizoram (87% of whose residents are Christian).

OTHER NEWS OF THE DAY

Babbar Sees Naxal Fight As Revolution

Rajpur Uttar Pradesh Congress Committee chief Raj Babbar, while commenting on the Naxal activity in post-bound Chhattisgarh, said the revolution undertaken by them should be resolved through conversation. "The people whose rights have been taken away, who are in misery, are laying their lives to get back their rights. However, usage of guns by either of the parties will not lead to any solution," he said. —ANI

'Naxals Will Shun Violence if BSP Wins'

Akaltari: In the run-up to the polls in Chhattisgarh, BSP president Mayawati on Sunday asserted that if her party emerges victorious, minority communities, the poor and Muslims residing in the state will be uplifted. The BSP executive further asserted Naxals will leave the path of violence and start working in the right direction if her party is voted to power. —ANI

EC Seeks Action Against PROs

Hyderabad: Election authorities have asked the Telangana government to initiate necessary action into allegations that public relations officers (PROs) working with caretaker ministers were allegedly involved in canvassing for the TRS on social media ahead of the assembly elections next month. EC has requested the government to accord top priority to the matter and furnish a compliance report. —PTI

22 Registered Electoral Trusts

However, some observers said the trusts' role may diminish with launch of electoral bonds as funding instruments. BJP got ₹14 crore in 34 installments during April 2017 to March 2018. Four cheque payments were made to Congress in 2017 and the ₹25.99 crore in 2017 and January 2018.

D.J. Bhargava, the first and only person to be elected as President, which has been making its largest contribution to BJP for the past four years. It gave ₹17.7 crore of ₹14.4 crore (84%) in FY18, when it was known as Satya. In FY18, it donated ₹15 crore of ₹11 crore (86%) to BJP and ₹2 crore to Congress. In FY18, it donated ₹12.5 crore of ₹10.5 crore to BJP (89%), while Congress received ₹2 crore.

In FY18, BJP got 85% of the trust. While President towers above all other trusts, the funding pattern is similar to that of the next rank — the AB General Electoral Trust of the Aditya Birla Group. It gave ₹11 crore in FY18, of which ₹12.5 crore went to BJP and ₹1 crore to Congress and ₹2 crore to RJD.

The Murugappa Group-backed Tripathi Electoral Trust has been more equidistant, giving ₹1 crore each to BJP and Congress from last year. Some trusts lack just one party. The Jaishankar Electoral Trust gave its entire ₹5 lakh fund to Jammu and Kashmir's National Conference while the Janakiah Electoral Trust went to RJD in Bihar to the Sharda Pawan Lal Nationalist Congress Party (NCP).

While there are as many as 22 registered electoral trusts in India, the rest have been largely inactive, as per data gleaned from contribution reports. The erstwhile Satya Electoral Trust came to prominence ahead of the previous Lok Sabha election. A clear leader from the start, it evoked the maximum donations (over ₹1 crore) with ₹1.17 crore. Its FY17 collection of ₹20.23 crore has been its highest. It was originally backed by 31 companies associated with the Aditya Birla Group. It earlier operated out of the Birla Group office in Delhi's Vasant Vihar. It subsequently moved to New Bunkar on Badli Road, Delhi and changed its name to President.

Bharti Group has reportedly said President is an independent electoral trust governed by an independent board. It has also maintained that various leading corporates are donors to the trust, including Bharti Mobile Corp, Bharti Airtel, Jubilant Foodworks, GMMCO, National Engineering Industries, Orion Cement, DLF, IC Type and Industries, Indus Towers, PTT, and Kalpataru Power Transmission, among others.
