Muted Q1 performance for listed media majors

Polls, cricket, lack of big-budget movies hit broadcasters' showing

RAM PRASAD SAHU
New Delhi, 5 July

A cricket-heavy calendar, lack of big-budget movie releases, and elections weighed on listed media majors in the broadcasting and movie exhibition space during the first quarter of the financial year 2024-25 (FY25).

Barring Sun TV, which has outperformed the broader markets as well as the benchmarks with a return of 26 per cent over the last three months, returns for PVR Inox — six per cent — and Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited (ZEEL) — flat — over this period are nothing to write home about. The advertising space in Q1FY25 was marked by IPL matches in April and May, the T20 World Cup in June and election-related ad spends. FMCG ad spending slowed down in June, Balaji Subramanian and Siddharth Zabak of IIFL Research said. It was due to an erratic monsoon and in anticipation of the Union Budget. Zee and Sun may see muted ad revenue growth, as they are under-indexed in the sports and news genres.

ICICI Securities too believes that advertising revenues are likely to remain soft for general entertainment content (GEC) broadcasters in Q1FY25, given the strongest cricket season in a quarter in recent memory and Lok Sabha polls helping news channels take away additional wallet share. However, overall advertising spends continued to increase sequentially, said Abhisek Banerjee and Jayram Shetty of the brokerage.

Thinning footfall

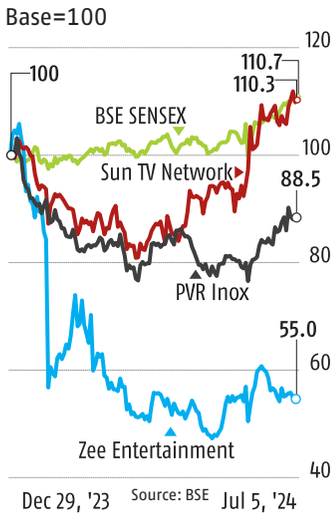

For the film exhibition business, the June quarter was also sub-par due to cricket and the election season, besides a lack of big-budget content.

Box office collections were 8 per cent lower on a sequential basis and flattish as compared to the year-ago quarter. While Q1FY24 had 60 per cent contribution from Hindi (42 per cent) and English (18 per cent), Q1FY25 had higher regional content at 57 per cent. During Q1FY25, only one movie managed to cross ₹100 crore mark in terms of net collection. Kalki 2898 AD, which was released at the fag end of the quarter, did well, accounting for 17 per cent of the June quarter collection.

BITTERSWEET

Base=100

In the previous quarter (Q4FY24), five movies had crossed the ₹100 crore mark, accounting for 41 per cent of the box office collections. As compared to Q2FY24, the best-ever quarter for the industry, net box office collections were 44 per cent lower, point out Deep Shah and Kavish Parekh of Batlivala and Karani Securities. Production houses held back key releases due to elections and the cricket season.

Brokerage firm UBS Securities believes that Kalki 2898 AD won't be enough for PVR Inox to break even at the operating level in Q1FY25. Further, two-thirds of collections are made in regional languages where PVR has a low presence. The company is likely to have a difficult first half of FY25 and recovery hopes are now dependent on the remaining two quarters of the year.

Mixed bag

Advertising revenues for ZEEL and Sun TV are expected to be flattish. However, TV Today might register an ad revenue growth of 20 per cent Y-o-Y due to the positive impact of general election spends.

Led by price hikes, subscription revenues are expected to be in the 4-7 per cent growth band for ZEEL and Sun TV. Revenues from the movie segment of ZEEL are expected to see a sharp jump over the year-ago quarter as the base quarter did not have any movies made and distributed by Zee while Q1 had two movies (Maidan and Mr & Mrs Mahi).

Elara Securities expects the operating profit margins for ZEEL to grow 200 basis points Y-o-Y and 30 basis points Q-o-Q in the quarter to 10 per cent. This could improve from the second quarter, led by cost optimisation initiatives. The margins for Sun TV could improve by 130 basis points Y-o-Y and 610 basis points sequentially to 61 per cent.

On the valuations front, IIFL Research has raised the target enterprise value to operating profit multiple for PVR Inox from 10.5 times to 11.5 times. This is due to a strong content pipeline, especially in Q3 which is expected to support the stock.

ICICI Securities believes that in the medium term, GEC TV broadcasters are likely to benefit as FMCG companies dial up their ad spends. While advertising and promotional spends as percentage of revenue increased by 180 basis points Y-o-Y for the 'top 5' FMCG advertisers (home and personal care) in India in FY24 at an aggregate level, the flow through to the revenue of GEC TV broadcasters was limited.

Cashless denied? Swipe card, go for secured loans

SANJAY KUMAR SINGH & KARTHIK JEROME

A recent survey by Policybazaar.com found that many people with health insurance policies face challenges when denied the cashless facility and forced to make upfront payments at hospitals. About 70 per cent of reimbursement claimants reported taking loans from formal or informal sources or dipping into savings meant for other life goals.

When is cashless not available?

One scenario is when the patient seeks treatment at a hospital that is not part of the insurer's network. The Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (Irdai) recently launched the "Cashless Anywhere" facility but it is in its infancy.

Another scenario can arise even at a network hospital. "If the policy was purchased recently and a claim for a major disease arises, the insurer would want time to investigate. It could ask the customer to file for reimbursement," says Siddharth Singhal, business head-health insurance, Policybazaar.com.

In a reimbursement claim, the patient may have to deposit either the full cost of treatment or a part of it. If the cashless request is denied, the entire cost may need to be paid for planned treatments. Sometimes, the insurer provides a cashless claim for a certain amount, but additional expenses arise later. The patient then has to pay the extra amount out of her pocket. In emergency treatments at non-network hospitals, the patient may have to make an initial payment upon admission, additional payments during treatment, and a final payment at discharge.

Use credit card, explore loan options

In an emergency, use your credit card for the initial payment. "It provides an immediate and assured line of credit, with no documentation required," says Adhil Shetty, chief executive officer (CEO) of Bankbazaar. You may then get a day or so to raise additional funds. The downside of a credit card is the high interest cost if you cannot repay the amount in full and need to either revolve credit (2-3.5 per cent per month) or convert the balance to EMIs.

Your next option could be a personal loan. "It is usually the fastest option. If you have a salary account, you may even have a pre-approved loan facility," says Shetty. A gold loan is another option. Besides being cheaper than a personal loan, it offers flexible repayment options. Go to a regulated entity to avoid exorbitant interest rates.

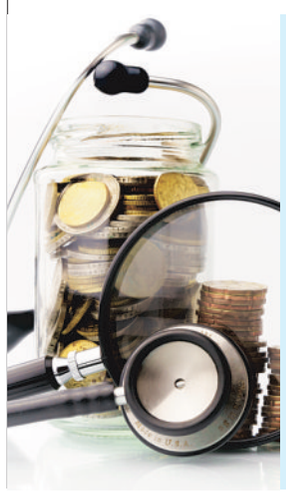

Also consider a loan against a fixed deposit (FD). "The interest rate would be a couple of percentage points above the FD rate," says Shetty. Alternative online loan providers offer quick loans. "But they are very costly, with interest rates ranging from 24 to 36 per cent. The speed of obtaining these loans is offset by their high interest rates," says Vishal Dhawan, chief financial planner, Plan Ahead Wealth Advisors.

Plan for medical emergencies

Keep some emergency cash at home, especially if there are senior citizens. Also, ensure your credit card limits are adequate.

Set aside a healthcare fund of ₹3-10 lakh, depending on your city and hospital options. "Keep this money in accessible instruments, such as a liquid fund, or a flexi-FD account that breaks an FD when needed and transfers money to your savings account," says Dhawan.

A family member should know the PIN for credit and debit cards in case the cardholder gets incapacitated.

DOs AND DON'Ts OF RAISING MONEY IN EMERGENCY

- Don't choose the first loan option that comes your way
- Consider loan from bank where you have salary account, but also others where you have long-standing FDs or savings accounts
- Understand terms and conditions: Prioritise loans whose terms you are familiar with
- Avoid predatory lenders who offer quick loans against gold or other collateral at very high interest rates, as these can lead to a debt spiral

How to claim your income tax refund?

The government has simplified claiming income-tax refunds, easing the process for citizens to reclaim their money. To claim an income-tax refund, file your income-tax return (ITR) correctly and on time by July 31.

ELIGIBILITY FOR REFUND:

- Advance tax payments exceed 100 per cent of your actual tax liability
- TDS payments exceed your final tax liability after assessment
- Last-minute tax-saving investments
- Excess tax paid due to assessment errors

THE REFUND PROCESS:

- Accessing the income tax e-filing portal
- Filing your ITR
- Verifying your ITR

Once verified, the tax department processes it and calculates any refund due. The approved refund is deposited directly into your bank account.
