Management Commentary

Commenting on the performance, Mr. Mahesh Fogla, Whole-time Director & Chief Financial Officer, said:

"The Company has commenced FY2026-27 on a strong note, delivering healthy growth in all aspects including growth in volume, revenue and profitability. The improvement in our operational and financial performance reflects sustained focus on operational excellence.

The successful completion of the equity share buyback reflects the Board's conviction that the Company's intrinsic value and long-term growth prospects remain compelling. The buyback also demonstrates our disciplined approach to capital allocation while maintaining adequate financial flexibility to support future business growth.

Looking ahead, we remain focused on strengthening our market position, expanding customer relationships and driving sustainable, profitable growth while maintaining financial discipline in a dynamic business environment.
