Commenting on the situation, the Federation of All India Catering Association's President Narendra Somani stated that the limit of 100 persons for an event like wedding is not sufficient. "Be- cause in Indian tradition, a marriage is one of the major celebrations of a lifetime, therefore, people love to cele- brate it in a grandeur man- ner with utmost enthusiasm by inviting near and dear ones and guests.

Thus, we demand that the governments should increase this guest limit."

The Founder and President of 'The Event Management Federation', Jaideep Mehta, in- formed that despite govern- ment efforts to unlock the country and bring the eco- nomic activities gradually on track, the sector of wedding, events and exhibition has not been able to take benefit of the unlock guidelines.

If concrete, proper relief and revival measures are not taken, then it is likely that the industry would be left with no option but make a total close- ure, leaving millions of family unemployed, the trade rep- resentatives expressed fears.

Those connected to the sector include caterers, event planners, florists, tent and pavilion contractors, furniture, transporters, light and sound service contractors, photo- graphers and videographers, printers, commercials, print- ers, various musicians, per- forming artists, beauticians, jewellers, clothes merchants, event planners, tour opera- tors, hotels, banquet-halls, party plots and many more.
