Celebrating Growth and Tradition this Navratri, PNG Jewellers Opens New Stores in Moshi and Wakad

Pune, 1 October 2025 – PNG Jewellers, one of India’s most trusted family jewellery brands, recently announced the launch of two new stores in Moshi and Wakad during Navratri 2025. Marking another milestone in its expansion journey, both stores bring PNG’s signature blend of heritage, purity, and contemporary designs to vibrant new customer bases.

Both located at Pimpri-Chinchwad, the stores will showcase PNG’s complete range of gold, diamond, silver, and platinum jewellery, including bridal collections such as Pratha, Golden Katha, Eiina, and Saptam across traditional and lightweight modern designs. To celebrate the launch, PNG Jewellers is offering up to 50% off on gold jewellery making charges, up to 100% off on diamond jewellery making charges, and 0%* deduction on old gold exchange.

Speaking at the launch in Moshi, Bollywood diva Chitragada Singh said, “PNG Jewellers has always been a brand that connects with families and traditions. Their commitment to serving customers with sincerity and artistry makes every new store a true celebration.”

Dr. Saurabh Gadgil, Chairman and Managing Director of PNG Jewellers, added, “With Moshi and Wakad, we strengthen our presence in Pune’s growing hubs and reaffirm our promise to remain a jeweller for every generation. The launch during Navratri makes this moment even more special, as the festival embodies new beginnings, prosperity, and togetherness, values that perfectly resonate with PNG Jewellers’ legacy and vision.”

With these additions in retail stores, PNG Jewellers further strengthens their network of influence, trust, and brilliance across Maharashtra’s evolving jewellery consumer base.
