Sunflower drive launched at Govt Museum

Chennai, Oct 2: Chennai collector S Malathi Helen on Thursday launched a sunflower seed planting drive at the Government Museum in Egmore as part of World Tourism Day 2026 celebrations, with plans to expand the initiative to more public spaces across the city.

The initiative is part of the 'Chennai Sunflower City' movement, which aims to create sunflower gardens in educational institutions, residential neighbourhoods and public spaces.

More than 3.5 lakh sunflower seeds have so far been distributed to the public under the initiative. Sunflowers have been grown at several prominent locations, including Ripon Buildings, Victoria Public Hall, Dakshina Chitra Heritage Museum, Express Avenue, Lalit Kala Akademi, K.K. High School, Hindustan University and Chennai airport, besides homes and other institutions.

After planting sunflower seeds at the museum, Malathi Helen interacted with NGO workers and NSS volunteers and explained the methods of planting and maintaining the flowers.

She also urged voluntary organisations to take up similar initiatives using different varieties of seeds at parks and public spaces to increase greenery in Chennai. Officials said the movement, which began as a small urban home-gardening initiative, has gradually expanded into a community-driven programme across the city.

District tourism officials, representatives of Exnora International, NSS volunteers and members of the public participated in the programme.
