India, UK discuss ways to boost cooperation in strategic areas

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 22

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER S Jaishankar and British foreign secretary Liz Truss held wide-ranging talks on Friday with a focus on infrastructure investment as well as defence and security cooperation.

On a two-day visit to India, Truss also held meetings with finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman and environment minister Bhupender Yadav here.

Truss is expected to announce a series of tech and infrastructure tie-ups with India to boost both economies and help developing countries grow in a clean and sustainable way, according to a statement issued by the British High Commission on Truss' India visit.

India and the UK, after a virtual summit between Prime Minister Narendra Modi and his British counterpart Boris Johnson, had unveiled an ambitious 10-year roadmap to boost cooperation in key areas, including defence, security and healthcare.

They had also announced an enhanced trade partnership under which they agreed to negotiate a comprehensive and balanced FTA including an interim trade pact for delivering early gains.

Ahead of her India visit, Truss said, "I want the UK and India to step up their partnership in critical areas like technology, investment, security and defence. India is the world's largest democracy, a tech and economic powerhouse and a vital strategic partner for the UK."

"Closer ties — including in areas like tech and infrastructure — will deliver jobs and growth in both countries, boost developing world economies and help us promote our values on the global stage," she said.

WTO director general calls on PM Modi

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 22

WORLD TRADE ORGANISATION (WTO) Director General Ngozi Okonjo Iweala met Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday. The PMO posted a picture of their meeting.

Iweala had earlier tweeted, "Happy to be in Delhi when India reaches the one billionth dose of Covid-19 vaccines! Delighted to note that vaccine exports to low income countries have resumed! Congratulations to Prime Minister @narendramodi @PMOIndia @PiyushGoyal @mansukhmandviya and the Indian people!"

Puri says taxes on petrol, diesel funding vaccines, free meals, other schemes

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 22

AMID A CLAMOUR by the Opposition for cutting taxes to soften record high petrol and diesel prices, oil minister Hardeep Singh Puri on Friday equated the move to 'axing one's own feet', saying such levies funded government schemes to provide free Covid-19 vaccines, meals and cooking gas to millions amid the pandemic.

He also said domestic rates are linked to international oil prices, which have shot up due to a variety of reasons which need to be understood.

"I think this simplistic political narrative we get in India

(that), 'Prices have gone up why don't you reduce your taxes...so every time price goes up due to something else, it says you axe your own feet in the process,' he told reporters here.

He was asked a question on whether the government would cut taxes, which make up for 54% of the price of petrol and over 48% of diesel, to ease the burden on consumers.

"Yesterday we completed vaccinating one billion (against Covid), we fed 90 crore people for one full year (during the pandemic) providing 3 meals in a day, we did Ujjwala scheme (of providing free cooking gas LPG refill to 8 crore poor beneficiaries).

"All this and much more with that ₹32 a litre excise duty (levied by the central government)," he asserted.

The money collected from tax also goes into building roads, constructing houses for the poor and other social welfare schemes.

"I am not the finance minister therefore it is not an appropriate answer for me to give," he said on demands for cutting taxes. "That Rs 32 a litre that we collect provides us the ability to provide all these welfare services, including 1 billion vaccines."

The relentless hikes in prices have pushed petrol and diesel rates to record highs across the country.

Vaccine drive success can boost economic growth: India Inc

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 22

INDIA INC ON Friday said the country's "hugely successful" Covid-19 vaccination programme under Prime Minister Narendra Modi's leadership can boost economic growth and help realise the vision of a New India.

Hailing crossing of the 100-crore vaccine doses milestone, Modi on Friday said India's vaccination programme was science-born, science-driven and science-based.

In an address to the nation, the prime minister also urged people to keep following Covid protocol during the festival season and not drop their guard.
