Q2FY27 Consolidated Financial Highlights:

- Revenue from operations grew 21.6% YoY to Rs 388.7 crore, driven by 20.7% increase in Quarterly Average AUM in the mutual fund business & 46.0% growth in the insurance business.
- Strong revenue growth coupled with controlled costs drove operating profit up by 42.4% YoY to Rs 102.8 crore. This also resulted in a healthy margin expansion of 390 basis points YoY to 26.4% during the quarter.
- Other income was impacted by mark-to-market (MTM) reversals during the quarter, resulting in PAT growth trailing operating profit growth, with profit after tax rising 33.9% YoY to Rs 71.7 crore.
- Prudent's monthly SIP book grew 17% YoY to ₹1,272 crore in September 2026. As its growth outpaced the industry, Prudent's market share increased to 3.7% from 3.5% a year earlier.

Commenting on the results,

Mr Sanjay Shah,

Chairman & Managing Director of Prudent Group stated:

"Our strong momentum continued in Q2 FY27, with revenue from operations growing by 21.6% and operating profit increasing by 42.4%.

Our Specialized Investment Fund (SIF) business is emerging as a key growth driver, with SIF partners rising to 1,792 from 1,323 in the previous quarter and SIF AUM reaching Rs 900 crore. We added 3,541 channel partners in 1H FY27, nearly 30% more than in the corresponding period last year. The expansion of our distribution network, supported by strong execution, helped increase our equity mutual fund market share to 2.70% from 2.59% a year earlier. We continue to invest in expanding our branch network and evaluating value-accretive acquisition opportunities."
