Two 9-year-olds gangraped near swimming pool in Delhi, 2 held

New Delhi: Two men alleged to have raped two nine-year-old girls near an under-construction swimming pool on a private property in Delhi's Narela last week. The two, a contractor and a caretaker, have been arrested. A group of girls had found the gate to the pool area open and entered the premises for a swim.

The man, Anil Kumar (37) and Munsif Kumar (34) lured the two girls and assaulted them, police claimed, adding that the men threatened the survivors after the alleged assault. On Aug 8, the mother of one of the survivors filed a complaint, alleging that her daughter and another girl were sexually assaulted.

A case was registered under sections 70C (gang rape), 127 (wrongful confinement) and 353 (criminal intimidation) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita and sections 5 and 10 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (PoCSO) Act at Narela police station.

The statements of survivors were recorded by the police. Police arrested Anil and Munsif after following the due procedure. Police didn't mention their involvement in any previous criminal cases.

Release prisoners who've completed sentence, says SC

Ami Anand Choudhary
@timesofindia.com

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Tuesday held that a convict sentenced to life imprisonment for a fixed term like 20 years is entitled to be released from jail after completing the term and there was no need for him to seek remission of sentence to be free, which is needed in case of simple life imprisonment.

The SC bench rejected a petition that a convict, even if serving a fixed term, could come out of jail only when his plea for remission of sentence was allowed by govt. The court, which had on July 29 directed release of Sukhdev Pathan in the Nishikata case as he had completed 20 years in jail, passed a reasoned judgment.

Taking note of the fact that many convicts have completed their sentences and are languishing in prison, SC directed that copy of the order be circulated to home secretaries of all states and UTs to ascertain whether any accused/convict remained in jail, beyond the period of sentence and if so, to issue directions for release of such accused/convicts, if not wanted in any other case.

Aunt gouges out 12-yr-old's eye for 'dropping' infant daughter

Agra: A girl (12) suffered permanent vision loss in one eye after her aunt allegedly gouged out her with a steel hairband in a fit of rage after the former accused her of dropping her infant daughter on the ground while playing.

The girl, a Class 8 student, is undergoing treatment at All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) in Delhi, reports Mohammad Dilshad.

The incident took place on May 5 in Humayunpur village. In his complaint, Ajay Singh, a farmer, stated: "Around 7 am, my daughter Sagun took her one-year-old cousin Radhika in her lap before leaving for school. The infant accidentally slipped and fell. Enraged, Kishubho, my brother's wife, hurriedly grabbed her and grabbed an iron hairband and struck my daughter's eye. When I objected, Kishubho threatened to kill me! I reported the incident to the police and charged the accused under lesser serious offences. "My daughter's right eye ball is completely destroyed. Strict charges should have been slapped on the accused," the 60 TOI on Tuesday.

20-year-old thrashed to death in Jalgaon for dating minor girl

Nashik: A man (20) was alleged to thrash to death by a group of nine people in Jamner taluka in Jalgaon district, late Monday.

The reason behind the attack was the man's relationship with a girl (17). We have arrested four persons and are tracing five others involved in the crime. Jalgaon SP Maheshwar Reddy said, reports Santosh Sonawane.

The man — who assisted his father with daily farming activities — had travelled to Jamner around 10km from his village, for work on Monday.

He was visiting a café there with the minor when the group accosted and assaulted him, said a police officer.

Apollo Healthtech Eyes Listing by Jan-March 2027 to Unlock Value

Our Bureau

Mumbai: Apollo Healthtech, the merged online pharmacy and digital health business of Apollo Hospitals—the country's largest pan-India hospital chain by revenue—is likely to be listed by the end of 2026, a top company official said.

On being asked if there is any hint of a family reorganisation, Krishna Akhleswaran, group chief financial officer, told ET. "No there isn't. It's just a value unlock for the shareholders. The promoters of Apollo will also be directors in the new company. So, there is no change from the standpoint. It is really about value unlock for the shareholders."

Apollo Hospitals announced its first quarter results last month, highlighting that it reported a 26% increase in EBITDA to ₹522 crore.

During the quarter, Apollo Hospitals announced the demerger of its online pharmacy and digital health business into a new entity Apollo Healthtech. Akhleswaran said, "The application to the stock exchanges has been already made and on their approval is required to trigger around April-May 2027. Some of the NCLT related approvals should come much before that."

Sebi Rejects Anil Ambani's Settlement Plea

Reuters

Mumbai: India's market regulator has rejected a plea by industrialist Anil Ambani to settle charges related to investments in lender Yes Bank, potentially exposing him to at least a ₹19.59 billion ($296 million) penalty, according to documents reviewed by Reuters.

The case relates to ₹21.5 billion ($345.3 million) invested by Ambani's Reliance Mutual Fund between 2005-2019 in Yes Bank's additional tier-1 bonds, which were written off when the bank was declared insolvent in 2020.

Reliance MF was sold to Nippon Life Insurance in 2019 and charges pre-date these sales.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) said the investment in exchange for loans from Yes Bank to other Anil Ambani group companies, according to regulatory notice.

Rejecting Ambani's plea to settle the charges without admitting guilt, Sebi said on July 14 that the funds could have caused a loss of ₹16.59 billion investor wealth and had a "market wide impact".

Anil Ambani—the younger brother of billionaire Mukesh Ambani—is facing renewed scrutiny of dealings between his firms and Yes Bank, which was declared insolvent in 2020 and received by a group of lenders in a plan approved by the central bank.

Last month, India's top crime fighting agency searched locations linked to the group as part of a scheme to siphon off ₹60 billion in loans from Yes Bank. Reuters reported. A proposal by Anil Ambani, his son Jai Anmol Ambani, and former Yes Bank chief executive Ratan Kojariwal to settle has not been accepted.

Sebi has informed Ambani and his son that it will pass instructions asking them to compensate the investors, documents showed.

PwC India Aims to Grow Revenue 3x

Our Bureau

Mumbai: PwC India is targeting a quantum expansion in operations, with plans to hire 20,000 new employees and boost annual revenue threefold in the next five years.

As part of its Vision 2030 strategy, the professional services firm said on Tuesday it would invest more than 5% of annual revenue in technology, innovation, and capability building.

PwC India is betting on digital transformation, sustainability, risk and regulatory, cloud, and cybersecurity, for growth.

"India's growth story continues to inspire confidence—and we remain deeply committed to being a part of it," said Sanjeev Kishan, chairperson, PwC in India. "Over the past few years, we've made focused investments in our people, capabilities, and partnerships to better serve the needs of our clients. Vision 2030 builds on this momentum while embracing emerging areas of opportunity as we double down on our efforts to support India's transformation and deliver sustained outcomes."

ET in January reported a PwC India recorded a revenue of about ₹6,200 crore in FY24. The firm currently has 30,000 employees.

As part of the talent acquisition plan, the firm will be expanding its hiring footprint beyond metropolitan hubs into Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities, in line with the government's push to boost local economies and spread job creation.

"As our clients transform, so must we—and that begins with our people," said Kishan.

"We've focused on building a future-ready workforce by expanding access to learning, prioritizing women in leadership, and creating inclusive growth journeys that allow our people to thrive—from the campus to the boardroom."

"PwC India will allocate 5% of revenue to upskilling employees and partners, while also scaling social and digital capabilities."

Thermax in Tie-up to Offer Green H2 Tech

New Delhi: Honsgreen Thermax has partnered with Norway-based HydrogenPro to supply industrial and commission alkaline electrolysis systems in India. In a statement, Thermax said the systems will also provide after-sales services of alkaline electrolyser systems based on HydrogenPro's technology.

An alkaline electrolysis system helps produce green hydrogen by splitting water into hydrogen and oxygen through the use of direct current power.

Thermax will engineer and manufacture key systems and balance-of-plant components of the electrolyser for integration with stacks through a comprehensive technology transfer—PTI.
