

PLASTIBLENDS INDIA LIMITED WINS 'PLASTICON GOLD AWARD' AT PLASTINDIA 2012

A leader in the plastic processing industry, Plastiblends India Limited has been bestowed with the Plasticon "GOLD TROPHY AWARD" for Fasted Growing Enterprise-Processing (Commodity Polymers). The company which is a part of the prominent Kolsite Group received recognition for showing excellent growth for the last three years consistently in all product lines of Master Batches. The award was presented at the 6th Plasticon Awards 2012 ceremony held amongst much glitterati at Le Meridian, New Delhi on 1st February 2012. Plasticon awards are the most esteemed awards in the plastic industry constituted by Plastindia Foundation.

Plastiblends India Limited effectively participated in Plastindia 2012 - 8th International Exhibition at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi from 1st Feb to 6th Feb 2012. Plastindia is one of the leading and prestigious events showcasing the best in the plastic industry. The company received excellent visitor and customer response from domestic as well as overseas markets. More than 1000 customers registered with us for various business interests. Most of Dealers/channel partners from all over India and abroad visited the stall and took this opportunity to interact with management and technical teams.

Plastiblends India Limited also exhibited new generation master batches as - Bactiblock, Nucleating and Clarifying Master Batches, Anti Rodent Master Batches and other performance master batches such as UV, Antioxidant etc. The stall was well visited throughout and appreciated for the look.

Plastindia 2012 and Proplast 2012 saw the participation of more than 933 domestic exhibitors, 499 overseas exhibitors and 199 suppliers to plastics industry. This is one of the globally highly successful events.

Merging Ideas