NIIT Technologies secures Best Service Provider Award from ICT Subsidiary of German Railways

Recognized as best-in-class across entire IT partner landscape

Frankfurt, GERMANY | New Delhi, INDIA, March 9, 2016: NIIT Technologies Ltd., a leading global IT solutions organization has secured "Best Service Provider" award by DB Systel, the ICT subsidiary of Deutsche Bahn (German Railways). NIIT Technologies has won this award across the entire partner landscape of DB Systel including global system integrators, local and offshore IT partners.

Christa Koenen, CEO, DB Systel said, "This award acknowledges our partner who has delivered the highest quality of work and exceptional customer value. NIIT Technologies has consistently demonstrated these capabilities and is our trusted partner".

NIIT Technologies has a long standing partnership with DB Systel. In previous years the company had been conferred with "Best Global Delivery Provider" award for three consecutive years in a row. This year it has been recognised as the "Best Service Provider" across the entire IT partner landscape for DB Systel.

Commenting on this achievement, Arvind Thakur, CEO & Joint MD, NIIT Technologies Ltd. said, "The award is an acknowledgement of our service leadership in the Travel & Transport segment and reinforces our expertise in the fast emerging Digital space. It is a result of our relentless focus on uplifting service to deliver exceptional value".

The award is conferred on the basis of an annual customer satisfaction survey, regular assessments and strict quality parameters. NIIT Technologies supports and develops DB Systel's complex and mission critical applications ensuring seamless operation of German Railways. It has also been a key partner of DB Systel as it develops differentiated Digital solutions that help train drivers to access real-time, relevant information anytime, anywhere and on the go.
