DCB BANK

NEWS RELEASE

Nucleus Software helps DCB Bank digitize its Loan Process; enables DCB Bank win The ICONIC IDC Insights Award 2015

New Delhi, India 14 March, 2016 — Nucleus Software, the leading provider of lending and transaction banking solutions to the global financial services industry, today announced that its flagship lending product, FinnOne Neo has digitized the loan application process for DCB Bank's auto and commercial vehicle business lines. DCB Bank has won The ICONIC IDC Insights Award 2015 for Excellence in Transformation powered by Nucleus Software's FinnOne Neo.

As a part of its business strategy to enhance its retail lending business and improve customer experience, DCB Bank implemented Nucleus Software's FinnOne Neo to digitize their loan application process. FinnOne Neo, a comprehensive end-to-end loan lifecycle management product ensures credit decisions are taken in real-time helping DCB Bank meet the challenges of operating in a digital world. As a step towards boosting the Bank's nationwide digitization and automation efforts, the centralized loan system can now be easily accessed from the branches even in remote locations which have limited network bandwidth connectivity. The recognition from IDC Insights for Excellence in Transformation for their ICONIC awards is testimony of how FinnOne Neo helped the Bank transform by increasing innovation and delivering a superior customer experience.

Mr. R. Venkatesh (Head HR, Operations & IT - DCB Bank) stated, "Nucleus Software's functionally rich solutions, proven track record and deep domain expertise made them the ideal partner to transform the assets business software. DCB Bank has been the first amongst peers to adopt the features and functionalities of FinnOne Neo. It supports DCB Bank's 'way-forward' approach of digitisation, enhancing customer experience and investing in leading 'Fin-Tech' products and services. More so it creates value and transforms internal processes. We are delighted by the award and it strengthens our resolve to deliver outstanding customer experience with the help of advanced technology. DCB Bank will utilise FinnOne Neo to bring new products to market quickly, grow assets business and also improve operational excellence."

Mr. Vishnu R. Dusad (CEO, Nucleus Software) said, "We are honoured to work with DCB Bank and to support their visionary approach to digitization. At Nucleus, our continued focus is on providing outstanding solutions to our customers and innovation in product development. We are proud that our domain expertise and experience is helping our customers and we are delighted that DCB Bank has been recognized by IDC for their tremendous efforts. It demonstrates the vital role that technology plays in delivering outstanding customer experience. We look forward to continue to help DCB Bank as they expand their business and explore new ways to stay ahead of competition."
