Chennai, January 31, 2014: TAKE Solutions Ltd. [BSE: 532890 | NSE: TAKE], a global business technology solutions provider with significant focus across two principal business areas, namely Life Sciences (LS) and Supply Chain Management (SCM) domains, today, announced the financial results for the quarter ended December 31st, 2013. The company has posted net profit of INR 167 Mn for this quarter, which is a 10.6% increase against the previous quarter. The board also announced an interim dividend of 30%.

Srinivasan H.R., Vice-Chairman and Managing Director, TAKE Solutions said, “Our performance this quarter was better than our expectations. The strategy to emphasise on the Life Sciences business envisaged by the management at the start of the financial year has started showing results. We have had significant wins in Life Sciences during the quarter, establishing the strong association with our clients.” He further added, “We expanded our offerings in this space to have 360 degree exposure of the Pharma / Biotech R&D market - clinical, regulatory and safety. Furthermore, our investments in enhancing our go-to-market strategies have also enabled us to acquire new clients and expand our offerings to the existing clients.”
