Sir,

Further to the announcement made at Company's Annual General Meeting held on 27/09/2017, regarding the expansion plans of the Company in line with the aggressive promotion and focus of the Central and State Government on the TEXTILE SECTOR.

We intended to setup TEXTILE PARK, avail FDI under the automatic route, setup a fully integrated textile mill as a Greenfield project with the latest state of the art machines for manufacturing high-value yarn, fabrics including denim fabrics with expansion and modernisation of existing units.

We hereby update with the progress of working as follows:

- The expansion related to Textile Sector has been initiated.
- Civil work has started and expected to be completed before April 2018, as scheduled.
- To make the project successful in short time promoter have infused their own funds so that construction work can be started.
- The FDI fund from Singapore will start flowing in a week's time.

We are committed to deliver at our best to make company grow at its highest level.
Thanking You,

Yours faithfully
