Infineon honors TCS with 'Best Supplier' Award

Reconigned for outstanding service delivery in supply chain and custom software development

GERMANY/MUMBAI, February 6, 2017: Tata Consultancy Services (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS), a leading global IT services, consulting and business solutions organization, has been awarded the "Best Supplier – IT Services" for the Year 2015 – 2016 by Infineon Technologies AG, a world leader in semiconductor solutions. The accolade was made in recognition of outstanding service delivery in supply chain and custom software development.

As a major DAX-listed technology business, Infineon was looking for a partner to support its continued growth and digital transformation. With a range of dynamic needs, the company was particularly impressed by TCS' flexible and agile delivery model which has enabled the company to make major strides in improving operational performance while maintaining high standards of quality and customer satisfaction.

"We are pleased to award TCS for its outstanding performance in the last business year," said Robert Leindl, CIO at Infineon. "TCS' service delivery and customer orientation has been highly valued by Infineon across a number of service and software projects and we look forward to intensifying our relationship further", added Volker Buttermann, Head of Purchasing Central Services.

Mr. V. Rajanna, Vice President and Global Head of the Technology Business Unit at TCS, commented: "We highly value our partnership with Infineon. In a fast-paced digital economy, there are a wide range of opportunities for companies like Infineon operating in the technology and engineering sector. This award is a demonstration of our customer centricity and strong alignment with Infineon's business needs. We've been delighted to support the company as it continues to grow by enhancing its business critical operations through digital innovation."

The award reflects the ongoing partnership between TCS and Infineon, which have been working together since 2008. TCS has been operating in Germany and Austria since 1991, servicing more than 80 customers, including 14 DAX-30 companies.
