Maha farmer destroys cauliflower crop; vid

JALNA: The video of a farmer destroying cauliflower crop on his land after he got a paltry amount for the produce has gone viral on social media. "I destroyed the crop in a fit of rage after getting peanuts for my produce. My friend filmed the act with his mobile," Premsing Chavan, a resident of Pohegaon village in Jalna district, said. Chavan said he got just Rs 442 in his hand, after d charges, after he sold his cauli that had there been a pesticide day, I would have consumed it Marathi news channel. "I spen 4,000 for the two crops I grew,

Dengue, Malaria cause 25% deaths in the State

SWAPNIL MISHRA
Mumbai

As per the statistics by the ministry of health and family, welfare showed that Maharashtra ranks first in terms of dengue deaths in the country and fifth in terms of malaria deaths in past three years

According to the data revealed by the Union Health Ministry, 25 per cent of death cause in Maharashtra is due to vector-borne diseases (Dengue and Malaria). As per the data, in last three years 718 death dengue cases were reported in Maharashtra out of which 97 were reported in Mumbai. Sadly, the fund allocated for controlling the vector-borne diseases in state is only three per cent compare to other states.

As per the statistics by the ministry of health and family, welfare showed that Maharashtra ranks first in terms of dengue deaths in the country and fifth in terms of malaria deaths in past three years. The state recorded 104 malaria deaths and 97 dengue deaths during 2015-2017 (until February). A senior health official said they get many critical cases from the neighbouring states which are been treated at tertiary level. "The rapid development and urbanisation in the state is one of the reasons for an increase in cases. Moreover, the cases come to the tertiary care facilities in the most critical stages with minimal chances of survival," said a public health official.

However, the government officials claim that many of the serious patients are being referred to city hospitals from neighbouring states at the last stage that further adds up to the figure of deaths and cases in the state.

"We provide one of the best medical facilities so it is natural that we get several serious patients from neighbour so the data presented don't represent the real picture," said a senior health official.

Well, if the data presented by the union health ministry aren't shocking enough, then check this. Despite topping the lists, the fund allocated under National Vector Borne Disease Control Program (NVBDCP) has seen a drop in 2017 than the previous year. While in 2015-16, the state received Rs 6.02 crores the amount was increased to Rs 13.20 crores in 2016-17 but was further reduced in 2017-18 to 7.05 crores.

Dr Sanjeev Kumar, mission director, National Health Mission (NHM) and Director (additional charge), Directorate of Health Services (DHS), Maharashtra said funds that were allocated to each state are been given according to the budget planning. "If funds have been reduced there is a possibility it might have been used in some other programmes," said Dr Kumar.

MBMC apathy spells death for trees, MNS on agitation mode

SURESH GOLANI
Bhayandar

The matter has been exposed by the students wing of the Maharashtra Navnirman Sena which has carried out a survey in the region to expose the grim situation

Responded positively to the clarion call given by the CM, the Mira Bhayandar Municipal Corporation (MBMC) had embarked on a much-hyped "Go Green" mission aimed at planting 25,000 saplings starting July 1, 2016.

Barely two years later, several of them have either failed to survive or on the verge of dying, thus reducing the massive tree plantation drive into a mere photo-op moment, but also defeating the real purpose of increasing the green cover which had been undertaken by pumping funds amounting crores of rupees from the civic exchequer.

and debris on the green cover by local construction companies and in some cases by none other than MBMC's own contractors who indulge in blatant contravention of norms.

The matter has been exposed by the students wing of the Maharashtra Navnirman Sena which has carried out a survey in the region to expose the grim situation.

tect, why did they plant them? The roadside trees are seriously threatened," said MNS leader Shaan Pawar who armed with photographic evidences has sought the civic chief's intervention to lodge FIR's under the relevant sections of the Maharashtra (Urban Areas) Preservation of Trees Act, 1975 against responsible officials and other private entities.
