All words or expressions contained under the heading "Amendments pursuant to Debenture Trust Deed" shall have the meaning given to such words and expression in the Debenture Trust Deed.
  - (3) The Regulations contained in Table A in the First Schedule to the Companies Act, 1956 shall be the regulations of the Company in the same manner and to the same extent as if they were contained in the duly registered Articles as long as any of the Articles do not exclude or modify the Regulations contained in Table A aforesaid save and those which are expressly provided in the Articles of Association.
- 2(a) The Authorised Share Capital of the Company shall be as per Clause V of the Memorandum of Association of the Company.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of Section 80, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Company before the issue of the shares may, by special resolution, determine.
3. (1) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of Section 106 and 107, and whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate Meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

- (2) To every such separate Meeting, the provisions of these regulations relating to General Meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class in question.
4. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.
5. (1) The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by Section 76, provided that the rate percent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by that Section.
  - (2) The rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of five percent of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to five percent of such price, as the case may be.
  - (3) The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in the one way and partly in the other.
  - (4) The Company may also, on any issue of shares, pay such brokerage as may be lawful.
6. Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears on the Register of Members as the holder of any share(s) and whose name appears as the beneficial owner of the shares in the records of Depository, as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not (except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as by law required) be bound to recognise any benami trust or equity or equitable, contingent, future or partial interest, lien, pledge (except only as by these presents otherwise provided for) or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any other person whether or not it shall have express or implied notice thereof.
- 6A The Company shall not give whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of, or in connection with a purchase or subscription made or to be made by any person of, or for any shares in the company or in its holding company;
Provided that nothing in this Article shall be taken to prohibit –
  - (i) the provision by the company, in accordance with any scheme for the time being in force, of money for the purchase of, or subscription for, fully paid shares in the company or its holding company, being a purchase or subscription by trustee of, or for shares to be held by, or for the benefit of employees of the company, including any director holding a salaried office or employment in the company; or
  - (ii) the making by the company of loans, within the limit laid down under the Act, or any other regulations that may be in force, at the time of making such loan, to person

(other than directors or managers) bonafide in the employment of the company with a view to enabling those persons to purchase or subscribe for fully paid shares in the company or its holding company to be held by themselves by way of beneficial ownership.

7. (1) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the Register of Members shall be entitled to receive within three months after allotment of, within two months after the application for the, registration of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide)-
    - (a) one certificate for all his shares without payment; or
    - (b) several certificates, each for one or more of his shares upon payment of one rupee for every certificate after the first: Provided the shares are not held in a Depository under the provisions of Depositories Act, 1996.
  - (2) Every certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon.
  - (3) In respect of any shares or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
  - (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Articles of Association, the Company shall be entitled to dematerialize its shares, debentures and other securities pursuant to the Depositories Act, 1996 and to offer its shares, debentures and other securities for subscription in a dematerialized form. The Company shall further be entitled to maintain a Register of Members with the details of Members holding shares both in material and dematerialized form in any media as permitted by law including any form of electronic media. Further when the shares are dealt with in a Depository, no certificate shall be issued and the Company shall intimate the details of allotment of shares to the Depository immediately on allotment of such shares in accordance with such rules as are in force.
8. If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of such fee, if any, not exceeding two rupees, and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Company in investigating evidence, as the directors think fit.
9. (1) The Company shall have a first and paramount lien—
    - (a) on every share (not being a fully-paid shares), for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and
    - (b) on all shares (not being fully-paid-shares) standing registered in the name of a single person, for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the Company: Provided that the Board of Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause.
  - (2) The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

10. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien: Provided that no sale shall be made—
  - (a) unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; or
  - (b) until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.
11. (1) To give effect to any such sale, the board may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
  - (2) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.
  - (3) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
12. (1) The proceeds of the same shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is 'presently payable'.
  - (2) The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the issue.
13. (1) The Board may, from time to time, make calls, upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times: Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.
  - (2) Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the Company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.
  - (3) A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.
14. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments.
15. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
16. (1) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at five percent per annum or at such lower rate, if any, as the Board may determine.

- (2) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.
17. (1) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by the way of premium, shall, for the purpose of these regulations, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.
- (2) In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
18. The Board—
- (a) may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and
- (b) upon all or any of the moneys so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the Company in General Meeting shall otherwise direct, six percent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance.
19. (1) The instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee.
- (2) The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.
20. Subject to the provisions of Section 108, the shares in the Company shall be transferred in the form as provided in Table A of Schedule I of the Companies Act 1956.
- (A) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Articles of Association, in the case of transfer of shares / debentures or other marketable securities, where the Company has not issued any certificates and where such shares or securities are being held in a Depository, the investor shall have the option to request the Company to issue Share Certificate in Physical Form at anytime, subject to the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996.
- (B) Except as specifically provided in these Articles, the provisions relating to joint holders of shares, calls, lien on shares, forfeiture of shares, transfer and transmission of shares shall be applicable to shares held in a Depository so far as they apply to shares held in physical form subject to the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 or such other regulations for the time being in force.
21. The Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by Section 111, decline to register –
- (a) the transfer of a share, not being a fully-paid share, to a person of whom they do not approve, or
- (b) any transfer of shares on which the Company has a lien.
22. The Board may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless –

- (a) a fee of two rupees is paid to the Company in respect thereof;
  - (b) the instrument of transfer if accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
  - (c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.
23. Subject to the provisions of Section 154, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine: Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.
24. The Company shall be entitled to charge a fee not exceeding two rupees on the registration of every probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power-of-attorney, or other instrument.
25. (1) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares.
- (2) Nothing in Clause(1) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
26. (1) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either-
- (a) to be registered himself as holder of the share; or
  - (b) to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.
- (2) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.
27. (1) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
- (2) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
- (3) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

28. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to Meetings of the Company. Provided that the Board, may at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
29. If a member fails to pay any call, or installment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
30. The notice aforesaid shall –
  - (a) name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and
  - (b) state that, in the event of non-payment on or before day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
31. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
32. (1) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.
  - (2) At any time before sale or disposal of aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.
33. (1) A person whose share have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares.
  - (2) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.
34. (1) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director, the Manager or the Secretary, of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
  - (2) The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed.

- (3) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share.
- (4) The transferee shall not bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
35. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- 35(A) (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, a shareholder or debentureholder of the company may at any time nominate in the form and manner prescribed by the company in accordance with the rules if any framed by the Central Government under Section 109A of the Act, a person to whom his shares in, or debentures of, the company shall vest in the event of his death.
- (ii) Where the shares in, or debentures of, the company are held by more than one person jointly, the joint holders may together nominate, in the prescribed manner, a person to whom all the rights in the shares or debentures of the company shall vest in the event of death of all the joint holders.
- (iii) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whether testamentary or otherwise, in respect of such shares in or debentures of the company, where a nomination made in the prescribed manner purports to confer on any person the right to vest the shares in or debentures of the company, the nominee shall on the death of the shareholder or the debenture holder of the company, or as the case may be, on the death of the joint holders become entitled to all the rights in the shares or debentures of the company to the exclusion of all other persons, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the prescribed manner.
- (iv) Where the nominee is a minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the shares, or holder of debentures to make the nomination to appoint in the prescribed manner any person to become entitled to shares in or debentures of the company, in the event of his death, during the minority.
36. The Company may, by ordinary resolution –
- (a) convert any paid-up shares into stock; and
- (b) reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination
37. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit: provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so however that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

38. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at Meetings of the Company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding-up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
39. Such of the regulations of the Company (other than those relating to share warrants) as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.
40. The Company may issue share warrants subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of Section 114 and 115; and accordingly and Board may in its discretion with respect to any share which is fully paid-up, on application in writing signed by the person registered as holder of the share, and authenticated by such evidence (if any) as the Board may, from time to time, require as to the identity of the person signing the application, and on receiving the certificate (if any) of the share, and the amount of the stamp duty on the warrant and such fee as the Board may from time to time require, issue a share warrant.
41. (1) The bearer of a share warrant may at any time deposit the warrant at the office of the Company, and so long as the warrant remains so deposited, the depositor shall have the same right of signing a requisition for calling a Meeting of the Company and of attending, and voting and exercising the other privileges of a member at any meeting held after the expiry of two clear days from the time of deposit, as if his name were inserted in the Register of Members as the holder of the shares included in the deposited warrant.
  - (2) Not more than one person shall be recognized as depositor of the share warrant.
  - (3) The Company shall, on two days written notice, return the deposited share warrant to the depositor.
42. (1) Subject as herein otherwise expressly provided, no person shall, as bearer of a share warrant, sign a requisition for calling a meeting of the Company, or attend or vote or exercise any other privilege of a member at a Meeting of the Company or be entitled to receive any notices from the Company.
  - (2) The bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled in all other respects to the same privilege and advantages as if he were named in the Register of Members as the holder of the shares included in the warrant, and he shall be a member of the Company.
43. The Board may, from time to time, make rules as to the terms on which (it shall think fit) a new share warrant or coupon may be issued by way of renewal in case of defacement, loss or destruction.
44. The Company may from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the Share Capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as may be specified in the resolution, subject to the provisions of these Articles and of the Act, the shares including any shares forming part of any increased capital of the Company shall be under the control of Directors who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons in such proportion, on such terms and conditions, and at such times as the Directors think fit and subject to the sanction of the Company in General Meeting with full power, the Board of Directors may give to any person the option to call for or be allotted shares of any class of the Company either at a premium or at par or at discount and such option being exercisable at such time and for such consideration as the Directors think fit. The Board shall cause to be filed the returns as to allotment provided for in the Act.

- 44(A) In addition to and without derogating from the powers for that purpose conferred on the Board in accordance with these Articles, the Company in General Meeting may, by a special resolution subject to the provisions of the Act, determine that any shares (whether forming part of the original capital or of any increased capital of the Company) shall be offered to such persons (whether members or not) in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either (subject to compliance with the provisions of the Act) at a premium or at par or at a discount, as such General Meeting shall determine and with full power to give to any person the option to call for or to allot shares of any class, of the Company either (subject to compliance with the provisions of the Act) at a premium or at par or at a discount, such option being exercisable at such time and for such consideration as may be directed by such General Meeting or the Company in General Meeting may make any other provision whatsoever for the issue, allotment or disposal of any shares.
- 44(B) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 79 of the Act, the Company may issue sweat equity shares of a class of shares already issued subject to the conditions that –
- (a) the issue of sweat equity shares is authorised by a special resolution passed by the Company in the General Meeting;
  - (b) the resolution shall specify the number of shares, current market price, consideration, if any and the class or classes of Directors or employees to whom such equity shares are to be issued;
  - (c) the sweat equity shares of the company shall be issued in accordance with regulations made by the Securities & Exchange Board of India (SEBI) and the Stock Exchanges in this behalf.
  - (d) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions relating to equity shares shall be applicable to sweat equity shares issued by the company.

For the purpose of this clause, “Sweat Equity Shares” means equity shares issued by the Company to employees or directors at a discount or for consideration other than cash for providing know-how or making available rights in the nature of intellectual property rights or value additions by whatever name called.

45. The Company may, by ordinary resolution:-

- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.
- (b) sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum, subject nevertheless, to the provisions of Clause (d) of Sub-section (1) of Section 94:
- (c) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken of agreed to be taken by any person.

46. (1) The Company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner, subject to any authorizations and approvals required by law -
  - (a) its Share Capital
  - (b) any Capital Redemption Reserve Account; or
  - (c) any Securities Premium Account
- (2) Notwithstanding Clause (1) above, any amounts standing to the credit of the Securities Premium Account may also be utilized, other than for capitalization, for any of the purposes in accordance with the provisions of law.
47. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
48. (1) The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting.
- (2) If at any time there are not within Indian Directors capable of acting who are sufficient in number to form a quorum, any Director or any two members of the Company may call an Extraordinary General Meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which such a Meeting may be called by the Board.
49. (1) No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the Meeting proceeds to business.
- (2) The quorum shall be such No of members as may be prescribed in the Companies Act, 2013 for time to time.
50. The Chairman, if any, of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company.
51. If there is no such Chairman, or if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the Meeting, or is unwilling to act as Chairman of the Meeting, the Directors present shall elect one of their members to be Chairman of the Meeting.
52. If at any Meeting no Director is willing to act as Chairman of it or no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the Meeting, the members present shall choose one of their members to be Chairman of the Meeting.
