Quicktouch Technologies Limited Completes Acquisition of Techquench Private Limited, Expanding Its Reach in IT Services and Education Technology

Delhi, India – January 1, 2025 – Quicktouch Technologies Limited, a pioneering leader in the EdTech sector, is excited to announce the completion of its acquisition of Techquench Private Limited, a renowned company operating at the intersection of Information Technology (IT) Services and Education Technology (EdTech). This acquisition expands Quicktouch's footprint and strengthens its position in the rapidly growing technology-driven solutions market, particularly within educational institutions and businesses.

About Techquench Private Limited

Techquench specializes in providing cutting-edge, technology-driven solutions, including Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) systems, Learning Management Systems (LMS), STEM labs, psychometric analysis, and IT support services. These offerings cater to both educational institutions and businesses across diverse sectors. The company is currently focused on the setup of STEM labs in schools, furthering its mission to equip the next generation with essential skills and knowledge in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics.

Techquench has established a solid reputation in the industry for providing innovative, high-quality solutions that help educational institutions and businesses optimize their operations, enhance learning experiences, and improve overall performance. Their expertise in integrating IT solutions with educational practices makes them a key player in the EdTech space.

Strategic Vision and Future Growth

The acquisition of Techquench marks a significant step forward for Quicktouch Technologies as it looks to expand its service offerings and broaden its market reach. By integrating Techquench's advanced IT and EdTech solutions, Quicktouch plans to enhance its current product suite and offer even more comprehensive solutions to schools, colleges, and businesses.

One of the key initiatives following the acquisition will be the expansion of STEM labs in educational institutions across the country. The demand for STEM education is growing rapidly, and Quicktouch, through its acquisition of Techquench, aims to become a leading provider of high-quality STEM education infrastructure, empowering students with the skills required for success in the 21st century.

“We are thrilled to welcome Techquench into the Quicktouch family,” said Mr. Gaurav Jindal, Managing Director of Quicktouch Technologies Limited. “Techquench brings a wealth of expertise in both IT services and education technology, and we are excited about the synergy between our organizations. This acquisition will allow us to accelerate our plans to innovate and expand our offerings, particularly in the areas of STEM education and IT solutions. Together, we will provide cutting-edge tools and platforms to empower educational institutions and businesses alike.”

A New Era of Innovation in EdTech and IT Services

The acquisition of Techquench strengthens Quicktouch's position as a leader in both the EdTech and IT services sectors. By combining Quicktouch's existing knowledge and reach in the EdTech industry with Techquench's proven expertise in technology-driven solutions, the company is poised to deliver even greater value to its customers and stakeholders.

As part of its future growth strategy, Quicktouch plans to integrate Techquench's ERP systems and Learning Management Systems into its portfolio, offering enhanced educational tools that promote effective learning, monitoring, and management in educational institutions. Additionally, Techquench's psychometric analysis tools and IT support services will allow Quicktouch to diversify its service offerings, providing a well-rounded, comprehensive solution to meet the evolving needs of the education sector.
