QUICKTOUCH TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED PROMOTER STAKE INCREASES TO 52.21%, REFLECTING STRONG CONFIDENCE IN COMPANY'S GROWTH

Delhi, March 25, 2025 – Quicktouch Technologies Limited is pleased to announce an increase in the Promoter and Promoter Group's shareholding from 47.80% to 52.21% following the successful conversion of 10,00,000 fully convertible warrants into equity shares.

This strategic move, led by Mr. Gaurav Jindal, Promoter and Managing Director, demonstrates the promoters' unwavering confidence in the company's long-term potential and business growth. The conversion was executed in compliance with SEBI Regulations and was duly approved by the Board of Directors.

The increase in promoter stake is a strong indicator of the promoters' commitment to Quicktouch Technologies Limited's expansion and value creation. It reinforces the company's strategic vision as it continues to strengthen its presence in the Edutech and Fintech sectors, backed by cutting-edge technology and innovation-driven solutions.

Commenting on the development, Mr. Gaurav Jindal stated: "The increase in promoter stake is a testament to our deep confidence in the company's future. We believe in the strong fundamentals of Quicktouch Technologies Limited and remain committed to its long-term growth. This step not only enhances financial stability but also sends a positive signal to our investors and stakeholders."

The enhanced promoter shareholding underscores the company's robust growth strategy and ensures greater alignment between the management and shareholders. This move is expected to further bolster investor confidence and strengthen the company's capital structure as it continues to expand its footprint.
