FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Quick Heal Technologies Limited appoints Navin Sharma as Chief Financial Officer

Pune, October 26, 2021: Quick Heal Technologies Limited, one of the leading providers of cybersecurity and data protection solutions, today announced the appointment of Mr. Navin Sharma as the Chief Financial Officer. With 17 years of experience in the software and manufacturing industry, Navin will drive the company's financial performance and bring greater rigor to the company's ongoing investments in next-generation technologies and M&A initiatives.

Navin has a proven track record in driving financial growth for technology companies on a global level. He joins Quick Heal from Sterlite Technologies where he was the Chief Financial Officer for the technology business. Prior to joining Sterlite Technologies, he has worked with RPG Group and Century Textiles and Industries Limited. He brings vast experience in the areas of M&A, customer acquisition, financial planning and analysis and managing overseas operations.

Dr. Kailash Katkar, MD & CEO, Quick Heal Technologies Limited, said "As Quick Heal Technologies continues to transform and accelerate our enterprise business under 'Seqrite', Navin will be instrumental in delivering on our financial goals. His deep knowledge in all the areas of finance and business strategy will be a valuable asset for the company. I'm thrilled to welcome him and confident that he will bring extraordinary value to the company and our shareholders."

Commenting on his appointment, Navin Sharma, said "I am excited to step into the CFO role at Quick Heal and execute the company's strategic business goals, accelerate its growth while creating value for the shareholders. Over the years, Quick Heal has established itself as the leading player in the cybersecurity space. I look forward to partnering with the entire team to build on the company's strong business fundamentals and deliver on the organic and inorganic growth plans."
