IOB adds festive cheer among employees for Deepavali

Chennai, Oct 29: Indian Overseas Bank, one of the leading public sector banks in India, has decided to usher in the festive season by distributing gifts and sweets worth INR 2500 to its 21,265 employees across India and abroad.

This gesture is a token of appreciation and recognition for all its employees' contribution, dedication and commitment to the bank's successful operations. This initiative aligns with the bank's tradition of valuing each of its employees' contribution and celebrating key milestones and festive seasons together.

Expressing his sentiments on the initiative, Mr. Ajay Kumar Srivastava, Managing Director & CEO, Indian Overseas Bank, said, "Our employees are the backbone of the bank, and it is due to their hard work and dedication that the bank has been seeing year-on-year successful business operations. We believe that it is important to express our gratitude and recognise their efforts. This gesture is a small way of thanking all our employees for their invaluable contributions." This initiative has been welcomed with great enthusiasm by the bank's employees, reinforcing the union and solidarity that defines the bank's organisational cultural ethos. Last year as well the bank distributed sweets worth INR 2000 each to all its staff members.

Chennai Port, Kamarajar Port observe National Unity Day

Chennai, Oct 29: Chennai Port observed Rashtriya Ekta Diwas (National Unity Day) with a pledge taking ceremony followed by a "Run for Unity - Ekta Run" by Officers and Employees of Chennai Port and Kamarajar Port.

The Ekta Run was flagged off by the chief guest, Padma Shri and Khel Ratna Awardee Sharath Kamal, who in his address highlighted how sports fosters unity and fellowship among people. He inspired participants to embrace the spirit of unity that this Ekta Run symbolizes and to incorporate it into their daily lives.

Sunil Paliwal, I.A.S., Chairperson, Chennai Port Authority & Chairman, Kamarajar Port Limited in his address pointed out the need to focus on unity and integrity, which are vital for the nation's progress. He emphasized on the shared responsibility to create a sense of belonging and to celebrate the unity in diversity that strengthens the country.

S Viswanathan, IAS, Dy. Chairperson, Chennai Port Authority and Mrs. J.P. Irene Cynthia, IAS, Managing Director, Kamarajar Port Limited also participated and inspired the gathering. The celebration of Rashtriya Ekta Diwas at Chennai Port served as a powerful reminder of our dedication to fostering unity and strengthening the bond that hold our diverse

Chennai residents create large India map with Diyas

Chennai, Oct 29: Bringing in the festive spirit and cheer to the city, the residents of Chennai came together to create a large India map illuminated with thousands of Diyas ahead of Diwali. Organized by CavinKare's iconic brand, Meera, this unique initiative, titled "One Diya, One Tradition," aimed to celebrate the timeless tradition of lighting diyas, a practice that continues to unite the country during Diwali, despite evolving trends and festivities. The event witnessed an overwhelming participation from residents lighting 1000+ Diyas at the Anna Nagar Tower Park, bringing to life a radiant, magnum opus map of India.

Under the theme "One Diya, One Tradition," Meera through this initiative highlighted Diya as a cultural heritage shared across India, transcending regional differences and connecting households through its symbolic glow. Despite the shifts in food, attire, and modern festivities, the lighting of Diyas remains central to every Diwali, bringing a glow of togetherness to households across India. The event was a visual spectacle as hundreds of participants placed Diyas carefully along an outline of India, creating a stunning illuminated map that symbolized the country's unity and rich cultural diversity.

Rajat Nanda, Business Head - Personal Care, CavinKare said "As a brand, Meera has always believed in the Goodness of Tradition. We see traditions as meaningful pillars in our lives, to be cherished and passed down from generation to generation."

Fiama unveils mental wellbeing survey

Chennai, Oct 29: With mental health conversations gaining traction, ITC's 'Feel Good With Fiama Mental Wellbeing Survey 2024' marks its 4th year by exploring the perceptions and realities of mental health in India. Commissioned with NielsenIQ, the survey unveils the awareness, attitude and behavioural landscape for mental well-being in India. It reflects progressiveness in acknowledging the need for mental wellbeing while also indicating the persistent barriers in accessing professional support. While 83% of the survey participants believe mental health issues are nothing to be ashamed of, 81% feel ashamed of telling others that they are taking therapy. While we are becoming more accepting of mental health issues in general, the act of seeking help still carries a heavy weight of perceived societal judgment. This inherent fear of judgement prevents individuals from having open conversations about their mental well-being hindering access to support.
