India a step closer to signing free trade agreement with the UK

GAINING MOMENTUM. Implementation of the pact now awaits ratification by the British Parliament

Amiti Sen
New Delhi

REMOVING BARRIERS. The deal will boost trade with tariff elimination and market openings for both countries

The India-UK free trade agreement (FTA), the negotiations for which were officially concluded in May this year, is likely to be signed soon after the ongoing legal scrubbing of the text is over, sources said.

"The legal scrubbing and verification of the India-UK FTA text is being carried out by the two sides. As soon as it is done, the FTA will be formally signed.

"The implementation will, however, take at least another year as the clearance process in the UK Parliament takes time," sources tracking the matter told businessline. In case Prime Minister Narendra Modi travels to London within the next few weeks, which is being discussed but has not been finalised yet, the pact may be signed there in the presence of Modi and UK Prime Minister Keir Starmer. They were the ones who announced the conclusion of the FTA talks in May.

TARIFF ELIMINATION
The FTA is likely to lead to tariff elimination for India on about 99 per cent of tariff lines, including labour-intensive goods, according to the Indian government.

POSITIVE IMPACT

"The free trade agreement provides positive impact on manufacturing across labour and technology intensive sectors and opens up export opportunities for sectors such as textiles, marine products, leather, footwear, sports goods and toys, gems and jewellery and other important sectors, such as engineering goods, auto parts and engines and organic chemicals," the Commerce Department said in May.

The three-year exemption from social security payments for Indian employees working in the UK is also seen as a big win for India.

"The FTA takes place in the backdrop of growing economic relations between India and the UK as exemplified in the bilateral trade of about $60 billion, which is projected to double by 2030," the statement added.

India has also provided market openings for the alcohol and automobile sectors of the UK under the deal.

The UK government said that securing the trade deal with India could boost bilateral trade by £25.5 billion ($34 billion), with £15.7 billion ($21 billion) expected from increased UK exports to India.

Govt tightens control over offshore atomic minerals

Abhishek Law
New Delhi

India has announced sweeping regulations governing exploration and production of atomic minerals in offshore areas.

The rules entail government oversight over strategic resources such as uranium and thorium, amid rising concerns over nuclear energy security and geopolitical risks.

Foreign firms are barred from exploration activities unless specific relaxations are made while state-owned entities or government nominated ones will be allowed.

The Ministry of Mines, in coordination with the Department of Atomic Energy (DAE), notified the "Offshore Area Atomic Minerals Concession Rules, 2025" this week.

The new rules, which take effect immediately, will regulate the award of exploration licences and production leases for atomic minerals in the country's territorial waters and exclusive economic zones (EEZs).

STRICT CONDITIONS
The new framework establishes strict conditions for reconnaissance, exploration, and production of atomic minerals — defined as those containing uranium, thorium and other radio-elements critical to India's nuclear programme. The DAE and the Atomic Energy Regulatory Board will serve as the nodal oversight agencies, ensuring compliance with radiological safety and strategic protocols.

"Only central government agencies, state-owned enterprises or government-nominated companies can be awarded composite licences or mining leases in such zones," the rules state.

These new rules replace earlier frameworks and create a detailed legal regime for the grant of exploration and production rights of atomic minerals found in offshore areas. Foreign firms are effectively barred from direct participation unless subcontracted under highly-restrictive guidelines, and only with prior security clearance from Ministries, including Defence, Home and Environment.

RESTRICTED ACCESS

Under the rules, exploration will be allowed without a licence, but only for notified government agencies.

Any later discovery of atomic minerals above threshold grades, as defined in alignment with the Atomic Mineral Concession Rules, 2016, must be reported to the Directorate of Atomic Minerals Exploration and Research. There is a possibility that post such reportage, there could be immediate reservation of the block for national use.

Crucially, the government reserves the right to revoke or deny licences if discoveries are deemed strategically sensitive or exceed the threshold grade.

The Central government has been empowered to directly acquire such sites. In such cases, compensation to original explorers may be provided based on incurred expenses, a mechanism expected to deter speculative activity by private parties.

Trade deal with India may have additional tariffs, says Trump

Amiti Sen
New Delhi

COMPETITIVE EDGE. India wants sustained advantage over its competitors in the US market in key areas of its interest as part of the BTA REUTERS

US President Donald Trump has said yet again that the US has a deal coming up with India but suggested that additional tariffs may still be imposed on the country.

"We have another one (deal) coming up, maybe with India... We're in negotiation. When I send out a letter, that's a deal... The best deal we can make is to send out a letter, and the letter says that you'll pay 30 per cent, 35 per cent, 25 per cent, 20 per cent... We have some pretty good deals to announce," Trump said while speaking to reporters on Wednesday.

MINI TRADE DEAL

New Delhi wants a mini trade deal that will help it avoid Trump's 26 per cent reciprocal tariffs completely, or at least tariffs above the 10 per cent baseline already levied.

If it still gets reciprocal tariffs levied on it on August 1, it will negotiate for its full withdrawal, in addition to gaining more market access for labour intensive goods as part of the first tranche of the full bilateral trade agreement (BTA) to be finalised by fall 2025 (September-October), the source said.

"Even if India gets additional tariffs from the US below those levied on Vietnam and Indonesia, it would be a tricky situation as there would be no certainty on whether the tariff advantage would stay," the source said.

India wants sustained advantage over its competitors

New Delhi wants a mini trade deal that will help it avoid Trump's 26% reciprocal tariffs completely in the US market in key areas of its interest as part of the BTA, and that is what it is negotiating for, the source added.

New Delhi is keen for greater market access for a number of items, such as electronics, textiles and garments, carpets, leather, shrimps and pharmaceuticals.

Going by Trump's announcement, the US would be levying 20 per cent reciprocal tariffs on Vietnam and 19 per cent on Indonesia. In return, both countries have agreed to give tariff-free access to American goods, the US President claimed.

On Tuesday, Trump said that the US was close to a deal with India similar to the one with Indonesia.

The US' list of demands from India is big, which the country is finding difficult to meet. It is continuing to push for market access in sensitive areas, such as agriculture and dairy, apart from steep tariff cuts across sectors, including automobiles.

MUTUALLY BENEFICIAL
India has maintained that it will protect all its sensitivities and would go for a deal that is mutually beneficial and not one-sided.

Trump had announced reciprocal tariffs for most trade partners with which the US had a trade deficit in April this year and then suspended them till July 9, except a baseline tariff of 10 per cent. As most countries, including India, could not reach an interim deal with the US by July 9, Trump decided to push back the tariff deadline to August 1.

WRD plans fresh round of evictions along Cooum, Adyar rivers & Buckingham canal

S GURUVANMIKANATHAN
@ Chennai

IN line with Madras High Court directions, another round of evictions is likely along the Cooum and Adyar rivers, and the Buckingham canal. This eviction drive will also include families residing along the Cooum who were allotted land under the World Bank-funded MUDP scheme.

The Tamil Nadu Urban Habitat Development Board (TNUHDB) had told the court that though allotments were made by the board, sale deeds have not been issued to the beneficiaries as the land under the scheme have not yet been transferred to the board so far. TNUHDB said the scheme area remains with the Public Works Department.

The order by Justice GR Swaminathan stated, when the area occupied by the petitioners is a waterbody, they have to vacate it and the only remedy they can seek is alternative accommodation. "The high court has been constantly directing us to restore Chennai rivers and Buckingham Canal after removing the encroachments. But we are not sure if we will be able to re-settle encroachers within the deadline given to us," a senior WRD official told TNIE.

The official said that out of 15,526 families living in 60 habitations along the Cooum river, 14,121 families from 52 habitations an enumeration of families at Srinivasapuram in Pattinampakkam and evict them within eight weeks, and provide them alternate housing arrangements. The court called the settlement an 'illegal extension' of TNUHDB habitation in the area constructed between 1970 and 1977 in the Adyar creek and on the coastline.

Another official pointed out that a feasibility report costing ₹3.87 crore has been submitted for the demarcation of the Adyar, Cooum, and Buckingham Canal using Differential Global Positioning System (DGPS), under the Chennai Rivers Restoration Trust (CRRT) fund.

"In addition, CRRT has approved ₹11.93 crore for boundary demarcation works along the Buckingham Canal, and the work is already underway," he said.

"We believe once the government releases funds, the remaining work can be taken up quickly," an official noted.

M Janaki, chief engineer of WRD (Chennai region), refused to comment on the issue.

South Indian Bank profit up 9% at Rs. 322 cr

Chennai, July 18: South Indian Bank reported a nearly 10% YoY increase in Q1 FY26 net profit to Rs 321.95 crore, primarily driven by a robust jump in other income.

South Indian Bank on Thursday reported a 9.46% year-on-year increase in net profit to Rs.321.95 crore for Q1FY26, aided by a jump in other income, even as interest income remained subdued. On a sequential basis, however, net profit was lower than the Rs.342.19 crore posted in Q4FY25.

Interest income grew a modest 2% year-on-year to Rs.2,362 crore, while other income jumped 47% to Rs.621.89 crore. At the same time, interest expenses rose at a faster pace of 5% to Rs.1,529 crore, resulting in a 3.83% decline in net interest income, which stood at Rs.833 crore for the quarter.

The bank's total business reached Rs.2.02 lakh crore as of June 30. Gross advances rose 8% year-on-year to Rs.89,198 crore, with housing loans leading the growth—up 66% to Rs.8,518 crore. Personal loans increased 26% to Rs.24,222 crore, while gold loans grew 7% to Rs.17,446 crore.

“During the reporting period, the Bank witnessed consistent growth across all targeted segments, with a sharp focus on acquiring quality assets in verticals such as Corporate lending, auto loans, housing loans, and gold loans,” said PR Seshadri, MD & CEO, in a statement.

Retail deposits outpaced credit growth, rising 9.65% to Rs.1.09 lakh crore. CASA deposits grew 9.06% to Rs.36,204 crore, while NRI deposits rose 7.28% to Rs.32,293 crore. The CASA ratio remained stable at 32.06%, indicating continued challenges in mobilizing low-cost deposits.

Asset quality witnessed improvement, with gross non-performing assets (GNPA) declining 135 basis points year-on-year to 3.15%, and net NPA falling 76 basis points to 0.68%. Shares of South Indian Bank closed flat at Rs.30.71 on the NSE.

Easy current booking for enroute stations in Vande Bharat Chennai, July 18: Southern Railway has implemented a significant system upgrade to facilitate hassle-free current booking for Vande Bharat Express trains at enroute stations. Effective from July 17, 2025, passengers will now be able to book available seats up to 15 minutes before the train's departure from any intermediate station.

This crucial modification in the Passenger Reservation System (PRS) aims to benefit a large number of commuters and improve the occupancy rates of the popular Vande Bharat services. Previously, the facility for current booking at enroute stations was limited, often preventing passengers from securing a seat once the train had departed its originating station, even if seats were vacant.

With the new system, any unoccupied accommodations will now be made available for current booking, offering a convenient option for last-minute travel plans. This change is particularly advantageous for those travelling between intermediate points on the Vande Bharat routes.

This pilot project is currently applicable to eight Vande Bharat Express trains originating from the Southern Railway zone:

- 20631 Mangaluru Central - Thiruvananthapuram Central
- Vande Bharat Express, 20632 Thiruvananthapuram Central -

- Mangaluru Central Vande Bharat Express, 20627 Chennai Egmore - Nagercoil Vande Bharat Express, 20628 Nagercoil - Chennai Egmore
- Vande Bharat Express, 20642 Coimbatore - Bengaluru Cantt. Vande Bharat Express, 20646 Mangaluru Central - Madgaon Vande Bharat Express, 20671 Madurai - Bengaluru Cantt. Vande Bharat Express, 20677 Dr MGR Chennai Central - Vijayawada Vande Bharat Express

This initiative is expected to significantly enhance passenger convenience and ensure better utilization of the state-of-the-art Vande Bharat Express services across the Southern Railway network.

POV VWS Caste and consequence: Modi's exit triggers familiar tune

It's getting warm in Delhi—not just the weather, but the political climate too. RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat recently dropped what looked suspiciously like a retirement hint aimed at Prime Minister Modi, who just turned 75.

While Home Minister

Amit Shah continues to insist, in his trademark foghorn style, that Modi will lead the NDA into 2029, the party's underwhelming performance in the 2024 elections suggests otherwise. The once-bold slogan of “Abki baar, 400 paar” turned into a political punch line, and now BJP clings to power thanks to two somewhat unpredictable allies.

Enter the opposition, never one to miss an opening—or a well-worn playbook. Bhagwat's nod toward Modi's political sunset has inspired a new round of the familiar “caste card” performance, now recast with a question: If not Modi, then who? And could that who is... a Dalit?

Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, ever the theatrical performer, called it a “golden opportunity” for the BJP to finally install a Dalit Prime Minister. He was responding to a challenge from Karnataka BJP President B Y Vijayendra, who, in a fine display of political theater, dared the Congress to back Mallikarjun Kharge—Dalit leader, AICC President, and an inconvenient reminder of the BJP's own representational gaps.

“Kharge didn't get where he is by playing a ‘Dalit card,’” Siddaramaiah said. “His rise is thanks to decades of integrity and public service. The Congress decides its own PM candidates—helpfully, without BJP's input.”

Siddaramaiah went further, generously offering to support a Dalit PM face from the BJP, suggesting names like Govind Karjol or Chalavadi Narayanaswamy. “If you propose one of them, I'll be the first to congratulate you,” he offered, tongue firmly in cheek. Of course, he added, BJP's track record with Dalits has been more cosmetic than consequential.

The BJP, for its part, points to symbolic wins: a tribal President in Droupadi Murmu, a now-departed Bangaru Laxman once elevated (and then spectacularly felled) as party president, and the much-repeated memory of A.P.J. Abdul Kalam. Yet, Siddaramaiah fired back: “Why hasn't Murmu ever been considered PM? And why does the current Lok Sabha not feature even one Muslim BJP MP?”

He didn't stop there. He accused Vijayendra's father, B S Yediyurappa, of politically sidelining backward class icon S Bangarappa—and now, his son. “Father and son seem to have made it a family hobby.”

Siddaramaiah, rarely one to under-deliver on drama, suggested Vijayendra resign as BJP state chief and let a Dalit leader take over. “Try Karjol. I've worked with him. Unlike most of your party's tokenism, he's a decent man,” he said, with a precision cut that left little room for doubt—or rebuttal.

Will the BJP take the bait? Possibly. The party has shown remarkable agility when survival demands it. Who is to say it won't dust off a Dalit (or even Muslim !!) leader, place them on a pedestal, and declare a new era of inclusion—at least until the next election cycle?

In Indian politics, as we've learned time and again, anything is possible—except perhaps sincerity.

power students worldwide with real-world problem-solving skills and connect them to future-ready careers,” said Mallik Sundharam, VP at Illinois Tech. It will also support teacher training in project-based learning and offer joint certifications and opportunities for further study at Illinois Tech's global campus.

Kruu CEO Anil Srinivasan called the initiative a bold step toward reimagining education: “This is more than a partnership—it's a shared mission to inspire the next generation of changemakers.”

The K2 Lab will feature curated challenges, student showcases, and immersive workshops, building an inclusive, innovation-driven learning environment.
