Leading Middle East Contract Staffing and Talent Management Firm, TASC Outsourcing goes live with Ramco ERP

- Implements end-to-end integrated solution to manage staffing operations of thousands of employees
- Flexible rule-based Payroll addresses customer/contract-specific policies

Dubai, UAE/ Chennai, India – February 2, 2015 – Ramco Systems announced the successful go-live of its end-to-end ERP for Services (also called SRP – Services Resource Planning) at Middle East's leading Contract Staffing and talent management firm, TASC Outsourcing.

TASC Outsourcing manages thousands of employees who are contracted to companies in industries such as IT, retail, finance, oil & gas and energy. Offering service modules such as finance, procurement, operations, human capital management (HCM) & payroll, TASC will utilise the SRP services from Ramco to automate its processes and increase efficiencies in employee care, while also reducing revenue leakage by enhancing resource productivity.

Mr. Mahesh Shahdarpuri, Executive Director, TASC Outsourcing, said, "A progressive combination of technology and innovation are key to the growth of any business today. In the staffing industry, it is important to ensure transparency in the processes, to build long-term engagement between the two most important stakeholders – the employee and the customer. By automating our processes through Ramco's ERP for Service platform, we hope to enhance our offering of a strongly integrated value chain."

Commenting on the go-live, Mr. Virender Aggarwal, CEO, Ramco Systems said, "We have been witnessing good success in the Middle East with strategic orders from Hospitality, Retail, and EPC industries. The record-time go-live of Ramco ERP at TASC, a regional leader in staffing, is a testimony of the robust processes and strength of the solution to address this industry. We are witnessing good uptake for our offerings and look forward to providing our services to TASC."

Professional Services is a growing market segment, globally. Ramco ERP for Services offers Project Management that is tightly integrated with HCM & Financial modules. It also supports both Milestone and T&M (Time and Materials) based project models. It further provides comprehensive project tracking with revenue recognition. With built-in mobility and Analytics and deployment option on Cloud, Ramco SRP has grown to attract multiple businesses from across the globe.
