Ramco secures ERP order from Halogen Security Company

To automate Security Solutions operation covering over 13,000 guards spread across Nigeria on Ramco solution

Nigeria/Chennai, India – December 03, 2014 – Nigeria's leading professional security solutions provider, Halogen Security has signed a multi-year contract with Ramco Systems to implement full-suite Services ERP (Services Resource Planning – SRP) to manage security solution operations of its 13,000+ guards across the region. This is the 7th win in Nigeria for Ramco Systems. Ramco's partner, Inlaks Computers was instrumental in this win.

Halogen Security Company will be implementing Ramco's full-suite SRP offering which includes, Finance, Inventory, HR, Procurement, Sales & CRM, Project Management, and Payroll.

Mr. Wale Olaoye, Managing Director, Halogen Security Company said, "At Halogen Security, our main focus has always been to guarantee peace of mind to our clientele. We realized that leveraging latest technology to improve workforce productivity is the key to delivering on our promise and growing our footprint. With Ramco ERP for Service-centric businesses, we found a perfect match in terms of features, functionality and usability. Unlike standard manufacturing-centric ERP, Ramco SRP has modules which address time & attendance based billing of staff, project-wise revenue and cost, incident tracking among others. With seamless integration to biometric attendance and access on mobiles, we expect to have better control and visibility into our operations and thereby support our growth plans."

Mr. Virender Aggarwal, CEO, Ramco Systems, commented by saying that, "Halogen Security has been in operation for over two decades and has consistently been providing superior security solutions in Nigeria. We at Ramco, are happy to associate ourselves with yet another security company after having established prominence in this domain. In a segment where people are the main assets, automation can bring great benefits which can result in improved bottom line. Ramco SRP has gained very good acceptance within a short span of its launch and we will continue to build on our expertise and are geared to address the global opportunity ahead of us."

Key benefits of Ramco SRP for Security Services Companies:

- One Integrated solution on Cloud
- Optimized Resource Utilization to increase revenue per employee
- Scalable solution to manage Multiple company/country, projects and currency
- Better visibility of cost and revenue
- Timely alerts and notifications to provide cost benefits
- Accurate time and attendance tracking and linkage to payroll to reduce revenue leakages
- Automatic contract renewal alerts to ensure customer retention
- Better fraud management by using biometric tracking

Ramco SRP is a niche offering which addresses the needs of people-centric businesses – from staffing firms to security solutions providers; Consulting firms to IT/ ITeS companies. Within 6 months of market launch, Ramco SRP already has many service-centric organisations as clients including one of the global leaders in staffing with 100,000+ resources.
