

RateGain recognized as a Premier Connectivity Partner by Booking.com for sixth consecutive year

Delhi, July 6th, 2023: RateGain Travel Technologies Limited (RateGain), a global provider of SaaS solutions for travel and hospitality, announced that Booking.com has recognized it as a Premier Connectivity Partner for the sixth year in a row.

Booking.com's Connectivity Partner Program recognizes leading connectivity providers, including channel managers, property management systems, and other vendors, that maintain high-quality connections.

RateGain has been working with Booking.com for over ten years with the aim of providing a seamless booking experience to travelers across the world. During this time, the product teams across both companies worked on launching a Room-Rate Management feature, as well as connectivity features to update content on Booking.com saving hoteliers hours of effort by directly updating rate plans and content through the channel manager.

Commenting on this achievement, Bhanu Chopra – Founder and Managing Director, RateGain – said, “To help hotels globally, RateGain and Booking.com have been working together to ensure that our partner properties can access the latest technology to make faster decisions and execute them seamlessly. We are delighted to be recognized as a Premier Connectivity Partner for the efforts we are putting in and hope that the work we do together can help the industry move forward with the latest technology advancements.”

RateGain today connects to over 191,000 properties and 400+ demand partners providing an award-winning distribution platform that provides a secure, reliable, and scalable infrastructure suited for hotel chains of every size.

“We appreciate the continued investment from our valued connectivity partner RateGain. The recognition of Premier status once again, shows their commitment to progressing the requirements within the industry, and striving for a seamless experience for accommodation partners,” said Reece Evans, Area Manager of Connectivity Partnership APAC at Booking.com.
