MEDIA RELEASE

Skill development centre opened in Greater Noida under DDU-GKY

December 17th, 2020: Under the vision of Govt of India for skilling the poor youth in rural areas of U.P. through Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Grameen Kaushalya Yojana (DDU-GKY), Skill Development Center is opened in Greater Noida. This scheme is under Department of Vocational Training and Skill Development, U.P.. Delhi-based leading infrastructure consultancy firm Rudrabhishek Enterprises Limited (REPL) has been appointed as Project Implementation Agency in 3 districts of UP. The centre is in Knowledge Park-III, Greater Noida.

Economically backward youth of rural areas will be given skill development training with residential along with other required facilities totally free of cost. The candidates will be selected through mobilization, aptitude test and counselling. The courses that will be offered are Mason general, Draughtsman, Surveyor, Structure and Quality Technician. All the courses will be of 5-6 months duration. Centre will have 4 batches of 35 candidates each and eligible candidates will be offered placements too.

Commenting on the development, REPL-Whole Time Director, Ms. Richa Misra said, "We are really happy to be a part of government's skill development scheme. We will be using our expertise in training the young and aspiring youth who will go on to contribute in the development of the country. In the first phase, we will train 840 candidates and later will plan to expand not only in UP but in various other states."

Talking about the skill development programme of the government and new centre, Mr. Prabhakar Kumar, AVP & HOD - Planning Department said, "With such centre, we aim to connect to the youth of rural India who are talented and capable but due to various reasons fail to get a platform. Mentoring by the industry players, these centres will help the rural youth to develop certain skill sets and eventually get employed. We would also like to develop entrepreneurial skills among the youth so that they become Atmanirbhar in the long run. Mobilization from Ghaziabad and Bulandshahr districts will be start very soon."

DDU-GKY is a part of the National Rural Livelihood Mission (NRLM) announced by the Ministry of Rural Development (MoRD) to cater the career aspirations of rural youth.
