Chennai, India – October 07, 2026: ROX Hi-Tech Limited (NSE: ROXHITECH), a leading AI-led digital transformation and enterprise technology solutions provider, announced that Mr. Jim Rakesh, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, was featured at two prominent industry forums focused on artificial intelligence, innovation and the future of business.

Mr. Rakesh participated in the IBM AI Innovation Forum, held on September 18, 2026, in Bengaluru, where technology leaders, innovators, and industry experts convened to discuss the transformative impact of artificial intelligence on businesses and emerging opportunities for growth and innovation. He was also featured as an “Expert on Stage” at the 17th edition of Dun & Bradstreet's Business Enterprises of Tomorrow 2026, held on September 29, 2026, at Hyatt Regency, Bhikaji Cama Place, New Delhi, where leading stakeholders exchanged perspectives on innovation, resilience, and future-ready enterprises.

These engagements reflect the growing relevance of ROX Hi-Tech's expertise in enabling enterprises to leverage AI, cloud, cybersecurity, automation, and next-generation digital technologies to drive business transformation. As organizations increasingly accelerate their digital initiatives, ROX Hi-Tech continues to support customers with scalable, secure, and innovation-led technology solutions that deliver measurable business outcomes.

Management Commentary

Commenting on the engagements, Mr. Jim Rakesh, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, ROX Hi-Tech Limited, said:

“Businesses are increasingly looking at how AI can solve practical challenges and deliver measurable results. Forums like these create valuable opportunities to exchange ideas and understand the changing needs of enterprises. At ROX, our focus is on helping customers adopt technology that improves efficiency, strengthens security and supports their growth.”
