Commenting on the impressive performance of the company, Founder and Managing Director, Mr. Dinesh Shahra said, "I am happy to share the healthy growth recorded by the company during FY 2012-13. Last two quarters witnessed improved branded sales and better sales realization of export of oilseed extraction. Our focus on the growth of branded products has helped us in achieving better margins. Effective control on the finance costs and favorable business sentiments during the second half of the fiscal also helped us to register higher profits. We believe that with adequate capacity to garner growing demand in the domestic market, we are greatly poised to capitalize emerging opportunities to enhance value of stakeholders."
