Ramky Infra bags Water Digest Water Awards 2010-11

Hyderabad: Ramky Infrastructure Limited (RIL) has bagged the prestigious Water Digest 'Water Awards 2010-11' as the 'Distinguished Water Company' for outstanding contribution in the field of water in India.

The award ceremony, held in New Delhi on 27 January 2011, was presided over by Mr Vincent Pala, the State Minister of Water. Mr Salil Bhandari, the President of PHD Chamber of Commerce, Mr Armoogum Parsuramen, the Director of UNESCO, and Mr AK Bajaj, the Chairman of the Central Water Commission were also present.

Happy with the development, Mr A Ayodhya Rami Reddy, the Chairman of Ramky Group, said, "The award is a recognition of our strategic emphasis on environment - friendly projects and also our commitment to ensuring that water enriches millions of lives."

The Water Digest Water Awards (WDWA) is a platform to honour and appreciate outstanding environmental initiatives and achievements. As the country's first Environmental Awards, WDWA has been created to awaken eco-consciousness in every industry across India as well as in every section of society. The ultimate aim is to motivate behavioural change and increase awareness in relation to the protection and preservation of the environment. WDWA recognises and encourages innovation and leadership in sustainable development of the water sector.

The award is supported by UNESCO and the Ministry of Water Resources of India, and the key focus for the Award remains people, innovation and processes that contribute to sustainability of water resource and to highlight those organizations / NGOs / Corporates that have worked within the community to ensure the message of water use efficiency is primary in the mind of people, institutions, government and industries. It is the single largest get-together of water conscious entities. The award is judged by a jury from IIT, TERI, Wes-net and UNESCO.
