Karnataka Govt, Power Regulator Spar Over Wind Tariffs

Kaavya.Chandrasekaran
@timesgroup.com

Bengaluru: In an embarrassing development, the Karnataka government and its power regulator exchanged letters sticking to their positions in a dispute over whether power from wind projects commissioned before March 31 this year should be paid ₹4.50 per unit or ₹3.74.

While the Karnataka Electricity Regulatory Commission (KERC), in its letter of November 9, invoked high court judgments to maintain that the state government had no right to interfere with its decisions on tariffs, the government replied the very next day asking KERC to reconsider its stance since the matter involved "public interest." KERC had passed an order on September 4 reducing the fixed wind tariff to ₹3.74 per unit from the ₹4.50 permit it had set ten years ago, and further laid down that all wind projects it had yet to approve would be endorsed only at the new lowered rate. This created a problem for 700-50 MW of wind projects which had been commissioned before March 31 and were already supplying power to Karnataka's power distribution companies at ₹4.50 per unit, but whose power purchase agreements (PPAs) awaited KERC's approval. The order required them all to renegotiate their PPAs at ₹3.74.

SUITS & SAYINGS

ET's weekly roundup of the wackiest whispers and murmurs in corporate corridors & policy parlours

Magic Realism

When Ravi Subramanian's If God Was A Banker hit the stands two years ago, bankers in Mumbai read the book to try and identify the characters and the companies he had written about. His new book, Don't Tell The Governor, is also likely to evoke curiosity. It's about the travails at the Reserve Bank of India governor presiding over Delhi. The standard disclaimer obviously applies. This is a work of fiction. Names, characters and incidents are products of the author's imagination. Any resemblance to actual events or persons, living or dead, is entirely coincidental.

Noble Cause

Sanjay Lalbhai, chairman of Asia's largest denim maker Arvind Ltd, is following a family philanthropic tradition. Now, the fifth generation in business, the Lalbhais had among other things donated large tracts of land for the Indian Institute of Management in Ahmedabad. Sanjay Lalbhai is hiring 250 advisers in the event of Gujarat at his call centres. A distance learning initiative is part of a mission to give them jobs at his factories that are being expanded to meet demand.

Room for Elders

Kumaramangalam Birla, chairman of the Aditya Birla Group, is also big on tradition. Though grandfather and family doyen BK Birla gave him a part of his business, his grandson has kept the post of chairman of Textile to cement company Century Textiles for his grandfather. He has also set aside a room for his ailing grandfather in all his new corporate offices though he visits him almost every day in Mumbai at his home.

Triple-ton Advice

Local private equity funds host investors' conferences to provide a perspective on their funds to limited partners. A highly successful PE fund, known for betting on startups, had an unusual guest lined up to brief investors. They got former India batting sensation Virender Sehwag to address the audience about life and times in cricket. The master blaster impressed the audience with his tales of grit and determination such as when he scored a triple Test match century. It struck a chord – PE funds are looking at a minimum three times returns on investment.

Choppy Waters

A billionaire currently going through a turbulent financial patch has decided to put his fancy boat up for sale. His better half, one of Mumbai's most well-known aesthetes, has told her confidantes to sound out potential buyers. With the cruising season just kicking off, the timing could not have been better. The question though is whether the tycoon will be a tough negotiator even when it comes to selling one of his tax toys.

50 is the new 20

It is the golden jubilee bash, then even 500 guests seem a tad modest. Especially, if you are party animals like the Paul siblings of Park. They flagship property in Kolkata's iconic Park St's 50 anniversary last week and Park Street was swinging like the 50s and 60s, we hear, even on a weekday. Champagne flowed till 4 am across four venues that saw a rocking gig, showgirls with faux feathers, lavish cuisine and thumping EDM. The following morning, to cure the hangover, there was an elaborate Bengali lunch of 14 dishes served in three courses over two hours.

The Prince and I

Uday Kotak has become a must-have in most high-powered soirees these days. Along with Ajay Piramal, Sanjiv Goenka and Suhel Seth, Kotak was the headline act for a closed-door brainstorming session with Prince Charles and his wife Camilla during their recent India tour that was organized by the British High Commissioner. Charles was also in Mumbai to meet the top Tata brass along with Mukesh Ambani and legal ace Harish Salve. When the crown calls, business royalty responds.

AirAsia Offers ₹99 Base Fare for Domestic Flights

Press Trust of India

Mumbai: The Malaysian budget carrier AirAsia on Sunday announced a discount sale, offering passengers one-way base fare at ₹99 for a domestic journey across its Indian JV airline network and ₹444 for international flights under a limited period offer.

However, the travel period under the offer, for which the bookings commenced on Sunday night, will be between May next year and January 2018, as per an airline statement. "Enjoy these fares from as low as ₹99 to domestic destinations and those fares of ₹444 for international destinations," the airline said. In addition, for customers planning an international trip to Johor Bahru from Kolkata, AirAsia Berhad will be offering zero base for seats in this segment, it said, adding guests will only need to pay taxes for their flight. A major chunk of the air fare comprises the fuel surcharge, airport fee, taxes and other charges.

महागाईचा पुन्हा धोका

तेलाच्या दरवाढीचा परिणाम

इंदी वृत्त, दक्षी दिल्ली

केंद्रात मनमोहन झन्यापासून सातत्याने खनिज तेलाचे दर आंतराष्ट्रीय बाजारात खाली येत होते. त्यामुळे सरकारच्या प्रत्येक सुधारपेक्षा जनतेला फक्त प्रसिद्धि प्रिंट्स आल्याचे दिसत होते. परंतु गेल्या काही आठवड्यांपासून पेट्रोलचे दर वारंवार वाढल्याने आणखी काळात महागाईचा धोका निर्माण झाला आहे. खरी झळ सर्वसामान्यांना बसणार आहे.

आंतराष्ट्रीय बाजारात इंधनाचे दर प्रति बॅरल ५० डॉलरपर्यंत खाली घसरले होते. परंतु जूनपासून ते दर प्रति बॅरल ६५ डॉलरपर्यंत गडले. इंधनाचे दर खाली आले असताना सरकारला वित्तीय तूट आटोक्यात ठेवायचे व अबुतने कमी करायचे ऊलब झाले होते. चार आठ इंधनाचे दर ११ टक्क्यांनी वाढले असल्यामुळे महागाई वाढून सुमारे २.३ टक्क्यांनी वाढेल, असे मर्कीचे विश्लेषक बोलत आपल्या एका अहवालात नुकतेच नवंगरे आहे. चालूते आर्थिक विकास ७.५ टक्क्यांनी कमी होईल, असेही मोगलात येत आहे.

देशात डिजिटायझेशनकडे नेऊ पाहण्याचा हसेल बीएसटी लागू करून अर्थव्यवस्था कायमचे सुधारिकरण करण्याचा मोदींचा हा निर्णय घातक ठरणार आहे. महागाईचा नवा चिंतेचा मोमबत्ती आहोत होण्या आधी त्यातून दिसे अधिक स्पष्ट होणार आहे. बँड सरकार सत्ते आले त्यावेळी घ्यायचे मे २०१४पणी आंतराष्ट्रीय बाजारात कच्चातेलाचे दर ११५ डॉलर प्रति बॅरल होते. त्यामुळे सरकारला प्रत्येक सुधारपेक्षा जनतेला फक्त प्रसिद्धि प्रिंट्स आल्याचे दिसत होते. परंतु गेल्या काही आठवड्यांपासून पेट्रोलचे दर वारंवार वाढल्याने आणखी काळात महागाईचा धोका निर्माण झाला आहे. खरी झळ सर्वसामान्यांना बसणार आहे.
