Commenting on the performance, Mr. Paresh Dattani, Chairman and Managing Director, Sanathan Textiles Limited, stated:

The global yarn industry navigated a quarter of unprecedented price volatility. Geopolitical tensions in West Asia disrupted PTA and MEG feedstock markets, driving polyester yarn prices sharply higher. Cotton prices moved in the same direction, rising independently but no less steeply prompting the Government to temporarily waive the 11% cotton import duty effective June 1, 2026, to ease input cost pressures.

Against this backdrop of rapid price rallies and heightened uncertainty, downstream buyers deferred purchases in anticipation of a correction, and industry operating rates moderated. Encouragingly, conditions began to normalise from June, with demand and utilisation showing early signs of recovery as the quarter closed.

While your Company delivered a quarter of steady operating performance. Standalone results, anchored by our Silvassa plant, improved sequentially, with EBITDA rising 35.52% YoY to Rs. 94.93 crore. This was underpinned by disciplined, strategic raw material procurement and a deliberate diversification across natural and man-made fibres, which allowed us to manage input cost volatility more effectively. Consolidated performance benefited further from a steady scale-up in utilisation at our Punjab plant. Notably, both facilities operated seamlessly and without interruption through a period of significant global and local supply chain disruption a testament to the resilience of our operations. Our near-term focus remains firmly on strengthening operational efficiency and margins across all business verticals.

We remain committed to pursuing growth across all three verticals, supported by durable structural tailwinds. During the quarter, we made significant progress on the expansion of our Technical textiles capacity at Silvassa, which shall commence commercial production soon. This will be followed by Phase 2 expansion at Punjab and cotton expansion in Madhya Pradesh.
