ENERGY PRICES COULD GO UP

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

REUTERS
Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran both fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually...I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it...but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin that unification would happen eventually.

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party review inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon," while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

૨૫ ઓગસ્ટની રેડમાં સામે આવ્યો મોટો જથ્થો

વટવામાં ગેરકાયદે સંગ્રહ કરાયેલું ૮૫૭ બોરી નીમ કોટેડ યુરિયા ઝડપાયું

પોલીસે એક આરોપીની ધરપકડ કરી છે, જ્યારે અન્ય ૪ આરોપીઓ ફરાર હોવાનું સામે આવ્યું છે

અમદાવાદ,

અમદાવાદના વટવા વિસ્તારમાં ખેડૂતોને મળવાપાત્ર નીમ કોટેડ યુરિયાનો ગેરકાયદે સંગ્રહ અને ઔદ્યોગિક એકમોમાં હેરફેર કરવાના કથિત કૌભાંડનો પર્દાફાશ થયો છે. વટવા જીઆઈડીસી પોલીસે શ્રદ્ધા એસ્ટેટમાં દરોડો પાડી ૮૫૭ બોરી યુરિયા કબજે કર્યું છે. આ જથ્થાની કિંમત રૂ.૨.૨૯ લાખ હોવાનું સામે આવ્યું છે. પોલીસે એક આરોપીની ધરપકડ કરી છે, જ્યારે અન્ય ૪ આરોપીઓ ફરાર હોવાનું સામે આવ્યું છે.૨૫ ઓગસ્ટે વટવા જીઆઈડીસી પોલીસે શ્રદ્ધા એસ્ટેટમાં બાતમીના આધારે દરોડો પાડ્યો હતો. ખેતી નિયામકની હાજરીમાં કરવામાં આવેલી કાર્યવાહી દરમિયાન ગેરકાયદે રીતે સંગ્રહ કરાયેલો નીમ કોટેડ યુરિયાનો મોટો જથ્થો મળી આવ્યો હતો. ત્યારબાદ લેબોરેટરી-રિપોર્ટ મળ્યા બાદ પોલીસે કુલ ૫ આરોપીઓ વિરુદ્ધ ગુનો નોંધ્યો હતો.

પોલીસ તપાસમાં સામે આવ્યું કે શ્રદ્ધા એસ્ટેટમાં 'મણીધર પ્લાસ્ટો'ના નામે ગોડાઉન ભાડે લેવામાં આવ્યું હતું. આ ગોડાઉનમાં આરોપી રાયમલ ભરવાડ દ્વારા મોકલવામાં આવેલો નીમ કોટેડ યુરિયાનો જથ્થો રાખવામાં આવ્યો હતો. પોલીસે ૮૫૭ બોરી કબજે કરી હોવાનું જણાવ્યું છે.

આ કેસમાં અર્જુન સિસોદિયાની ધરપકડ કરવામાં આવી છે. જ્યારે રાયમલ ભરવાડ, હિમાંશુ પટેલ, અંકિત પટેલ અને વિપુલ પટેલ ફરાર હોવાનું સામે આવ્યું છે. પોલીસે ફરાર આરોપીઓને ઝડપી પાડવા માટે તપાસ અને કાર્યવાહી તેજ કરી છે.

નીમ કોટેડ યુરિયા સામાન્ય રીતે સરકાર માન્ય એગ્રો સેન્ટર અથવા સરકારી મંડળી મારફતે ખેડૂતોને આપવામાં આવે છે. ખાતર મેળવવા માટે ખેડૂતોનું આધાર કાર્ડ અને બાયોમેટ્રિક પ્રક્રિયા પણ થાય છે. તેમ છતાં ખેડૂતો માટેના ખાતરનો જથ્થો ઔદ્યોગિક એકમો સુધી પહોંચતો હોવાના આક્ષેપોએ ગંભીર સવાલો ઉભા કર્યા છે.

પોલીસની તપાસ હવે માત્ર ૮૫૭ બોરીના જથ્થા સુધી સીમિત નથી.

આ જથ્થો ક્યાંથી આવ્યો, કોના કહેવાથી મંગાવવામાં આવ્યો અને તેને કયા ઔદ્યોગિક એકમોમાં પહોંચાડવાનો હતો તે સૌથી મોટો સવાલ છે. ફરાર આરોપીઓ ઝડપાયા બાદ ખેડૂતોના હકના યુરિયાની કથિત ગેરકાયદે હેરફેરનું આખું નેટવર્ક બહાર આવે છે કે કેમ તે જોવું મહત્વનું રહેશે.

સુરતથી ગાંજો લાવી યુવકે વટવામાં સાસરીમાં સંતાડ્યો

અમદાવાદ,

અમદાવાદના નારોલ કેનાલ ચાર રસ્તા પાસેથી પોલીસે ૪૪૫ ગ્રામ ગાંજા સાથે એક શખસને ઝડપી પાડ્યો છે. ભાઈલાલ નામનો આ શખસ સુરતથી ૨૨,૨૫૦ રૂપિયાનો ગાંજો લાવ્યો હતો. તેણે વટવામાં સાસરીમાં છુપાવ્યા બાદ બારેજા પોતાના ઘરે લઈ જઈ રહ્યો હતો. પોલીસે ૬૨,૨૫૦ રૂપિયાનો મુદ્દામાલ જપ્ત કરી એનડીપીએસ એક્ટ હેઠળ ગુનો નોંધી વધુ તપાસ હાથ ધરી છે.

અમદાવાદના નારોલ વિસ્તારમાં આવેલા કેનાલ ચાર રસ્તા પાસેથી પોલીસે ૪૪૫ ગ્રામ ગાંજાના જથ્થા સાથે એક શખસને ઝડપી લીધો હતો. પોલીસે આરોપી પાસેથી ૨૨,૨૫૦ રૂપિયાની કિંમતનો ગાંજો અને ૪૦,૦૦૦ રૂપિયાની બાઇક મળીને કુલ ૬૨,૨૫૦ રૂપિયાનો મુદ્દામાલ જપ્ત કર્યો છે. ઝડપાયેલા શખસની પ્રાથમિક પૂછપરછમાં સામે આવ્યું છે કે, તે આ ગાંજો સુરતથી લાવ્યો હતો અને વટવા સ્થિત પોતાની સાસરીમાં છુપાવ્યા બાદ બારેજા પોતાના ઘરે લઈ જઈ રહ્યો હતો. આ અંગે નારોલ પોલીસે આરોપી સામે એનડીપીએસ (NDPS) એક્ટ હેઠળ ગુનો નોંધી આગળની કાર્યવાહી હાથ ધરી છે.મળતી માહિતી મુજબ, નારોલ પોલીસનો સ્ટાફ વિસ્તારમાં પેટ્રોલિંગમાં હતો, આ દરમિયાન કોન્સ્ટેબલ શક્તિસિંહને ચોક્કસ બાતમી મળી હતી. બાતમીમાં જણાવવામાં આવ્યું હતું કે, બારેજા ખાતે રહેતો ભાઈલાલ નામનો શખસ પોતાના બાઇક પર ગાંજાનો જથ્થો લઈને તિરુપતિ એક્ઝેલ કેનાલ ચાર રસ્તાથી એસ.પી. રિંગ રોડ થઈ બારેજા તરફ જવાનો છે.

આ બાતમીના આધારે પોલીસે વોચ ગોઠવી હતી. તે દરમિયાન આગળના ભાગે નંબર પ્લેટ વગરની સ્પ્લેન્ડર બાઇક લઈને પસાર થઈ રહેલા શંકાસ્પદ યુવકને રોકીને પૂછપરછ કરવામાં આવી હતી.

જીવ બચાવવા બારીઓમાંથી કૂદ્યા બાળકો

કોંગોમાં ભીષણ દુર્ઘટના! બે શાળાઓમાં આગ લાગતા ૨૬ વિદ્યાર્થીઓનાં મોત

આગ લાગ્યા બાદ શાળાની અંદરથી બહાર નીકળવાના રસ્તાઓ સાંકડા હોવાના કારણે સ્થિતિ વધુ ગંભીર બની હતી : મૃતકોમાં ૧૯ છોકરીઓ અને ૭ છોકરાઓનો સમાવેશ

બુકાવુ,

કોંગોના પૂર્વ શહેર બુકાવુમાં ગુરુવારે બનેલી ભીષણ આગની ઘટનાએ સમગ્ર વિસ્તારમાં શોકની લાગણી ફેલાવી છે. એક રહેણાંક મકાનમાંથી શરૂ થયેલી આગ નજીક આવેલી બે શાળાઓ સુધી પહોંચી જતા મોટી દુર્ઘટના સર્જાઈ હતી. ફુરાહા સેકેન્ડરી સ્કૂલ અને ઉજામા પ્રાઇમરી સ્કૂલમાં આગ ફેલાતાં વિદ્યાર્થીઓમાં ભારે અફરાતફરી મચી હતી. આગ અને ગૂંગળામણથી બચવા માટે અનેક વિદ્યાર્થીઓએ શાળાની બારીઓમાંથી કૂદીને પોતાનો જીવ બચાવવાનો પ્રયાસ કર્યો હતો. આ ગોઝારી ઘટનામાં કુલ ૨૬ વિદ્યાર્થીઓનાં મોત થયા હોવાનું પ્રાંતીય સરકારના આંકડામાં જણાવાયું છે. મૃતકોમાં ૧૯ છોકરીઓ અને ૭ છોકરાઓનો સમાવેશ થાય છે. અનેક વિદ્યાર્થીઓ આગમાં દાઝ્યા હોવાનું પણ સામે આવ્યું છે અને ઈજાગ્રસ્તોને સારવાર માટે સ્થાનિક સ્વાસ્થ્ય કેન્દ્રો તથા હોસ્પિટલોમાં ખસેડવામાં આવ્યા છે. ઘટનાને પગલે સ્થાનિક તંત્ર દ્વારા રાહત અને બચાવ કામગીરી શરૂ કરવામાં આવી છે.સ્થાનિક વહીવટી તંત્રના જણાવ્યા અનુસાર, આગની શરૂઆત સૌપ્રથમ શાળાની નજીક આવેલા એક ઘરમાં થઈ હતી. બુકાવુના આ વિસ્તારમાં વસ્તી ખૂબ જ ગીચ છે અને અનેક મકાનો લાકડાના બનેલા હોવાથી આગ ખૂબ જ ઝડપથી ફેલાઈ હતી. આગે જોતજોતામાં વિકરાળ સ્વરૂપ ધારણ કર્યું હતું અને નજીકમાં આવેલી ફુરાહા સેકેન્ડરી સ્કૂલ તથા ઉજામા પ્રાઇમરી સ્કૂલ સુધી પહોંચી ગઈ હતી. શાળામાં વિદ્યાર્થીઓ અભ્યાસ કરી રહ્યા હતા ત્યારે અચાનક આગ ફેલાતા ભયનો માહોલ સર્જાયો હતો. આગ ઝડપથી ફેલાતી હોવાથી વિદ્યાર્થીઓને બહાર નીકળવા માટે પૂરતો સમય પણ મળ્યો ન હતો. આગના ધુમાડા અને ગરમીના કારણે શાળાની અંદરનું વાતાવરણ અત્યંત મુશ્કેલ બની ગયું હતું. વિદ્યાર્થીઓ પોતાનો જીવ બચાવવા માટે બહાર નીકળવાના રસ્તા તરફ દોડ્યા હતા, પરંતુ સાંકડા રસ્તાઓના કારણે બચાવ કામગીરી અને વિદ્યાર્થીઓની બહાર નીકળવાની પ્રક્રિયા વધુ મુશ્કેલ બની હતી.પ્રાંતીય સરકાર દ્વારા જાહેર કરવામાં આવેલા આંકડા પ્રમાણે આગની આ ગોઝારી ઘટનામાં કુલ ૨૬ વિદ્યાર્થીઓનાં મોત થયા છે. મૃતકોમાં ૧૯ છોકરીઓ અને ૭ છોકરાઓનો સમાવેશ થાય છે. આગ અચાનક ફાટી નીકળ્યા બાદ શાળામાં ભારે નાસભાગ મચી હતી. કેટલાક વિદ્યાર્થીઓ આગ અને ધુમાડાના કારણે શાળાની અંદર જ ફસાઈ ગયા હતા.

બેંગલુરુના સ્ટાર્ટઅપ પ્રમોસ ફ્યૂઝનને મહત્વપૂર્ણ સફળતા

ભારતના કૃત્રિમ સૂર્યએ પહેલી વખત પરીક્ષણ વખતે પ્લાઝ્માનું સર્જન કર્યું

કંપનીના કહેવા પ્રમાણે ૨૦૨૭માં એક મેગ્નેટ રિએક્ટર બનાવી લેવાશે. તે પછી ૨૦૩૦ સુધીમાં ધરતી પર સૂર્ય હોય તે દિશામાં કામ શરૂ થશે

ભારતની પ્રાઈવેટ ફ્યૂઝન રિસર્ચ ફર્મ પ્રનોસ ફ્યૂઝને કૃત્રિમ સૂર્ય બનાવવાની દિશામાં એક મહત્વપૂર્ણ સફળતા મેળવી છે. ચીન, અમેરિકા, દક્ષિણ કોરિયા, જાપાન જેવા ઘણાં દેશો કૃત્રિમ સૂર્ય બનાવવાના પ્રયોગો કરી રહ્યા છે. હવે એમાં ભારતમાં થયેલા સંશોધનને પણ ગણતરીમાં લેવાશે. ભારતીય કંપનીએ કૃત્રિમ સૂર્યના પ્લાઝ્મા બનાવવાનો સૌપ્રથમ સફળ પ્રયોગ કરી બતાવ્યો છે.ભારતીય સંશોધકોએ લગભગ આઠ મહિનાની મહેનત બાદ ટોકામક મશીન બનાવ્યું છે. એ મશીનનો ઉપયોગ પ્લાઝમા કંટ્રોલ કરવા માટે થાય છે. તે ઉપરાંત અન્ય ફ્યૂઝનને લગતી આધુનિક ટેકનોલોજીનો ઉપયોગ પણ કૃત્રિમ સૂર્ય બનાવવામાં થાય છે. ૪૦ સેન્ટીમીટરના રેડિયન્સ ધરાવતા ટોકામક મશીનથી સંશોધકોએ પ્રજ્ઞા નામના આ સૂર્યનો સફળ પ્રયોગ કર્યો હતો. ૨૦ કરોડ ડિગ્રી સેન્ટીગ્રેડની ઉર્જા નિર્માણનો મહાપ્રયોગ સફળ થતાં હવે કંપનીએ નેટ એનર્જી રિએક્ટર બનાવવાનો લક્ષ્યાંક સેટ કર્યો છે. આ પ્રયોગમાં ગેસને એટલું ઊંચું તાપમાન આપવામાં આવે છે કે પ્લાઝ્મા બની જાય છે. આ લાવા જેવો ગરમ પ્લાઝ્મા ચુંબકીય બળથી કંટ્રોલ થાય છે.પ્રજ્ઞાનો હેતુ અત્યારે વીજળી ઉત્પાદનનો નથી. અત્યારે માત્ર પરીક્ષણો થશે. જોકે, કંપનીની યોજના છે કે આ પ્રોજેક્ટ બે દશકા સુધી ચાલશે. દર વર્ષે ત્રણ હજાર પ્લાઝ્મા શોટ લેવાનો ટાર્ગેટ છે. એનો અર્થ એ કે દરરોજ દસથી ૧૨ વખત પ્લાઝ્મા તૈયાર કરાશે. તેનાથી દેશમાં આર્ટિફિશિયલ સૂર્ય બનાવવાનો અને ફ્યૂઝન રિએક્ટરના નિર્માણનો માર્ગ મોકળો થશે. કંપનીના કહેવા પ્રમાણે ૨૦૨૭માં એક મેગ્નેટ રિએક્ટર બનાવી લેવાશે. તે પછી ૨૦૩૦ સુધીમાં ધરતી પર સૂર્ય હોય તે દિશામાં કામ શરૂ થશે. એટલે કે નેટ એનર્જી ગેઈન રિએક્ટર બનાવાશે. નેટ એનર્જી ગેઈન રિએક્ટર એટલે ફ્યૂઝનથી મળતી ઉર્જા એ બનાવવા પાછળ ખર્ચાયેલી ઉર્જાથી વધારે હોય, તો વધેલી ઉર્જાનો ઉપયોગ અન્ય મશીનો ચલાવવામાં થઈ શકે. આ એક રીતે ઉર્જાનું રોકાણ કર્યા પછી ઉર્જાના સ્વરૂપમાં નફો મેળવવા જેવું કામ છે.

સંસદ માર્ચ વખતે ૧૭ મેટ્રો સ્ટેશન બંધ કરવા મુદ્દે સુપ્રીમ નારાજ

સીજેપીના દેખાવોમાં વિદ્યાર્થીઓ પર હિંસા કરનારા ખુલ્લેઆમ ફરી રહ્યા છે : સુપ્રીમ

ઉત્તર પ્રદેશ પોલીસને આવા તત્વો સામે તુરંત પગલાં લેવા અને પીડિત પરિવારને સુરક્ષા આપવા સુપ્રીમનો નિર્દેશ

નવી દિલ્હી,

જંતર-મંતર પર કોકરોચ જનતા પાર્ટી (સીજેપી)ના દેખાવો સમયે વિદ્યાર્થીઓ પર હિંસા કરનારા ખુલ્લેઆમ ફરી રહ્યા છે. વિરોધ પ્રદર્શનમાં જોડાયેલા સગીરોને ડરાવવા, ધમકાવવામાં આવી રહ્યા હોવાના આરોપોને હળવાશથી લઈ શકાય નહીં તેમ સુપ્રીમ કોર્ટે જણાવ્યું હતું. આ સાથે સીજેપીના દેખાવો સમયે ૧૭ મેટ્રો સ્ટેશનો બંધ રાખવા મુદ્દે પણ સુપ્રીમ કોર્ટે આકરું વલણ અપનાવ્યું હતું.સીજેપીના દેખાવોમાં જોડાયેલી ૧૪ વર્ષની સગીરાએ તેને ડરાવવા-ધમકાવવામાં આવી હોવાના તથા તેના ઘરે પથ્થરો ફેંકાયા હોવાના આક્ષેપો કરતા સુપ્રીમ કોર્ટમાં અરજી કરી હતી. આ અરજીની સુનાવણી કરતા મુખ્ય ન્યાયાધીશના અધ્યક્ષપદે બનેલી બેન્ચે કહ્યું કે, સગીરાને ડરાવવા-ધમકાવવાના આરોપોને હળવાશથી લઈ શકાય નહીં.ન્યાયાધીશો જોયમાલ્યા બાગચી અને વી. મોહનાને સમાવતી બેન્ચે એ બાબત પર ભાર મૂક્યો કે કોઈપણ વ્યક્તિને ગુનાઈત કાર્યવાહી આગળ વધતી રોકવા માટે પીડિત અથવા તેના પરિવારને ડરાવવા-ધમકાવવાની મંજૂરી આપી શકાય નહીં. આ સાથે બેન્ચે ઉત્તર પ્રદેશ અને દિલ્હી પાસે એફઆઈઆર, સગીરા અને તેના પરિવારની સુરક્ષાની વ્યવસ્થા તથા મારપીટ અને ડરાવવા-ધમકાવવાના કેસમાં કથિત રીતે સંડોવાયેલા લોકો વિરુદ્ધ કરાયેલી કાર્યવાહી અંગે મૌખિકરૂપે સ્ટેટસ રિપોર્ટ માગ્યો હતો. બેન્ચે સગીરાની એફઆઈઆર પર યોગ્ય કાર્યવાહી થાય અને તેને પર્યાપ્ત સુરક્ષા અપાય તે બાબત સુનિશ્ચિત કરવા સોલિસિટર જનરલ તુષાર મહેતાને કહ્યું હતું.સીજેપીના દેખાવો સંબંધિત કેસોની સુનાવણી સમયે સુપ્રીમ કોર્ટ સામે એક વકીલે ૧૪ વર્ષની એક સગીરાનો ઉલ્લેખ કરી ચિંતા વ્યક્ત કરી હતી. તેમણે કહ્યું કે, તાજેતરમાં જ એક વ્યક્તિએ સોશિયલ મીડિયા પર વીડિયો પોસ્ટ કરી ડંફાસ મારી હતી કે તેણે સીજેપીના દેખાવોમાં ભાગ લેનારી સગીરાના પિતા પર હુમલો કર્યો હતો. આ વ્યક્તિ સામે પગલાં લેવાના બદલે પોલીસે સગીરા વિરુદ્ધ એફઆઈઆર નોંધી છે, જે કોર્ટના આદેશ વિરુદ્ધ છે.આ આરોપોને ગંભીરતાથી લેતા સીજેઆઈએ કહ્યું કે, આવા અસામાજિક તત્વો વિદ્યાર્થીઓ વિરુદ્ધ હિંસા કરે અને તેઓ ખુલ્લેઆમ ફરતા હોય તથા વિદ્યાર્થીઓને ડરાવતા-ધમકાવતા હોય તો આ એક ગંભીર બાબત છે. ન્યાયાધીશ જોયમાલ્યા બાગચીએ કહ્યું કે, આવા તત્વો સામે તુરંત કાર્યવાહી કરવામાં આવે અને ઉત્તર પ્રદેશ પોલીસ પીડિત તથા તેના પરિવારને સંરક્ષણ આપે.

૨૦૨૬ ના અંતમાં 3 શક્તિશાળી વાવાઝોડાં ભારતને ઘમરોળશે

વૈજ્ઞાનિકોના મતે, ઓક્ટોબરથી ડિસેમ્બર વચ્ચે ઉત્તર હિન્દ મહાસાગરમાં ત્રણ શક્તિશાળી વાવાઝોડા ત્રાટકવાની સંભાવના છે

નવી દિલ્હી,

૨૦૨૬ના છેલ્લા ત્રણ મહિના દરિયાકાંઠાના વિસ્તારો માટે અત્યંત સંવેદનશીલ બની રહેવાની શક્યતા છે. ભારતીય અંતરિક્ષ અનુસંધાન સંસ્થા (ISRO) ના વિજ્ઞાનીઓએ ચેતવણી આપી છે કે ઓક્ટોબરથી ડિસેમ્બર વચ્ચે ઉત્તર હિન્દ મહાસાગર (North Indian Ocean) માં ત્રણ શક્તિશાળી ટ્રૉપિકલ સાયક્લોન (વાવાઝોડું) ત્રાટકવાની સંભાવના છે, જેની તાકાત છેલ્લા ૪૪ વર્ષના સરેરાશ કરતા ઘણી વધારે હોઈ શકે છે.

ઈસરોના રિપોર્ટ મુજબ, વર્ષ ૨૦૨૬ના પોસ્ટ-મોન્સૂન સિઝનમાં બનનારા આ ચક્રવાતોની કુલ તાકાત એટલે કે પાવર ડિસિપેશન ઈન્ડેક્સ (ઢૈ) આશરે ૧૩.૦૬ ટ ૧૦૬ નોટ્સહ્ન રહેવાનું અનુમાન છે. આ આંકડો છેલ્લા ૪૪ વર્ષના સરેરાશ આંકડા કરતા લગભગ ૮૩ ટકા વધારે છે. આ દર્શાવે છે કે આ વર્ષે વર્ષાઋતુ પછીના સમયગાળામાં દરિયામાં વાવાઝોડાની પ્રવૃત્તિ ખૂબ જ તીવ્ર રહેશે. આ વૈજ્ઞાનિક અનુમાન તૈયાર કરવા માટે દરિયા અને વાતાવરણના છેલ્લા ૪૦ વર્ષના જૂના ડેટાનું ઊંડાણપૂર્વક વિશ્લેષણ કરવામાં આવ્યું છે. જાન્યુઆરીથી ઓગસ્ટ સુધીના હવામાનના આંકડાઓને આધારે ઓક્ટોબરથી ડિસેમ્બર વચ્ચેની સ્થિતિનું આકલન કરવામાં આવ્યું છે. જોકે, આ રિપોર્ટ દ્વારા ચોક્કસ તારીખ કે વાવાઝોડાના લેન્ડફોલ (ક્યાં ટકરાશે) ચોક્કસ સ્થળ વિશે માહિતી મળતી નથી, પરંતુ સમગ્ર સિઝનની ગંભીરતાનો અંદાજ ચોક્કસ આવી જાય છે.

ટ્રક અને પિકઅપ વાનની ભયાનક ટક્કરથી ૮ના મોત

મહારાષ્ટ્રના ભંડારા જિલ્લામાં વહેલી સવારે નાગપુર-રાયપુર હાઈવે પર ભયાનક માર્ગ અકસ્માત સર્જાયો હતો

મુંબઈ,

મહારાષ્ટ્રના ભંડારા જિલ્લામાં શુક્રવારે વહેલી સવારે ગમખ્વાર માર્ગ અકસ્માત સર્જાયો હતો. નાગપુર-રાયપુર નેશનલ હાઈવે પર પિંપળગાંવ સડક નજીક ટ્રક અને પિકઅપ વાન વચ્ચે જોરદાર ટક્કર થઈ હતી. અકસ્માતમાં ત્રણ બાળકો સહિત કુલ ૮ લોકોનાં મોત થયા છે, જ્યારે ત્રણ લોકો ઈજાગ્રસ્ત થયા છે.મળતી માહિતી મુજબ, ભંડારા જિલ્લાના પિંપળગાંવ સડક ખાતે આવેલા ભાઉ ઢાબા નજીક આ અકસ્માત થયો હતો. નાગપુર-રાયપુર નેશનલ હાઈવે પર ટ્રક અને પિકઅપ વાન વચ્ચે ટક્કર એટલી ભયાનક હતી કે તેમાં ૮ લોકોનાં ઘટનાસ્થળે જ મોત થયા હતા.અકસ્માતમાં મૃત્યુ પામેલા લોકોમાં ત્રણ બાળકોનો પણ સમાવેશ થાય છે.

અકસ્માતની જાણ થતાં સ્થાનિક લોકો અને પોલીસ ઘટનાસ્થળે પહોંચી ગયા હતા. ત્યારબાદ બચાવ કામગીરી હાથ ધરવામાં આવી હતી. અકસ્માતમાં ઈજાગ્રસ્ત થયેલા ત્રણ લોકોને સારવાર માટે સાકોલી સબ-ડિસ્ટ્રિક્ટ હોસ્પિટલમાં ખસેડવામાં આવ્યા છે. ભંડારા પોલીસ અધિક્ષક નૂરુલ હસને અકસ્માતની પુષ્ટિ કરી છે. તેમણે જણાવ્યું હતું કે પિંપળગાંવ સડક નજીક નાગપુર-રાયપુર નેશનલ હાઈવે પર ટ્રક અને પિકઅપ વાન વચ્ચે અથડામણ થઈ હતી. જેમાં ત્રણ બાળકો સહિત ૮ લોકોનાં મોત થયા છે. ત્રણ ઈજાગ્રસ્તોને સાકોલી સબ-ડિસ્ટ્રિક્ટ હોસ્પિટલમાં સારવાર માટે ખસેડવામાં આવ્યા છે.

પોલીસ દ્વારા અકસ્માત બાદ બચાવ કામગીરી હાથ ધરવામાં આવી હતી. અકસ્માત કેવી રીતે અને કયા સંજોગોમાં સર્જાયો તે અંગે હજુ સુધી સત્તાવાર માહિતી સામે આવી નથી. ઘટનાને લઈને પોલીસ દ્વારા તપાસ કરવામાં આવી રહી છે. અકસ્માત અંગેની વધુ વિગતોની રાહ જોવાઈ રહી છે.

બેંકમાં ઘૂસી કર્મચારીઓની આંખમાં મરચું છાંટી લાખોની લૂંટ

ઘટનાની જાણ થતાં જ પોલીસ સુપર એક્ટિવ થઈ ગઈ હતી : પોલીસે અડધા જ કલાકમાં આરોપીને ઝડપી પાડ્યો

નાગપુર,

વેબસિરીઝ અને ફિલ્મોમાં તો આપણે બેંકોમાં ધોળા દિવસે લૂંટ થતાં જોઈ છે. પણ મહારાષ્ટ્રના નાગપુરમાં ફિલ્મને પણ ટક્કર મારે એવી ઘટના બની છે. જ્યાં સક્કરદરા વિસ્તારમાં આવેલી જીૈં બેંકની બ્રાન્ચમાં એક શખ્સ બેંકમાં ઘૂસ્યો હતો, તેણે બેંક કર્મચારીઓની આંખામાં લાલ મરચું પાઉડર નાખીને ૪ લાખ રૂપિયા હડપ કરી લીધા હતા અને બેંકમાંથી ફરાર થઈ ગયો હતો.

જોકે, આ ઘટનાની જાણ થતાં જ પોલીસ સુપર એક્ટિવ થઈ ગઈ હતી. પોલીસે અડધા જ કલાકમાં આરોપીને ઝડપી પાડ્યો હતો અને તેની પાસેથી લૂંટના રકમ પણ જપ્ત કરી હતી. હાલ પોલીસ દ્વારા આ મામલે વધુ તપાસ કરવામાં આવી રહી છે.

મળતી માહિતી મુજબ, નાગપુરના સક્કરદરા વિસ્તારમાં આવેલી સ્ટેટ બેંક ઓફ ઈન્ડિયાની બ્રાન્ચમાં ગઈકાલે ગુરુવારે દરરોજની જેમ કામકાજ ચાલી રહ્યું હતું. બેંકના કર્મચારીઓ પોત-પોતાના કામમાં વ્યસ્ત હતા, ત્યારે એક વ્યક્તિ સામાન્ય ગ્રાહકની જેમ બેંકમાં ઘૂસ્ય હતો. તે સીધો કેશ કાઉન્ટરની નજીક પહોંચ્યો હતો. જે બાદ તેણે કેશ કાઉન્ટર પર બેઠેલા બેંક કર્મચારી અને તેમની બાજુની કેબિનમાં બેઠેલા કર્મચારીની આંખમાં લાલ મરચું પાઉડર નાખ્યો હતો. આંખમાં અચાનક મરચું પડતા બેંક કર્મચારીઓ ચીસા-ચીસ કરવા લાગ્યા હતા.

આ ઘટનાને પગલે બેંકમાં ભારે અફરાતફરીનો માહોલ સર્જાયો હતો. બેંક કર્મચારીઓની આંખમાં લાલ મરચું પાઉડર નાખીને તે શખ્સ તાત્કાલિક કેશ કાઉન્ટરમાંથી ૪ લાખ રૂપિયા ઉઠાવીને ફરાર થઈ ગયો હતો. બેંક કર્મચારીઓ અને સુરક્ષા ગાર્ડે પોતાના જીવની પરવાહ કર્યા વગર હિંમત દાખવીને આરોપીનો પીછો કરવાનો પણ પ્રયાસ કર્યો હતો, પરંતુ ભીડ વધારે હોવાથી તેને ક્યાંક નાસી છૂટ્યો હતો. સમગ્ર ઘટનાના CCTV ફૂટેજ પણ સામે આવ્યા છે. બીજી બાજુ બેંકના અધિકારીએ સમગ્ર મામલે પોલીસને જાણ કરતા સક્કરદરા પોલીસની ટીમ ઘટના સ્થળે પહોંચી હતી. પોલીસે ઘટનાને ગંભીરતાથી લઈને નાક્કાબંધી કરવાના આદેશ આપ્યા હતા. પોલીસની ટીમોએ સીસીટીવી ફૂટેજ તપાસવાનું શરૂ કર્યું હતું. માત્ર ૩૦ મિનિટની અંદર પોલીસે આરોપીને ટ્રેસ કરીને દબોચી લીધો હતો. તપાસ દરમિયાન પોલીસે આરોપી પાસેથી બેંકમાંથી લૂંટવામાં આવેલા ૪ લાખ રૂપિયા પણ મળી આવ્યા હતા. હાલ આરોપીની ધરપકડ કરીને તેની પૂછપરછ કરવામાં આવી રહી છે.

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government on Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran both fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it...but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin that unification would happen eventually.

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAI's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon", while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

ENERGY PRICES COULD GO UP

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

REUTERS
Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran both fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments came weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin that unification would happen eventually. REUTERS

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to guide development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow down the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon," while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

MORE TENSION

- Baghdad dismisses military commander after confirming pipeline attack originated from Iraq
- Saudis reported to ask Trump for military help to combat Houthi advance
- Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday
- Monday talks not expected to result in Hormuz deal

Satellite image shows damage to the East-West pipeline facility in the Hejaz Region, Saudi Arabia REUTERS

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran fired on each other's tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin that unification would happen eventually.

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyberoperations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluations to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon", while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open up a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

MORE TENSION

- Baghdad dismisses military commander after confirming pipeline attack originated from Iraq
- Saudis reported to ask Trump for military help to combat Houthi advance
- Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday
- Monday talks not expected to result in Hormuz deal

Satellite image shows damage to the East-West pipeline facility in the Hejaz Region, Saudi Arabia REUTERS

REUTERS
Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran have both fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin that unification would happen eventually. Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party review inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon", while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

ENERGY PRICES COULD GO UP

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

REUTERS
Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin that unification would happen eventually.

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAI's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon," while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

REUTERS
Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin that unification would happen eventually.

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyberoperations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon," while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

REUTERS
Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran traded fire over tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin that unification would happen eventually. Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon," while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement "a total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran both fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin that unification would happen eventually.

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon", while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

REUTERS
Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran both fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Trump: Would 'love' to see united Ireland

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin that Dublin unification would happen eventually.

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

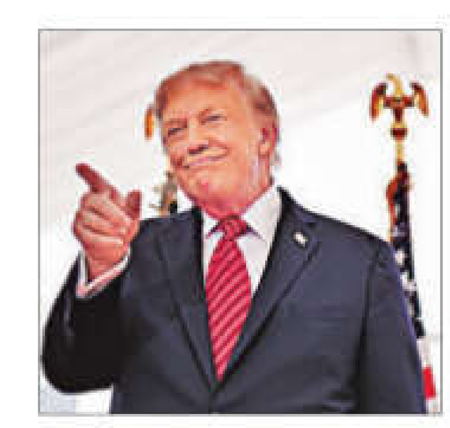
US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon," while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12



PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement "a total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.

Saudi Arabia shuts down key oil pipeline after Iraq drone attack

Houthis tighten their grip on Red Sea shipping

REUTERS
Aden/Dubai, September 12

SAUDI ARABIA HAS shut down its East-West pipeline, after the vital oil conduit came under aerial attack in the widening Middle East war, threatening to send energy prices even higher.

The world's largest crude oil exporter said it temporarily closed the pipeline as a precaution after a drone attack that both Baghdad and Riyadh said had originated in Iraq, where Iranian-backed militias operate. Attacks were launched from Iraqi territory, said Iraq's government Saturday, pledging to probe further.

US President Donald Trump appeared to blame Iran for the attack that halted the pipeline. Iraq closed two key border crossings with Iran, halting all passenger and commercial traffic until further notice, Iran's state-run media reported Saturday.

The 1,200-km (745-mile) pipeline running across the Arabian Peninsula has served as the main route out for global supplies of Middle East oil for the past six months while the Strait of Hormuz has been largely shut by war. It has been moving 4 million to 5 million barrels per day, amounting to 4% to 5% of global supply, sparing Saudi Arabia the brunt of the disruption that has crippled other Gulf oil and gas exporters. Satellite images showed black smoke rising from an area of the pipeline south of Medina. The attack resulted in some injuries and damage that was being assessed, the Saudi Foreign Ministry said without detailing the impact on exports.

Oil prices shot up over the past week and the retail price of diesel in the US surged past a record $6 a gallon, as the United States and Iran both fired on tankers and the Iran-aligned Houthis in Yemen advanced along the Red Sea, potentially extending disruption to another major oil route.

Washington now faces a dilemma over whether to help the Saudis fight the Houthis, risking further expansion of the war. Saudi Arabia's de facto ruler, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, phoned Trump and asked for US military help fighting the Houthis, three sources told Reuters.

They said the prince was told that Washington would not intervene directly for now but would help with intelligence. Trump confirmed on Saturday that he had spoken to the crown prince, and said the Houthis had also phoned his administration and asked Washington not to become directly involved in the conflict.

Four Yemeni government sources told Reuters that the Houthis had seized the strategic island of Perim on Friday in the middle of the Bab el-Mandeb Strait — the "Gate of Tears" at the mouth of the Red Sea.

In a post on X on Saturday, Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian parliament's national security committee, said: "As long as the American side does not accept all of Iran's conditions, dialogue and negotiation are of no use." Iran's foreign ministry announced on Friday that Iran would be attending a meeting with Gulf Arab states in Oman on Monday, at which the future of the Strait of Hormuz would be discussed. But a senior Iranian official, speaking to Reuters on condition of anonymity on Saturday, played down the chances of a breakthrough, saying the meeting, called at Oman's initiative, was intended to discuss issues including the strait but was not expected to yield a signed agreement.

Oman has not officially announced the meeting, and other Gulf countries have remained silent. Bahrain said on Saturday it would not attend meetings with Iran.

Iran wants its control of the Strait of Hormuz to be recognised, allowing it to collect fees from ships that use it, which Washington rejects.

Dublin, September 12

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Saturday he would "love" to see Ireland unify with British-run Northern Ireland, remarks made during a visit to Dublin that will be unwelcome in London and among unionists in Northern Ireland.

Trump's comments come weeks after new British Prime Minister Andy Burnham said a referendum on Northern Ireland leaving the United Kingdom was "off the table".

"Well, I don't want to cause any problems, but I will tell you, I'd love to see it unified," Trump told reporters sitting next to Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin after the pair met in Dublin. "It's going to happen eventually... I think it would be a fantastic thing."

"Now the UK will have something to say about it... but I think it would be a great thing," he added. Under the terms of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, a referendum on leaving the UK can be held only at the discretion of the British government. The accord ended three decades of violence between Irish nationalists seeking a united Ireland and unionists who wanted Northern Ireland to remain part of the UK.

While polls show a comfortable majority in Northern Ireland favour remaining in the UK, the gap has narrowed slightly since Britain's departure from the European Union pushed unity higher up the political agenda.

Trump is making the 48-hour trip as his Republican Party campaigns to retain its majorities in both chambers of the US Congress. Trump also met Irish President Catherine Connolly, who was elected head of state last year. When Trump last visited Ireland as president in 2019, Connolly, an outspoken politician with far-left foreign policy views, protested outside Shannon Airport in western Ireland. Some supporters had urged her to speak out against US military actions around the world and defend Ireland's neutrality. Anti-war and anti-Trump protests are planned in Dublin later on Saturday and in western Ireland near the Trump International Golf Links in Doonbeg. One protester held a Palestine flag over a fence near the Irish president's residence.

UK PM office: Position on Irish unity unchanged

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Andy Burnham's position on Irish unification remains unchanged, a spokesperson for his office said on Saturday, following comments by US President that he would "love" to see a united Ireland.

Responding to questions from lawmakers in parliament about a possible border poll in Northern Ireland, Burnham said: "I am not aware that there is majority public support for another referendum, and until that changes, there will not be one." A spokesperson for Burnham's office said on Saturday the prime minister's remarks still stood after Trump told reporters after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin that unification would happen eventually.

Anthropic CEO urges AI firms to slow model development

Anthropic CEO Dario Amodei says technology brings serious risks, including loss of control over AI systems, cyberattacks

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC CEO DARIO Amodei called on AI companies to moderate the rate at which they advance model capabilities amid mounting fears of misuse of artificial intelligence, outlining a three-step framework intended to pace development and create more time to manage its risks.

"We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast, and we must make wise use of the time we gain," Amodei said in an essay shared on X. His essay comes after Anthropic released a threat intelligence report on Thursday detailing how several actors had used its Claude AI models for activities ranging from weapons development and cyber operations to surveillance and fraud. Alarm about the potential harm from AI grew this week when Anthropic researcher Jacob Coxon resigned, stating that the "people building AI earnestly believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade."

Amodei clarified that he was not calling for halting model training or technical progress, but ensuring that companies take adequate time to align and safeguard their models, and for third-party evaluators to confirm these steps. As part of his proposed three-step framework, Amodei said Anthropic would install permanent third-party reviewers inside frontier AI companies, with access to relevant tools and internal risk-assessment processes.

Amodei said AI companies should voluntarily work together to set standards as growing numbers of US lawmakers are calling for new rules to govern AI systems.

OpenAi's Sam Altman and Tesla's Elon Musk endorsed Amodei's suggestion to slow pace of AI development.

US-Canada trade deal likely soon, says Trump

REUTERS
Dublin, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said on Saturday that Canada was keen to reach a trade deal with the United States and that an agreement could come "fairly soon", while repeating complaints that Canada had treated US farmers unfairly and should remove tariffs. "Canada wants to make a deal very badly," Trump said while answering questions from media after a meeting with Irish Prime Minister Micheal Martin in Dublin.

Trump says he would allow China to build cars in US

REUTERS
Washington, September 12

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he would not oppose Chinese automakers building cars in the United States despite widespread opposition from US lawmakers and car companies.

"If China wanted to come in and open a plant to build their cars here, I'd be okay with that," Trump said in an interview on the Fox News programme The Ingraham Angle. "Japan does it, but they hire our people. The big thing is they hire our people," he said. He added that he does not want Chinese automakers to build cars in Mexico and ship them to the United States. "I'm not knocking Chinese cars," Trump said.

US automakers have urged Trump, who is due to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Washington in two weeks, not to agree to allow Chinese automakers access to the US market. On Wednesday, US Senator Elissa Slotkin, a Michigan Democrat, said there were "rumours that Trump is planning to allow Chinese cars to be sold in the US, as part of a larger deal he's putting together. That would be a strategic mistake."

Trump called Slotkin's statement a "total phony rumour" and said he had kept Chinese vehicles out of the United States. A regulation imposed by former President Joe Biden's administration in early 2025 effectively bans all Chinese automakers from selling or building passenger vehicles in the US.

Nvidia in talks to invest $10 bn in Anthropic's IPO

REUTERS
September 12

ANTHROPIC IS IN talks to bring Nvidia as an anchor investor into what could be the largest IPO in history, two people familiar with the matter told Reuters. Anthropic is seeking to raise as much as $100 billion that could value the artificial intelligence startup at around $2 trillion, the people said. Nvidia is considering investing up to $10 billion in the IPO, one of the sources added.

The plans remain under discussion and could change, they cautioned, requesting anonymity because the discussions are confidential.

Nvidia's potential involvement in the IPO, which has not previously been reported, would give Anthropic an early strategic backer for the outsized offering, while further deepening ties between the chipmaker and one of its major customers. Bringing a deep-pocketed anchor investor like Nvidia onboard could boost investor confidence in the listing, which is shaping up to be a major test of public-market appetite for the enormous valuations and capital requirements of frontier AI labs.
