Mahindra Satyam and TechMatrix announce ASEAN Partnership

Both the companies come together to offer Cloud based Healthcare solutions

Singapore & Tokyo – January 15, 2013– Mahindra Satyam, a leading global consulting and IT services provider, today announced that it has signed a partnership agreement with TechMatrix Corporation, Japan. The partnership covering ASEAN region will jointly address strategic growth areas in the healthcare market and provide cloud-based healthcare solutions.

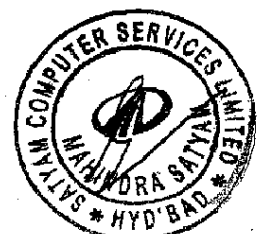

TechMatrix subsidiary, ICHIGO LLC, will provide its Teleradiology network infrastructure product line and NOBORI, its Cloud service for Medical and Healthcare information. Mahindra Satyam in-turn will host the cloud and mobile-based services in Singapore and Malaysia while providing direct sales and IT services to clients throughout ASEAN region.

As part of this partnership, Mahindra Satyam and TechMatrix will come together to invest in Sales & Marketing resources as-well-as Software & Hardware enhancement in this unique technology. This unique setup has a combination of Cloud based central servers and a proprietary set-top-box like appliance, which makes following capabilities / functionalities available.

- Maximum, multi-level security for Teleradiology
- Exceptionally fast performance
- Vendor-neutral medical image storage, management and retrieval

Commenting on this development Ram Ramachandran, Vice President and Business Head, ASEAN, Mahindra Satyam, said "The Ichigo Teleradiology network is ranked #1 in Japan and TechMatrix has been providing innovative healthcare solutions since 1998. Together we hold the vision that our combined experience and expertise can bring transformational solutions to healthcare within ASEAN."

As a first step in this partnership, Mahindra Satyam has installed "Ichigo Teleradiology iComServer" in its Singapore data center and launched activities to support initial installations. As a second step in 2013, Mahindra Satyam and TechMatrix will jointly launch the NOBORI Cloud healthcare services, including Picture Archiving and Communications System (PACS), a vendor-neutral solution for medical image storage, management and retrieval.

Takashi Yuri, CEO, TechMatrix said, "In addition to the technological leadership and innovation that Mahindra Satyam has in telemedicine, healthcare and cloud services, we see natural synergies between our two organizations which we believe are critical to build a lasting partnership."

Speaking about the partnership, Stephen Maysonave, Founder, Maysonave International said, "The companies complement each other extremely well. Techmatrix has truly innovative solutions for Teleradiology and Cloud PACS. Mahindra Satyam has deep skills in telecommunications, including Mobile, Cloud data centers and over 3,000 IT professionals in ASEAN. A great partnership should result."

Through this partnership, TechMatrix and Mahindra Satyam will focus on:

- Delivering state-of-the-art healthcare solutions to public and private hospitals and image scanning centers
- Reducing healthcare costs while improving the quality of services
- Growing TechMatrix and Mahindra Satyam's revenues by addressing strategic growth areas in healthcare which leverage cloud-based and mobile technology
