Airtel, Zee Entertainment in content pact for ZEE5

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, August 19

ZEE ENTERTAINMENT ENTERPRISES (ZEEL) and Bharti Airtel on Sunday announced a strategic content alliance for the former's video streaming platform ZEE5. As part of the deal, ZEEL, over the next three years, will create exclusive content for Airtel TV app. Airtel subscribers will also have access to ZEE5's premium content via its video OTT app.

"In addition to creation of content for Airtel, the alliance will give us access to data about viewership. A tie-up with telecom operator is important as it will allow me to take my content to more audience. We are looking to tie up with all telecom operators depending on the nature of the deal," Punit Goenka, MD and CEO of ZEEL, said.

ZEE5 claims to have an existing catalogue of more than 10,000 shows and movies and over 375 live TV channels. Moreover, the company focuses on curating regional content. The firms will jointly market the product.

"In Airtel TV, we have built a solid digital platform to curate top content from India and across the world and offer it to customers at one place," Gopal Vittal, MD and CEO, India and South Asia, Bharti Airtel, said.

ONGC repays a third of loan taken to buy HPCL

ONGC WILL NOT sell its stake in IOC and GAIL soon as it has used internal resources to repay close to a third of the ₹24,881-crore loan it had taken to buy HPCL, sources said. ONGC had received the nod to sell its 13.77% stake in IOC and 4.86% stake in GAIL to help fund the ₹36,915-crore acquisition of HPCL. "We are generating enough resources thanks to a rebound in oil prices. We used these to bring down borrowing for HPCL acquisition to ₹20,000-21,000 crore in Q1 and are repaying another ₹3,000-4,000 crore. Effectively, we have repaid ₹7,800 crore," he said.

Senior executives at Jet exploring career options

MANISHA SINGHAL
Mumbai August 19

A CLUTCH OF senior executives at the troubled Jet Airways are looking for better options, industry sources told FE.

Top executives at the company have agreed for a 25% salary cut earlier this month as a mark of their contribution towards cost rationalisation. However, pilots rejected a proposal by the company for a 15% pay cut.

"A large number of Jet executives are looking out at the vice-president and above level," said an industry source.

The source added that at least 25-30% of the 25 VPs at the airline are searching for opportunities outside and are in touch with hiring firms. A very senior executive currently involved in the financial restructuring of Jet is among those looking for options.

"The situation at the airline is volatile and people want to secure a job before the situation worsens," the source said.

A senior executive at one of the top hiring firms said the sense and mood among other high-level executives are "to carry on with financial restructuring that the company has undertaken at a war footing, but at the same time look for good opportunities".

In response to an FE query on the subject, a Jet Airways spokesperson said, "Your information is completely untrue and incorrect. Jet Airways has always been and continues to be an employer of choice. Contrary to certain speculative media reports, the airline continues to hire resources in line with its strategy. In the last six months alone, Jet hired more than 1,400 people, including leadership members for key roles to support its growth ambitions."
