Kishor meets Uddhav, Sena says ‘courtesy call’

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, FEBRUARY 5

ELECTION STRATEGIST-TURNED-POLITICIAN Prashant Kishor's visit to Shiv Sena president Uddhav Thackeray's residence on Tuesday has triggered much speculation, even as the Lok Sabha polls are around the corner.

Sena leaders have termed the visit by Kishor — a JD(U) vice president — as a “courtesy meeting” and said that he was introduced by Uddhav Thackeray as an “election strategist”. However, the JD(U) has said that the visit was to further strengthen the BJP-led NDA.

The meeting was attended by party MPs, senior Sena leaders and a few Yuva sainiks.

A Sena MP said the meeting had been called to discuss election preparedness ahead of the polls.

“The party president also told us to raise issues that concern the people,” the MP added.

Another Sena leader said Kishor could help the party with “new perspectives” in the election campaign.

According to this leader, who wished to remain unnamed, Kishor made a brief speech asking the Sena to focus on its strengths to expand its base.

Sena leaders were insistent Kishor's visit was in his professional capacity as a political consultant and not as the JD(U) vice-president.

ASSAM 7 held for attack on district BJP chief

Guwahati: Police Tuesday arrested one of the prime accused in the public thrashing of BJP's Tinsukia district chief Lakshwar Moran last month, taking the total number of arrests in the case to seven. Moran was injured after being thrashed by protesters while he was on his way to attend an event on Citizenship (Amendment) Bill. ENS

CITIZENSHIP BILL ROW

Hiren Gohain, Akhil Gogoi get pre-arrest bail

Guwahati: The Gauhati High Court on Wednesday granted absolute pre-arrest bail to public intellectual Dr Hiren Gohain and activist Akhil Gogoi, who were last month slapped with sedition cases for alleged secessionist comments during a public rally against the Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, 2016. In January, Gohain, Gogoi, and journalist Manjit Mahanta were booked on charges of sedition. Mahanta had obtained an absolute pre-arrest bail soon after the case was filed.

Wednesday's order said the speeches made by them were produced in a pen drive and played before the court. The order by Justice Hitesh Kumar Sarma said, "It does not appear to this Court that any such statement was made by the petitioner Nos 1 and 3 in their speeches, in the meeting involved in this case, requiring their custodial interrogation." Govt notice to 48 Gujarat grant-in-aid colleges for not participating at placement camp

RITU SHARMA
AHMEDABAD, FEBRUARY 14

THE STATE education department served notices to 48 grant-in-aid colleges for failing to participate in the ongoing placement camp for students of technical and non-technical colleges. The first ever camp, organised by the state government, started on January 28 and will culminate on February 23. The 100 "inactive" colleges were given various options like joining in late or letting the students sit only for interviews. However, 48 colleges failed to participate and were asked to provide reasons for their non-participation.

"After these colleges, all of which are grant-in-aid, were identified, they were served notices for last week. There was no compulsion but the management of these institutes understand that the placement camp is for their students only," said principal secretary education Anju Sharma. Of the 48 colleges that were issued notices, 22 have filed their replies and cited lack of communication, shortage of staff and non-functional internet as the reason for non-participation.

Premal Yagnik, the principal in-charge of PT Arts college in Paldi, which was among the colleges issued the notice, said, "There are only two faculty members in the entire college with 400 students. I am also holding the charge of principal. Along with the shortage of manpower, since the process was online we do not have anyone in the supporting staff who can deal with computers."

The principal of another college said, "We did not receive the form so we did not know how and where to submit it. The BSNL internet connection of our college was down for almost a week and despite submitting complaints, it was not repaired. Till date, we have not received the form."

Meanwhile, the principal of RJ Tibrewal Commerce College, Hiten Parikh, said, "We already have a very organised system for placements in the college since we have brilliant students who do not want to take up the call centre jobs. Companies like TCS are picking students from our college, so we do not need to go to local and small companies."

"Yes, we did not attend the meetings held by the department but later nearly 36 students from our college sat for interviews at the camp," he added.

According to sources in the education department, preparations for the camp began in December, with a series of meetings between the education department and colleges. The faculty members were asked to visit industries to get an estimate number of vacancies.

Placement co-ordinators at the colleges had either themselves contacted the companies or deputed other members of the staff for it.

"But with a large number of disinterested colleges, the department at the last moment even allowed these institutes to only send their students to sit in the interviews even without registration," an official said.

The Indian Express had earlier reported that less than 50 per cent students had registered for the placement camps. Out of 1.25 lakh students from 514 colleges set to graduate in June this year, only 60,000 had expressed willingness to sit for the interviews. One last camp is scheduled to be held in Mehsana on February 19.

Hearings for NRC claims, objections to begin today

ABHISHEK SAHA
GUWAHATI, FEBRUARY 14

HEARINGS FOR the claims and objection round, in which over 36 lakh people will try to prove their case for inclusion in the National Register of Citizens (NRC), will begin on Friday, an NRC official said.

The first round of hearings is scheduled to take place from February 15 to 28 at 1,436 venues.

Initially, 2,806 officials will be deputed for the hearings, and the number of personnel will increase in the subsequent rounds from March 1, the official said.

The process can go on till the first week of June, officials said.

People are being informed of the date, time and venue of the hearings through a notice, and they are required to bring the original copies of all the submitted documents.
