YouTube, and Snapchat — citing hate speech, fake news, and online fraud. But for thousands of demonstrators, the ban symbolises a broader crackdown on free speech and the government's refusal to tackle rampant corruption.

On Monday, thousands marched from Maitighar Mandala to New Baneshwor, breaching a restricted zone and entering the Parliament premises. Police opened fire after tear gas and water cannons failed to disperse the crowds. Witnesses alleged that security forces were firing "above the knee" and targeting demonstrators indiscriminately.

"We were planning a peaceful protest, but the police opened fire without warning. One of my friends was shot in the head," said a young protester. Another described how a companion was struck by bullets while standing on the road as gunfire echoed near Parliament.

'Trade must be fair &...

At the same time, it is imperative that economic practices are fair, transparent and to everyone's benefit," Jaishankar said. "When there are multiple disruptions, our objective should be to proof it against such shocks. That means creating more resilient, reliable, redundant and shorter supply chains," he said. Jaishankar said the world requires "constructive and cooperative" approaches to promote trade that is sustainable. "Increasing barriers and complicating transactions will not help. Neither would the linking of trade measures to non-trade matters," he said. The external affairs minister said the BRICS itself can set an example by reviewing trade flows among its member states.

Bhopal tense as stones...

The situation quickly drew the attention of senior police officers, who rushed to the spot to bring the situation under control.

A heavy police force from three nearby police stations was deployed to prevent any escalation. Authorities also appealed for peace and urged people not to fall for rumours or provocative messages.

Gautam Nagar police station in-charge Mahendra Singh Thakur said no fresh incident of violence was reported. If any complaint is received, strict action will be taken after investigation, he said, adding that over a dozen police personnel are stationed in the area and surveillance has been increased. The atmosphere in the area remains tense, but under control.

On April 30, Shashindra Chauhan, Commandant of 32nd SAF, Ujjain, was also promoted to DIG but was not given a new posting.

SC nod to Aadhaar as...

Bagchi said Aadhaar will be the twelfth document, in addition to the eleven already listed by the EC. It clarified that Aadhaar is only proof of identity and residence, not citizenship, and authorised officials to verify the authenticity and genuineness of any Aadhaar card submitted, Live Law and Bar & Bench reported. The order extends an earlier directive that had applied only to the 65 lakh names proposed to be deleted from the voters' list. The SC noted that the EC must issue instructions "during the course of the day" to ensure Aadhaar's acceptance at the ground level.

Zelenskyy backs...

"I think the idea to put tariffs on the countries who continue to make deals with Russia... I think this is right idea," Zelenskyy told ABC News to queries whether he thought the plan to put sanctions backfired when he saw pictures of PM Modi, Russia's Putin and China's Xi in Tianjin. In a series of posts on X, Zelenskyy said that the statements by state leaders and institutions must be backed by strong actions such as "sanctions against Russia and individuals connected with Russia", which he suggested through tariffs and trade restrictions with Russia.

'Pay ₹ 25L to convict for...

Additional Advocate General (AAG) Nachiketa Joshi said to the Free Press, "The SC has ordered the MP government to pay Rs 25 lakh to Sohan Singh, who spent 4.7 years more in jail than his sentence. It is a matter of the Sagar district, where he was a rape convict. The trial court had awarded him life imprisonment, but the HC reduced it to seven years."

WATER WOES | The silt in the damaged houses of villagers has made it difficult for people to enter their own homes

Struck between relief camps, ruined homes

Rajesh Moudgil & Agencies
NEW DELHI / CHANDIGARH

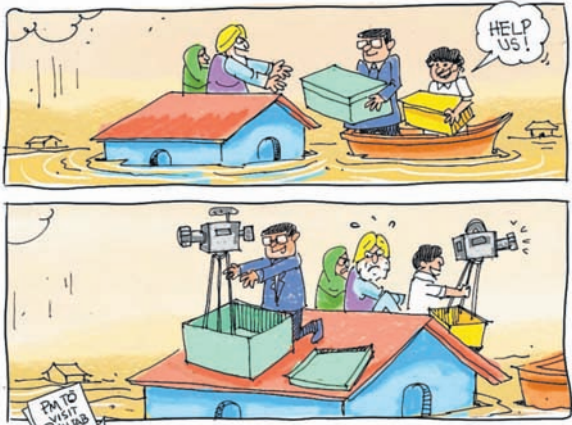

Even as the Yamuna River recedes from its highest level this year, thousands of people who were displaced by the recent floods remain in temporary relief camps. For them, the biggest obstacle to returning home is no longer the water itself, but the immense task of clearing out layers of silt and mud that have filled their homes.

"There is a lot of mud in our home. We need to remove all of it first and then again leave the house empty for some days to let it dry. Only then can we move back," said 47-year-old Vinod, a daily wage laborer from Ghat number 28. He has been living in a relief camp with his wife and six children for over a month.

The family's displacement has impacted the children's education, as they have been unable to attend school and college. "Our children help manage and keep our belongings safe in the relief camps while I and my wife go out to work or clean the mud," Vinod explained. "They will be able to resume their studies only after we shift back to our home."

This sentiment was echoed by others. Neelam Devi, 45, from Ghat number 27, described the cleaning as "hours of tiresome work," adding that many don't have the money to hire help. "Once mud is out, we still need house to dry to enter the house."

Meanwhile, Yamuna River's water level has been dropping steadily. On Monday, it fell to 205.22 meters at Old Railway Bridge, just below the danger mark of 205.33 meters.

Punjab flood toll jumps to 51

Punjab's flood crisis is escalating, with recent data showing an increase in both fatalities and crop damage. According to Revenue Minister Hardeep Singh Mundian, 51 people have died, and over 387,000 individuals across 15 districts have been impacted. The floods have destroyed over 1.84 lakh hectares of crops, with assessments of house and livestock damage ongoing. So far, 23,015 people have been safely evacuated, and 123 relief camps are now housing 5,416 residents. Rescue and relief efforts are in full swing, with Army, BSF, and NDRF providing full support to deliver essential supplies.

AAP min seeks ₹20K cr relief package ahead of PM's visit

Punjab Cabinet Minister and Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) state president Aman Arora has appealed to Prime Minister Narendra Modi for a ₹20,000 crore relief package for flood-ravaged Punjab. Ahead of the Prime Minister's scheduled visit on Tuesday, Arora urged him to provide substantial aid rather than a "flood tourism" photo opportunity, emphasising Punjab's status as an integral part of India. Arora also demanded the immediate release of ₹60,000 crore in stalled funds, which includes ₹50,000 crore in GST revenue losses and ₹8,000 crore withheld in Rural Development and Market Development Funds. The minister highlighted the extensive damage caused by the floods, including the submersion of over 4.5 lakh acres of farmland, the loss of over 3 lakh livestock, and hundreds of damaged homes. He stressed that a special relief package is crucial to support the state's economy, given its vital contributions to the nation's food security.

12 killed in house collapses

The state has recorded 12 fatalities from house collapses in districts including Fatehabad, Bhiwani, and Kurukshetra, with an ex-gratia of ₹4 lakh released to families of each deceased. To support those affected, the Haryana government has launched the 'e-Kshatipurti portal', allowing residents to submit claims for damages. So far, over 250,000 farmers have registered affected land on the portal. Additionally, the government has set aside a ₹3.26 crore reserve fund for immediate relief, including food, shelter, and fodder for animals. Compensation of up to ₹15,000 per acre is also being provided for damaged crops. Saini has urged government officials, employees, and industries to contribute to the Chief Minister's Relief Fund. He also announced that all cabinet ministers, MLAs, and supporting Independents will donate one month's salary to aid the flood-hit. Saini also mentioned about Haryana's help to neighbouring flood-hit states.

J&K's lone AAP MLA Malik detained under PSA

PTI JAMMU

Jammu and Kashmir AAP chief and MLA Mehraj Malik was on Monday detained under the stringent Public Safety Act (PSA) for allegedly disturbing public order in Doda district, officials said.

This is for the first time that a sitting MLA has been taken into custody under the PSA, an administrative law that allows detention without charge or trial for up to two years in some cases. Earlier during the day, the 37-year-old AAP MLA was detained by police at Dak Bungalow while he was planning to visit flood-hit areas of his constituency, the officials said.

He was later shifted to Baderwah district jail under the PSA on the orders of the Deputy Commissioner of Doda, Harvinder Singh, after police prepared a dossier against him, they said.

The action against Malik, who has often courted controversies with his statements, comes amid a massive protest by government employees who came out in support of the deputy commissioner after Malik used a social media platform to launch a disparaging campaign against him.

The protesting employees accused the MLA of "habitually" hurling abuses at senior government officers, including doctors, and provoking youths against the official machinery.

In a statement, the protesting employees lauded the deputy commissioner for his "exceptional service, integrity and dedication to public welfare", and said his compassionate approach has made him a "beacon of hope" for the residents of Doda in general and the flood-affected population in particular.

They condemned the use of "abusive language and baseless allegations" against the officer as "unfortunate, deplorable and unacceptable" and slammed the "uncivilised and irresponsible" behaviour of the legislator.

The officials said dozens of cases and complaints are registered against Malik for his "uncultured" behaviour and fights with government officials in the hill district over the past one year.

Several other close associates of the AAP leader are also being detained under PSA, while additional deployment has been made in the sensitive areas to maintain law and order, they said. The opposition PDP and Peoples Conference condemned Malik's detention under PSA, calling it an attempt to crush dissent and an assault on democracy.
