Congress to move Allahabad HC against Speaker's ruling rejecting its plea to disqualify two MLAs

New Delhi : "The legal cell of the party in Delhi is preparing the petition for moving the high court," Congress Legislature Party leader Aradhana Misra told PTI on Wednesday.

On Speaker's ruling that the Congress' plea seeking disqualification of its two MLAs "lacked substance and sufficient evidence", Misra said, "There is sufficient the Assembly) under the 10th Schedule of the Constitution," Misra said, adding they have been continuously indulging in anti-party activities.

Giving an example, she said Aditi Singh participated in the special Vidhan Sabha session on October 2 last year defying the party whip against it.

"She said she did not get the whip. Even so, when she reached the Vidhan Sabha she was Harchandpur MLA Rakesh Singh, the CLP leader said he publicly criticised the party on several occasions.

Once he also organized a 'havan' on Prime Minister Narendra Modi's birthday, she added.

Speaker Dikshit dismissed the Congress petitions seeking disqualification of Rae Bareilly MLA Aditi Singh and Harchandpur MLA Rakesh Singh saying they "lacked substance".

for her reply but she refrained from responding to it after which the party had filed the disqualification petition.

Rakesh Singh has been accused of indulging in anti-party activities during the 2019 general elections by working for the BJP candidate from Rae Bareilly from where Congress president Sonia Gandhi was contesting.

Congress considers anti-defection

The Tenth Schedule says that a lawmaker can be disqualified from the House "if he has voluntarily given up his membership of such political party" or "if he votes or abstains from voting in such House contrary to any direction issued by the political party to which he belongs or by any person or authority authorised by it in this behalf without obtaining prior permission of such political party."

Two Congress leaders involved in the strategy argued that it is a conservative view to look at what is happening inside the House. "An elected lawmaker's conduct, his speeches, his hobnobbing with rivals too can be counted as ground for disqualification," said a senior party leader.

"He skipped two meetings of Congress legislature party, his loyalists gave three interviews demanding trust vote is proof of his intention. There are several examples of how the Supreme Court considered such an issue in the Rajiv Nair and the BS Yeddyurappa case," said another leader.

But P Sreedharan, former secretary general of the Lok Sabha, thinks otherwise. "Disqualification on ground of defection is mentioned clearly in the para 2 of the Tenth Schedule: If he has voluntarily given up his membership or if he votes against the party or abstains from voting. The issue of not following the direction of the party is connected to the House only. So any whip issued for non-House activities can't be a sufficient ground," said Sreedharan.

For Rajasthan assembly speaker CP Joshi, too, these are testing times. In the recent past, Joshi had advocated that speaker's powers vis-a-vis the Tenth Schedule should be curtailed and the decision to expel a member should be given to political parties.

In two conferences of presiding officers, he spearheaded the campaign to de-link speakers from the anti-defection
