PRESS RELEASE

Subject: Company Statement on Recent Unsubstantiated Media Reports

Considering recent speculative media reports alleging diversion of IPO proceeds at SHREE OSFM E-MOBILITY LIMITED, the Company categorically denies all such rumours and misinformed claims. These reports are unfounded and appear to have been triggered by unrelated issues surrounding certain SME companies. We stress that there is no basis for such allegations against our Company.

The Company has rigorously adhered to all statutory requirements related to the utilization of IPO funds, as transparently disclosed in its Draft Red Herring Prospectus (DRHP). Comprehensive compliance reports have been submitted to the National Stock Exchange (NSE) on a timely and ongoing basis, with no adverse observations.

Upholding the principles of corporate governance, transparency, and best business practices continues to be our highest priority. Robust internal controls and reporting frameworks are in place to ensure every commitment made to investors and regulators is honoured without exception.

We assure our stakeholders—shareholders, investors, employees, partners, and regulators—that our Company remains fully compliant with applicable laws and regulations. The Company maintains unwavering focus on ethical conduct, financial integrity, and transparent disclosures as a matter of principle and policy.

We urge all stakeholders to disregard unsubstantiated rumours and rely on official communications from the Company and regulatory authorities for any updates. For any further clarification, please contact our Investor Relations department at cs@shreeosfm.com.
