MOVE PUTS FRENCH LENDER AHEAD OF ITS WALL STREET PEERS

BNP Paribas handles half of record $4-bn MSCI trades

SAIKAT DAS & SAMIE MODAK
September 2

BNP PARIBAS ACCOUNTED for nearly half of the record $4.2 billion in stock trades linked to MSCI's index rebalancing through the closing auction system, sources said, a share that put the French lender ahead of its Wall Street peers.

The Paris-based bank executed about ₹18,000 crore of trades during Monday's closing auction, they said. The bulk of the transactions were carried out for global institutional investors, including hedge fund giant Millennium Management.

Hedge funds are increasingly using French banks to trade and hold assets in India

BULK DEALS

■ The bank executed about ₹18,000 crore of trades during Monday's closing auction

■ The bulk of the transactions were carried out for global institutional investors

because the country's tax treaty with France offers favorable treatment, while similar capital-gains benefits for Mauritius and Singapore have been removed, according to Nehal Sampat, partner at Price Waterhouse & Co LLP.

Representatives for BNP Paribas and Millennium did not reply to Bloomberg's email seeking comment.

Turnover in the National Stock Exchange's 20-minute auction session on August 31 was about 33 times the average since the mechanism's launch on August 3, as investors adjusted portfolios to MSCI's latest index changes.

Index-rebalancing trades have become an increasingly important business for global hedge funds. Such strategies typically involve anticipating changes that passive funds will be forced to make, building positions ahead of the effective date and seeking to profit when index-tracking flows arrive.

BNP Paribas has been expanding its securities-services franchise in India, where it provides custodial and other services to global funds and institutional clients. The lender has also been bolstering its India presence by setting up operations in GIFT City.

Bonds extend losses, yield at 6.97%

GOVERNMENT BONDS EXTENDED losses into a fifth straight session on Wednesday, as US Treasury yields climbed to near three-year highs and surging oil prices rekindled inflation fears.

The benchmark 10-year US Treasury yield, a global yardstick for borrowing costs, hovered at 4.81%, its highest level since November 2023. The 5% mark is a threshold traders say could further unnerv e global markets.

Bonds extended losses, driving borrowing costs to multi-decade highs, as conflict in West Asia lifted energy prices. Brent crude futures climbed to a six-week high of $95 per barrel in Asian trade. The yield on the Indian benchmark 6.94% 2036 bond climbed 2 basis points to close at 6.9754% on Wednesday.

Deputy governors stress stronger UCB governance

RBI Deputy Governors Swaminathan J (left) and Shirish Chandra Murmu

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 2

RESERVE BANK OF India (RBI) Deputy Governors Swaminathan J and Shirish Chandra Murmu emphasised stronger governance, robust internal controls and greater technology adoption in urban cooperative banks (UCBs). The governors were addressing the third conference of registrars of cooperative societies, organised by the RBI on Tuesday.

Swaminathan spoke about closer coordination between the RBI and registrars of cooperative societies and the central registrar of cooperative societies. He highlighted the need to strengthen controls against cyber-enabled frauds and money-mule accounts, and referred to Mission SAKSHAM as an initiative for capacity building in the sector.

Speaking at the conference,

Murmu said while cooperation has deep roots in India, a cooperative society, once licensed as a bank, assumes greater responsibilities and accountability. He emphasised the importance of professional and fit-and-proper boards and senior management, robust internal controls, greater technology adoption and timely resolution of weak UCBs.

Central Registrar of Cooperative Societies Shiv Pal Singh emphasised closer coordination between the cooperative authorities and the RBI, continued professionalisation of UCBs, and timely resolution of banks under liquidation.

Discussions during the conference covered key governance, regulatory and supervisory issues concerning UCBs, including the expectations of the RBI and the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation (DICGC).

Chandra contests NCLT order

PATRA ARGUED THE orders of Ashok Kumar Bhardwaj and Sharma were broadly aligned on the repayment plan and eligibility under Section 79 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC). He said the provisions for resolving differences between NCLT members did not empower the tribunal to constitute a five-member bench.

Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, appearing for dissenting creditors including LIC Housing Finance, Canara Bank and Union Bank, backed the larger bench, saying the case had produced three divergent views and presented 'very peculiar circumstances'.

Mehta initially sought disposal of the appeal against Sharma's order, with liberty to revive it if the constitution of the larger bench was challenged separately. Patra opposed the move, arguing that the five-member bench should have stayed all three orders.

The NCLAT, headed by Officiating Chairperson Justice Yogesh Khanna, said the constitution of the five-member NCLT bench was not directly before it. The tribunal also declined to allow Chandra to challenge the constitution separately while keeping the current appeal pending.

Zee TV Founder and Essel Group Chairman Subhash Chandra

The hearing also saw a sharp exchange over public commentary surrounding the ₹6.5-crore repayment proposal. Patra said Chandra had faced widespread criticism despite there being no final order approving the plan.

Mehta objected, saying the appellate forum should not be used for statements intended to influence media coverage. The NCLAT agreed and said any grievance should be raised before the NCLT, where the substantive proceedings remain pending. Mehta later withdrew his request to dispose of the appeals. The NCLAT allowed them to remain pending and listed the matter for October 7, 2026.
