ECONOMISTS SEE 25% PUNITIVE RUSSIAN OIL LEVY MAY END BY NOV

Lower US tariffs to offset India's Russia oil shift, says Nomura

RAGHAVENDRA KAMATH
Mumbai, October 24

RECALIBRATION OF DIS-COUNTED Russian oil imports by Indian companies should be more than offset by gains from lower US tariffs, Nomura said. Nomura economists Sonal Varma and Aurodeep Nandi said the shift away from Russian oil following US sanctions could pave the way for a trade deal with Washington and a reduction in tariffs.

The economists expect the 25% punitive levy on purchases of Russian oil to be removed after November, while the reciprocal 25% tariff will remain through the fiscal year ending March. US tariffs on India currently include a 25% reciprocal duty and a 25% penalty for buying Russian oil. "On the oil import bill, Russian crude oil discounts have moderated to ~$1.8-2.2/bbl, so the macro impact of a shift should be manageable, in our view," Nomura said in a note.

The direct impact of losing

CRUDE AWAKENING

■ Reciprocal 25% US tariff will remain through fiscal year

■ Russian crude discounts now ~$1.8-2.2 per barrel

■ Losing discount on 650 million barrels adds ~$1.5 billion annually

■ Impact equals roughly 0.04% of India's GDP

■ Sourcing shortfall from other countries may raise global oil prices

the discount on about 650 million barrels of crude oil imported from Russia would entail an additional annual cost of around $1.5 billion, or 0.04% of GDP, it said.

However, Nomura cautioned that since India is one of the world's largest crude oil consumers, its attempt to source the shortfall from other countries could push global oil prices higher and further add to its import bill.

Refiners in India — particularly Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) — are expected to substantially reduce imports of Russian oil after the Donald Trump administration announced sanctions on Russian state oil firms Rosneft and Lukoil. The two companies account for about 60% of the volumes purchased by Indian refiners.

RIL, sources said, will have to halt imports under its long-term deal to buy nearly 500,000 barrels per day of crude from Rosneft. The company, India's largest buyer of Russian crude and roughly half of the country's 1.7 million barrels per day of imports from Moscow, has no option but to recalibrate its sourcing.

Prashant Vasisht, senior vice president and co-group head, corporate ratings, ICRA, said that on an annual basis, the replacement with market-priced crude would increase the import bill by less than 2%.

Volumes are expected to fall sharply after November 21, 2025, once the sanctions take effect, Vasisht said.

"The near to medium-term impact on oil prices will depend on the duration of sanctions, their enforcement, and supply ramp-up from OPEC," said Pranav Master, senior practice leader and director, Crisil Intelligence.

Shares of oil companies moved marginally on Friday. RIL ended at ₹1,451.45, up 0.23% from Thursday's close, while BPCL fell 0.33%, HPCL slipped 0.44%, and IOCL gained 0.17%.

Byju's plea against Aakash rights issue rejected

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 24

THE NATIONAL COMPANY Law Tribunal has declined to grant any interim relief to insolvency-bound edtech firm Byju's, which sought to restrain Aakash Educational Services (AESL) from convening its extraordinary general meeting (EGM) for a rights issue.

It rejected Byju's plea to stay the EGM to be held on October 29, 2025, observing "acceptance of such plea would lead to an incoherent proposition undermining the independent rights of the company".

"As a shareholder, the Petitioner (Byju's) may validly seek financial documents to be aware of the health of the Respondent No 1 (AESL), but the proposed rights issue infusing funds cannot be termed to be unequitable," said the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT).

The tribunal's order mentioned that this is the second petition by Think & Learn, which operates under the brand name Byju's, filed through its Resolution Professional before the Bengaluru bench of the NCLT on the same issue.

Byju's had requested the proposed EGM to be kept on hold from 25% to less than 5%. A two-member bench observed that another petition on a similar issue is pending before it, and detailed arguments are continuing as per the dates scheduled with the consent of the parties.

The fact that the petitioner may or may not be able to exercise rights cannot form the basis to assess the efficacy of the board resolution, said the NCLT.

"We have considered the relevant materials without delving further, given the piquant situation, we do not think that the Petitioner (Byju's) should be favoured with the interim order," said the NCLT bench, comprising members Radhakrishna Sreepada and Sunil Kumar Aggarwal.

Dr Reddy's net profit rises 7% to ₹1,347 cr

DR REDDY'S LABORATORIES on Friday posted a 14.5% increase in its consolidated profit after tax (PAT) to ₹1,437 crore for the second quarter ended September 30, aided by robust sales in branded markets. The consolidated net profit rose 7.3% on year-to ₹1,347 crore in Q2.

The Hyderabad-based drug maker reported a PAT of ₹1,255 crore in the July-September quarter of the last financial year.

Its revenue rose to ₹8,805 crore in the second quarter from ₹8,016 crore in the year-ago period, Dr Reddy's Laboratories said. "Growth in Q2 was driven by momentum in branded markets and steady contributions from the Nicotine Replacement Therapy (NRT) portfolio, which helped offset the decline in US Lenalidomide sales," co-chairman and MD GV Prasad stated. The firm remains focused on strengthening its core business, advancing key pipeline assets, driving productivity and pursuing business development initiatives, he added.
