CBI files EPFO cheating case against Anil Ambani

EPFO had invested ₹2,500 crore in RCL's secured non-convertible debentures in 2013-14

Mumbai: CBI lodged a cheating case against Reliance Capital Ltd (RCL), its ex-chairman Anil Ambani and unknown public servants in the alleged Rs 1,816 crore loss caused to Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO).

CBI alleged that EPFO invested Rs 2,500 crore in RCL's secured non-convertible debentures in 2013-14 and the company subsequently defaulted on repayment. Earlier, the issue was settled before National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), but recently ED shared its investigation finding of RCL's fraudulent transactions. Based on this, EPFO subsequently filed a fraud case with CBI against Ambani and RCL.

A spokesperson of Anil Ambani said, "The FIR registered by CBI pertains to Reliance Capital Limited. Ambani served as a non-executive director/chairman of the Board of Reliance Capital Limited from 2005 until Nov 2021, when Reserve Bank of India superseded the board of directors of the company and appointed an administrator. Ambani denies any wrongdoing, whatsoever, and reserves all rights available to him in law."

EPFO administered the Employees' Provident Fund, Pension Scheme and Deposit Linked Insurance Scheme. The fund accumulations with EPFO were vested in Central Board of Trustees (CBT), the statutory governing body which held, managed and invested such funds in trust for benefit of the subscribers.

RCL's financial position deteriorated in 2019, and the company subsequently went into Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process.

In 2021, EPFO lodged its claim before the resolution professional and, after NCLT approval in 2024, EPFO received Rs 1,492 crore of its total dues. The remaining amount of Rs 1,007 crore, along with Rs 809 crore interest, remained unpaid.

ED, which probed RCL in a separate case, recently shared its findings with EPFO.

EPFO said in its complaint to CBI that "the conduct of and transactions entered into Reliance Capital Limited and the persons in charge of its management during the period 7 Dec 2019 to 6 Dec 2021 disclose various fraudulent transactions..."

ED tracks funds from shell firms to properties, vehicles

Using the shell entities, they allegedly lured businessmen and investors with false promises of govt tenders, mid-day meal supply contracts and rubber business profits, and induced them to remit funds running into crores of rupees into bank accounts of these entities," ED said..

The central agency further said that the proceeds of crime were routed through a web of shell firms controlled by the accused and his associates, and were substantially withdrawn in cash for distribution. A significant portion of the proceeds was further traced to downstream entities and integrated into immovable properties, vehicles and other assets held in the names of the accused and his family members.

"Investigation has further revealed that Abhishek Chandra, IAS, an officer of the Tripura cadre presently under suspension, received Proceeds of Crime generated by Utpal Kumar Chowdhury and his associates, both directly into his personal bank accounts and indirectly through payments made by scheme entities to a private housing company towards booking of a flat in his name," according to ED.

Chowdhury and his associates have several cases registered against them in Tripura and Bengal.

Army, Raj police bust fake military uniform racket in Sriganganagar

Busting a big racket of counterfeit military uniforms, a joint operation by Indian Army's intelligence units and Rajasthan police has led to the seizure of nearly 1,000 metres of unauthorised army-pattern combat cloth from shops across the state's Sriganganagar district, reports Surendra Singh. Acting on a lead, intelligence personnel of the Army carried out a discreet investigation in the city, which pointed to a local firm as a key link in the supply chain allegedly distributing counterfeit army-pattern combat cloth to shops in Sriganganagar town and other nearby markets.

An interim investigation report was shared with Rajasthan police in mid-July, leading to a coordinated operation on July 30.

Railway panels recommend five Group A officers' early retirement

Times News Network

New Delhi: Review committees of Railway Board have recommended premature retirement of five Group 'A' officers in "public interest", a decision which officials said was aimed at sending out a strong message of "zero tolerance for corruption, lack of integrity and inefficiency".

While two of these officers belong to senior administrative grade (SAG), being equivalent to joint-secretary level officers, the other three are junior administrative grade (JAG) railway officers, who are at director or joint director level. "Integrity, discipline and accountability in public service remain non-negotiable. Actions taken under the relevant provisions of Indian Railway Establishment Code are aimed at upholding these core values," railway ministry said in an official statement.

It said the review committees had carried out detailed assessment of the officers' service records in accordance with prescribed procedure.

'Citizens have right to know what is happening in courts'

The judge stressed that deliberations on the elevation and transfer of judges by the SC collegium largely remain confidential, contrary to the principle of judicial transparency.

"While carrying out the next assessment on the scale of Judicial Transparency Index, I may request the JALDI team to also look into the aspect of opacity of the collegium system. Deliberations on elevation and transfer of judges remain confidential. Reasons for rejecting or deferring a recommendation are rarely disclosed in full. And the criteria applied are not codified in any publicly disclosed instrument. It is a very important issue. Citizens have a right to know what is happening in the courts. They have a right to know who would be their judges. They have a right to know judgments. These should be in the public domain", Justice Bhuyan underlined.

The report is the first systematic study assessing transparency practices across India's higher judiciary and evaluates disclosure of information by the Supreme Court and high courts across judicial processes, institutional governance and administration, and judicial and administrative personnel.

Referring to a previous collegium resolution reiterating the recommendation of senior advocate Saurabh Kirpal for appointment as a judge, Justice Bhuyan said he found the reasons recorded by the Supreme Court convincing but noted that despite more than three and a half years having passed, no appointment materialised. Key findings of the JALDI report reveal that only five high courts have published a budget on their websites for FY 2025-26 while none has published the criteria governing case allocation.

Elderly woman dies after son rips gold studs from her ears

Tiruvannamalai: A 78-year-old woman has died in Tamil Nadu after her son ripped off 4-gram gold studs from her ears, tearing her earlobes in the process.

Police said M Elumalai, 47, a lorry driver, visited his mother, M Mangalatsumi of Pathiri village in Tiruvannamalai district, in an inebriated condition on July 28 and demanded money to buy alcohol. When she refused, he assaulted her and tore gold earrings from her ears, before fleeing the scene of offence.

Neighbours rushed Mangalatsumi, who was bleeding profusely, to a govt hospital, where she succumbed to her injuries on July 31.

Mangalatsumi's daughter later lodged a complaint with the police, which booked the lorry driver on charges of murder and arrested him on Saturday morning.
