India tech funding rises 12 pc to $7.2 billion in H1 2026: Report

New Delhi, June 26 (IANS) India's technology startup ecosystem attracted $7.2 billion in funding during the first half of 2026, marking a 12 per cent increase from a year ago even as the number of funding rounds declined sharply, a report said on Thursday. The data compiled by Tracxn showed that Indian technology startups raised $7.2 billion across 652 funding rounds between January 1 and June 24, 2026.

While total funding increased 12 per cent compared with the same period last year, the number of deals declined 43 per cent year-on-year. According to the report, the average cheque size has increased substantially, with the same amount of capital now being distributed among less than half the number of companies funded during H1 2025. The trend of fewer deals and larger investments has strengthened every half-year since 2022, suggesting that the shift is structural rather than cyclical.

Tracxn said the Indian startup ecosystem has traded breadth for depth, with funding increasingly flowing toward stronger and more mature companies. The report noted that after startup funding peaked in 2021, overall investments declined nearly 72 per cent by 2023 before stabilising at around $12 billion annually over the past two years.

The report identified three distinct phases in the market's evolution: the funding boom of 2021, the subsequent correction through 2023, and the emergence of a more focused and disciplined investment environment. In vestors are now allocating larger amounts to fewer companies, while capital is increasingly moving from consumer-focused businesses toward infrastructure and deep-tech sectors. India added five new unicorns during the first half of 2026, compared with four during the same period last year. Among them, AI-focused startups Neysa and Sarvam, both founded in 2023, achieved unicorn status within 1.3 years and 2.5 years respectively, significantly reducing the traditional timeline required to reach a $1 billion valuation. The average time taken by startups to move from first funding to IPO declined to 8.1 years from 14.5 years, indicating that newer startup cohorts are reaching public markets more quickly and across a wider range of sectors. —IANS

Govt mandates QR codes for vaccines, cancer drugs to curb counterfeit medicines

New Delhi, June 26 (IANS) The government has expanded the ambit of QR code-based tracking to include vaccines, antimicrobials, anti-cancer medicines and narcotic and psychotropic drugs to strengthen the quality, safety and integrity of India's pharmaceutical supply chain, according to an official statement on Thursday. The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare (MoHFW) has notified amendments to the Drugs Rules, 1945, bringing these categories of medicines under Schedule H2 and expanding the scope of the existing track-and-trace framework.

Under the amended provisions, all vaccines, antimicrobials, narcotic and psychotropic drugs covered under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS)

Act, 1985, and all anti-cancer medicines will be required to carry a barcode or quick response (QR) code on their packaging.

Now, manufacturers will have to print or affix the QR code on the primary packaging label of the product or where space is insufficient on the secondary packaging label.

The QR code will store key information that can be accessed through software applications to facilitate authentication and verification of medicines across the supply chain.

According to the government, the code will contain details such as the unique product identification code, generic and brand names, name and address of the manufacturer, batch number, manufacturing and expiry dates, manufacturing information number and information on excipients, wherever applicable.

The QR code-based identification requirement was earlier applicable only to the top 300 pharmaceutical brands in the country.

The enhanced traceability mechanism will enable authentication of medicines at various stages of the supply chain and improve tracking and verification of drug products, according to the government.

It further noted that the decision is expected to support efforts to curb the distribution of spurious medicines and contribute to the fight against Anti-Microbial Resistance (AMR) by helping identify and monitor counterfeit and substandard antimicrobial products.

Moreover, to provide adequate time for implementation, the government has prescribed phased compliance timelines. The provisions relating to vaccines, anti-cancer medicines, and narcotic and psychotropic drugs will come into force from July 1, 2027, while the provisions relating to antimicrobials will become effective from July 1, 2028.

The measure is aimed at strengthening regulatory oversight and ensuring greater transparency, safety and accountability in the country's pharmaceutical supply chain, the government said.

Business Brief III

India, UK explore new opportunities to deepen economic, trade cooperation: Piyush Goyal

London/New Delhi, June 26 (IANS) Commerce and Industry Minister Piyush Goyal on Friday said that India and the UK remain committed to fostering an ecosystem that promotes innovation, investment, and holistic growth for both nations. In "meaningful discussions" with Secretary of State for Business and Trade, Peter Kyle, Goyal said that the "conversation reflected the warmth, trust and forward-looking vision that continue to define our bilateral partnership".

"With the India-UK Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) and Double Contribution Convention (DCC) coming into effect on July 15, 2026, we remain committed to fostering an ecosystem that promotes innovation, investment, and holistic growth for both nations," Goyal posted on X. He earlier addressed a business reception with wide participation from business leaders and investors from both India and the UK. "Spoke about how the India-UK Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) will unlock immense opportunities for growth & prosperity on both sides," said Commerce Minister. He also urged them to leverage the full potential of the landmark agreement to deepen collaboration, boost trade and investment flows, and drive innovation across sectors.

Kerala CM Satheesan gets CMFRI blueprint for jaggery revival

Kochi, June 25 (IANS) In a proposal that could open a new avenue for Kerala's farm sector, the Ernakulam Krishi Vignyan Kendra (KVK) of the ICAR-Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute (CMFRI) recommended a statewide programme to promote scientific sugarcane cultivation and village-level jaggery production units, citing the success of its Alangad Jaggery Revival Model. The policy document, submitted to Chief Minister V.D. Satheesan, outlines a roadmap for ensuring the availability of adulteration-free jaggery while creating new income opportunities for farmers and rural entrepreneurs.

According to the document, the Alangad initiative has achieved an average sugarcane yield of 16 tonnes per acre.

Bangladesh finances under strain as foreign debt burden surges: Report

New Delhi, June 26 (IANS) The Bangladesh government's foreign debt service burden is projected to almost double to $7.6 billion in FY29 from $4.1 billion in FY25 due to rising interest payments, shorter loan maturities, and repayments for several mega projects which poses a serious threat to the country's financial stability, according to a report in The Daily Star, a Dhaka-based newspaper. According to the Finance Division's 'Medium-Term Macroeconomic Policy Statement' for FY27-FY29, the foreign debt servicing costs for FY2028-29 will include $4.3 billion in principal repayments, while interest payments are projected at $4.94 billion. It is projected to rise to $5.62 billion in the upcoming fiscal year.

According to finance ministry data, Bangladesh's foreign debt stock is projected to increase to $123 billion by FY2028-29 from $77.27 billion at the end of the last fiscal year and $51 billion in FY2020-21, said the report. The report cites Zahid Hussain, former lead economist at the World Bank's Dhaka office, as saying that the rise is inevitable as debt stocks expand. He identified three major reasons behind the higher servicing burden: rapid debt accumulation following the Covid-19 pandemic, shorter repayment periods than in the past, and rising interest rates.

He also pointed to the repayment structure of World Bank loans, under which borrowers repay 1 per cent interest annually during the first 10 years, 2 per cent in the next decade, and progressively higher amounts thereafter. As older loans enter later repayment phases, annual obligations rise. A stronger US dollar is adding further pressure, he added.

The report further highlights that repayment schedules for large bilateral loans are also becoming due. Annual repayments for the Roppur Nuclear Power Plant loan are expected to require around $600 million, while repayment of Russia's $12 billion loan for the project will begin in September 2028. Chinese loans also require faster repayments due to shorter grace periods and maturities.

Why Don't Instant Noodles Taste Gujarati? Ahmedabad Company Bets on Regional Flavours to Crack India's Noodle Market

Ahmedabad, June 2026: Instant noodles have become one of India's most popular convenience foods, enjoyed by millions across age groups and geographies. Yet despite India's rich culinary diversity, most noodle flavours available in the market continue to follow a familiar formula—spicy masala, schezwan, or Indo-Chinese-inspired seasonings.

Ahmedabad-based food company believes there is room for something different.

As India's packaged food industry increasingly embraces regional tastes and local food preferences, EJAG

Foods has launched "NOOLS Masala Kevhu Pade", an instant noodle inspired by Gujarat's distinctive khatta-meetha flavour profile.

The launch raises an interesting question for India's food industry: "Why have regional tastes transformed ready-to-eat foods, but remained largely absent from the instant noodle aisle?"

India's packaged food sector has witnessed a growing shift towards localisation in recent years. Consumers are increasingly seeking products that reflect familiar tastes and cultural food habits rather er than generic national flavours. Major snack manufacturers have introduced region-specific variants inspired by local cuisines, while beverage brands have launched flavours tailored to specific states and markets.

Ahmedabad Rides for Inclusion: Over 1,000 People Join 12th Edition of Messengers on Cycles

Ahmedabad, June 28, 2026: Ahmedabad came together for inclusion this morning as over 1,000 cyclists, walkers, families, corporate teams, schools, volunteers, and persons with deafblindness participated in the 12th edition of Messengers on Cycles 2026, organised by Sense International India (Sense India) at the Sabarmati Riverfront Event Centre.

Flagged off at 6:30 AM, the annual cyclothon and walkathon transformed the Riverfront into a vibrant celebration of inclusion, a closing Deafblind Awareness Week (22-28 June) and drawing attention to the nearly 500,000 persons with deafblindness in India, many of whom continue to remain unseen and unsupported.

Held every year around the birth anniversary of Helen Keller and the International Day of Deafblindness (27 June), Messengers on Cycles has grown into one of Ahmedabad's most recognised community events, bringing together people from all walks of life in support of persons with deafblindness.

Speaking on the occasion, Biju Mathew, Chief Operating Officer, Sense International India, said:

"Messengers on Cycles is more than a sporting event. It is a powerful reminder that inclusion begins when communities come together. Seeing over 1,000 people ride and walk alongside persons with deafblindness today sends a strong message that everyone deserves to be seen, heard and included."
