How can we build confidence?

There are four to five things. If not positive, then, at least, there should be balanced commentary. At present, it is very negative. September car sales are not bad. The economy is stabilising, green shoots are seen taking shape. If PMC Bank had not happened, we were actually kets, NBFCs, banks and HFCs are all involved in the credit market, and then there are tax laws where the Ministry of Finance has to be involved.

Better synergies between the regulators will provide a boost to the credit markets in India.
