BS INSIGHT TALKS BY PRASHANT DESAI
 Focus on ESI and not EMI, said Prashant Desai, Senior Director, Everstone Group and Head - Corporate Strategy and Industrial Relations of Burger King India in the BS Insight Talk webinar series organised by Business Standard for B-School students across India. He emphasised ESI - Earn, Save, Invest and not EMI be our focus and said each one should be a disciplined investor. He narrated how a setback in his family when he was young made them poor and how the change made him resolve rich when he grows up. He said we need to grow money with an optimistic mindset and said we need to save like a pessimist but, invest like an optimist. We have to reboot and upgrade our mindset said Mr Desai in his talk title 'CrI, All, Deal - Time to reboot. Time to upgrade.' He narrated examples of the US & World War II and how the save, invest and spend theory was evolved.

Mr Desai shared a lot of insights on how one can multiply his money in the right way and said 95% of Indians just earn less than 4% of the interest from their savings. Making money is simple, not easy. Knowledge can become potential power if it is multiplied by action. According to him all behaviour is belief-driven and said we all should move from the loaner mindset to the owner mindset. He answered a volley of questions from the students and faculty who had participated. Faculty and students appreciated Business Standard for the insightful session.
